OBJECT TO ASSESSMENT.—The LADRARY Association of Portland has filed with the City Council a remonstrance against the proposed extention of Stark street westerly in its present course and width from the west line of Twelfith street to the East line of Thirteenth, upon the ground that the assessment by the viewers of $1200 benefits against the north half of block 214, owned by the association, is erroneous, and that no benefits will intent to the property on account of such extension. Cancellation of the assessment is accordingly asked for, in addition to a request for a reassessment. Objec-OBJECT TO ASSESSMENT.-The Library to a request for a reassessment. Objec-tion to the proposed assessment is raised also by Ralph B. Duniway, as attorney for certain property-owners affected. for certain property-owners affected. Without waiving the alleged failure of the city to comply with the conditions precedent to the legal exercise of any such power, petitioner objects to the report of the viewers and proposed assessment as illegal and inequitable, and asks that the Council continue the consideration of the matter until such time as the property-owners can be heard, and that the Council make an assessment that will be reasonable. that the Council make an assessment that will be reasonable and equitable and the street opened. Unless this is done, says the petitioner, the property-owners will be compelled to take the matter into the courts to protect their rights in the

Issac Israel, financier and philosopher, with his funny, shuffling walk, clothes just one size too big for him, stepped to the footlights and said:

Money flies that's why they put an eagle on the dollar. I don't want to be a millionon the solar. I don't want to be a million alre-it to too common. Do I love my wife! No. I don't shake-it's gambling.

And dozens of other bright things. The large audience roared, and began to be aware that a new funny man-a real Heaware that a new funny man-a real Hebrew humorist-had come to town. It happened last night at the Marquam, and the actor was Barner Bernard, presenting his new comedy, "The Financier," written for him by H. D. Cotterell, of San Francisco. It has only been played two weeks in San Francisco, one in Los Angeles, and here.

Bernard and his play met with one continuous ovation, marked with hearty inuous ovation, marked with one con-tinuous ovation, marked with hearty laughter. So insistent was the applause at the end of the first act that Bernard had to make a speech of thanks before the curtain to satisfy his admirers. Yet the lines are not all laughter, for comedy and that which is nearly akin to tears are skilifully mingled. "I love you!" is an expression, thank goodness, often heard. But when Bernard says it in his heard. But when Bernard says it in his work as Isaac Israel, to his wife, there is an exquisite pathos and ring of faithfulness that are as pure gold in making a home picture of domestic peace. As Financier, when he is the owner of a diamond mine that is afterward supposed to be worthless, and again when he is a broken down Hebrew tailor, Bernard scores high. MAYOR-ELECT ADDRESSES THE YOUNG MEN'S CLUB.

First Congregational Church Organization Discusses Good Citizenship and Municipal Affairs.

Mayor-elect Lane was the guest of honor at a meeting of the Young Men's Club of the First Congregational Church last night, and spoke freely upon the sub-ject of "Good clitzenship and Co-opera-tion for the Benefit of Municipal Affairs." dwelling particularly upon the duty of good citizens to attend the primaries, voting fight, and taking an interest in elections, an indifference to which made him almost as great a criminal as the man who willfully went wrong. The doc-tor drew several morals from the recent election, and said in the long run it paid to be straightforward and honest with the people. Felicitous speeches were made also by Dr. Andrew C. Smith, Rev. E. L. House, Professor Adams, Géorge H. Himes, Rev. De Rimer, of Washington, D. C.; Ernest McNaughton, Reno Hutchinson, and others, the general sentiment of the speakers being to aid the Mayor to carry out the reforms he had advocated. Dr. Smith claimed that the feeling that out Lene claimed that the feeling that put Lane into office was still alive in the commu-nity, and was applieded vigorously when nity, and was applauded vigorously when he implored his hearers not to let it die

Rev. E. L. House, the pastor of the thurch, created considerable merriment by stating that the speech of Dr. Lane luring the evening did not sound like a Democrat-it sounded like a man. great, essential thing for the men of the city," said he. "Is to stand by the Mayor, and we want him to feel that we are with im, and are anxious to make his administration effective." One of the speakers struck a keynote by offering this toast: 'May his jaw never grow shorter and his spinal column never lessen an inch until he has done some things that ought to be done here

A WORKING BRAIN Can Be Made Successful on Right Food.

A busy man in one of America's targest watch factories tells how by change of food he gained a clear brain and steady nerves and averted a mental and physical breakdown. He says:

"I was accustomed all my life to the ordinary diet of the average table. I thought that meat, potatoes and other vegetables and fruit were necessary, and that tea, coffee and pastry in moderate quantities

But I found, in course of time, that my dietary was affecting my health seri-ously. For four years I continued to run down. In time my nerves became serious. ly affected: they seemed constantly keyed up to the highest tension, and I became subject to the most violent billious at-tacks, which used to leave me in a weak and nervous condition for several days. The climax seemed to have been reached a few years ago, when I found myself about as near a physical wreck as a man could well be, and live. Physicians, tonics could well be, and live. Physicians, tonics and other medicines, visits to the country, etc., etc., were of no avail.

"In sheer desperation I concluded, a few months ago, to see what effect a diet of Grape-Nuts food would have. I had often heard of it, but had little hope it would help me. I at once cut out all the heavy dishes, with the tea and coffee, that I had always used, and began to eat Grape-Nuts with cream and a pinch of sait. Afterwards I added fruit, with occasionally an egg beaten up in milk, and entire wheat egg beaten up in milk, and entire wheat bread. This has been practically my diet for more than two months. "I found that with me new diet I gained

"I found that with he new diet I gained complete relief almost immediately from all the distress that used to follow every meal, my billous condition was speedily regulated and cured, my nerves have grown healthy and steady—in short, my run-down constitution has been reconstructed and built up. As to the effect upon my mental powers, I have only to point to the fact that I have recently been placed in a responsible position in our expension.

point to the fact that I have recently been placed in a responsible position in our establishment where complete concentration of mind is required to deal with complicated records and reports, and that I have been enabled to keep my accounts absolutely correct, which my numerous predecessors uniformly falled to do.

"I think these things speak volumes in favor of Grape-Nuts food as a nerve and brain-builder. I sacribe all my improvement, mental and physical, to the fact that I am possessed of steadler nerves, a clearer brain, a fine appetite, and have gained healthily in weight, to the cutting out of heavy-food and the systematic use of Grape-Nuts food."
