Last week it was decided to change the date of "Spokane" day from June 20 to September 12, but the announce-ment failed to reach the ears of all those who intended to visit the Exposition and as a result there assembled at the Fair yesterday fully 1900 visit-ors from the metropolis of Eastern Washington. The others who intended visiting the Exposition from Spokane remained at home as they had heard of their special day being deferred. Over 5300 people were expected from Spokan yesterday before the dates were changes. Several hundred enthusiastic sightseers and exploiters of Eastern Washington were undaunted when they became acquainted of the change and determined to make the best of it. So the day was celebrated as though nothing had happened and the City of Spo-kane occupied the topmost pinnacle of the Exposition events of yesterday, Although the Spokane Jelegation was rather small in numbers the plucky Spokanites made up this deficiency by toeir enthusiasm and exploitation of the "coming" city of Eastern Wash-

times during the Summer.
Early yesterday morning the Spo-kane visitors gathered at the Washington building and held a consultation as to how they would relebrate the day, as no preparations had been made. W. S. McCrea, of Spokane, took the lead in organizing the visiting Washingtonians. The men in charge of the Spokane booth in the Washing-ton building were consulted and it was discovered that a large shipment of strawberries had just arrived from the Kenniwick district for exhibition

The exercises were held in the Spokane booth at 2 o'clock in the after-noon, A. L. Smith presiding as chair-man. Major T. M. Clarkson delivered an address of welcome to the visitors of behalf of the Lawis and Clark Exposi tion management. He showered compliments upon those present, saying that the holding of the exercises upon a few hours' notice illustrated how energetic and resourceful were the people of Spokane. He said it was an exem-piffication of the Spokane spirit and public progressiveness.

was largely instrumental in bringing Spokane into prominence yesterday. Mr. McCrea stated that the exercises were only preliminary to the celebra-tion that would be held in September when a whole week would be devoted to the City of Spokane. He stated that over $2000 would be expended by the citizens of Spokane on September 12 which has been designated as their special day. He said the attendance arranged by the hostewes. FOURTH AT FAIR GROUNDS

City Will Co-Operate With Exposition Management for Occasion.

The Fourth of July will be celebrated upon the water and terraces of the Fair grounds. The city will co-operate with the Fair in making the most splendid display of fireworks that this part of the country has known. The sk; will be turned into a shower of silver and tinuous performance of set pieces will be given.

President Goode wrote Mayor Williams asking the city's co-operation in the matter of the Fourin and the Mayor turned over the request to the Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Club. These bodies, of course, will not hesitate to grant the request. A certain amount of formal celebra-

Pleads Guilty, but Claims Innocence.

Andrew Jansen pleaded guilty before Judge Frazer yesterday to a charge of obtaining $200 under false pretenses from Kirk Hoover, remarking as he did so: "It is pretty hard to plead guilty to a charge when you are not guilty. This plea was accepted with the understanding that if Jansen obtains certain evidence any time within two weeks he can withdraw the plea and enter a plea of not guilty, and stand trial.

The reason for this strange proceeding was that Jansen told his attorney where and from whom evidence could be procured in Pennsylvania, Spokane and other places that would prove a complete alibi. The lawyer has tried for several weeks to obtain this tes-timony, but without result. The trial of Jansen was set for today. The attorhey was puzzled to know what to do and Mr, Adams, Deputy District Attorney, advised him to have his client plead guilty, and to permit him to change the plea any day covering a period of two weeks. Hoover alleges period of two seeds from him by that Jansen procured $100 from him by purporting to be Herman Frad, and selling him some cordwood which did not exist. Jansen was arrested in Pennsylvania. He left a wife and several children in Columbia County when he went East, and borrowed liberally from friends and acquaintances before going away. He was returned here an extradition warrant.

ANOTHER CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

Captain W. S. Graham, 1321 Eoff St., Wheeling, W. Va., writing June 14, 'o4, says: "I am so grateful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me. I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my skin money. My friends tell me my sain now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them all that Cuticura Soap and Ointment did it."

STILL ANOTHER CURE Neck Covered With Sores, Hair Fell Out, Wild With Itching

Mr. H. J. Spalding of 104 W. 104th St., New York City, says: "For two years my neck was covered with sores, the disease spreading to the disease spreading to my hair, which fell out, leaving an unsightly bald spot, and the soreness, inflammation, and merciless itching made me wild. After a few applications of Cuticura the torment subsided, the sores disappeared, and my hair grew thick and healthy as ever."

AND STILL ANOTHER

"For over thirty years I suffered from painful ulcers and an eruption from my knees to my feet, and could find neither doctors nor medicines to help me, until I took Cuticura which cured me in six months.
