

NOT A HOP BOOL

Object of the Proposed Growers' Corporation.

CONRAD KREBS EXPLAINS

Industry of This State to Be Put on Sound Business Basis—Farmers to Get Full Market Value for Their Product.

HOPE—Object of the 1934 hop corporation, outlined by Krebs.

VEGETABLES—Several cases of potatoes arrived. New crop plant in market.

EGGS—Market expected to reach 20 cents in two days.

BEANS—Sharp advance in bayonet.

Conrad Krebs, who came down from Salem yesterday, is enthusiastic over the prospects of the 1934 hop corporation.

"The growers understand the scheme," said Mr. Krebs, "unambiguously, and are ready to get to work."

"The marketing of the hops will be in the hands of a selling committee chosen by the growers, which means the profits of the middlemen will be eliminated."

Watermelon Will Be on Sale Today at 2 1/2 Cents a Pound.

The first wagonload of watermelons to arrive this season will be put on sale this morning at 2 1/2 per hundred weight.

Apples and Prunes in Northwest.

A correspondent of the California Fruitgrower, after traveling through the entire Northwest, says that there is not 30 per cent of a crop of Italian, Hungarian and Silver prunes left.

LAST SHAWKO SALE

Competition Is Brisk, Though Only Two Buyers Bid.

FORMER PRICES PREVAIL

Fifteen Lots of Wool, Aggregating 200,000 Pounds Goes to Boston Firms—Last Trainload of Sheep Forwarded.

SHAWKO, Ore., June 20.—(Special)—The last of the sealed bid wool sales scheduled in Oregon came off here today.

With the exception of a few straggling clips, which will be disposed of at private sale on arrival, this closes the wool trading in Eastern Oregon for the season.

Simultaneously with the closing of the wool-selling from this section the last trainload of sheep contracted for Eastern shipment was forwarded.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—(Special)—The local market for dairy products, more especially butter, is in one of its periodical fits of hysteria.

EUROPEAN WHEAT MARKETS

SUMMER WEATHER HAS DECIDED EFFECT UPON TRADE.

Prices Also Depressed by Larger Russian Shipments—Requirements of Next Quarter.

The grain situation in Europe is reported by the London correspondent of the Northwest.

In addition to the hot weather and the generally favorable condition of the European crops, the market has also been influenced by reports that Russia will export 100,000,000 bushels.

Under ordinary conditions the fact that European importing countries depend upon Russia for a large proportion of their requirements would have influenced Russian holders very considerably.
