

PLUNGES INTO DITCH

Twentieth Century Limited Meets Disaster.

FOURTEEN DEATHS RESULT

Dashes Into Open Switch at Terrific Speed and Takes Fire—Many Passengers Fatally Burned.

CLEVELAND, O., June 21—While traveling at the rate of 70 miles an hour, the famous Twentieth Century Limited, the fastest long-distance train in the world, ran through an open switch at the little town of Mentor, east of Cleveland, at 9:29 o'clock last night, causing one of the most horrible wrecks in the history of the Lake Shore Road.

The engine was hurled into the ditch. A part of the train was crushed on top of it, and the wreck was partly burned. The horrors of the wreck were doubled in the hours of the fire.

Dead and Injured.

THOMAS B. MORGAN, of the Wellman-Seaver-Morgan Company, Cleveland, burned to death.

JOHN B. BENNETT, patent attorney, New York City, burned to death.

A. L. ROEDIGER, of the Flat Iron Company, New York City, died on an operating table at the Cleveland General Hospital.

ALLEN FILER, Collinswood, O., engineer, crushed under engine.

H. H. WRIGHT, traveling man, Chicago, died at Cleveland General Hospital.

FIREMAN GEORGE HAMILTON, crushed under engine.

WILLIAMS, first name and address unknown.

FIVE BODIES NOT YET IDENTIFIED.

The injured—At Cleveland General Hospital: J. J. Brandt, 35 years old, Toledo, trainman, seriously burned all over body.

Aaron Gorham, Newark, O., fireman, severely burned; J. A. Bartley, Akron, traveler, probably fatally; unknown man, fatally burned; S. C. Beckwith, New York City, advertising agent, seriously burned; Archibald P. Heman, London, English steel company representative, seriously burned and injured, probably fatally; J. H. Wilson, Chicago, traveler, at Charity Hospital, probably fatally injured.

Missing—A. L. Johnson, of Comery & Johnson, Cleveland; the barber and the porter of combination car.

Late reports gave the number of injured as 21, and these 21 are seriously injured, if not fatally hurt. Practically all the injured were burned and had to be extricated from the blazing wreckage by rescue parties.

Injured Crazed by Pain.

A peculiarly distressing feature of the rescue work was that the injured were so crazed when they were taken out from under the mass of wreckage that they could not even reveal their own identity, despite the urgent appeals and entreaties made by officials and others who knew how anxiously news of the wreck was awaited by families and friends of the passengers.

The order was finally given to search the living wreck victims in the hope that identification might in that way be established, but even when this was resorted to, but three sufferers could be identified. Three were identified by the pain and agony they had undergone. The scenes that resulted from their pitiable mental condition were affecting to the point of the tragic.

Switch Opened by Crank.

Assistant General Superintendent D. C. Moon, of the Lake Shore on the scene of the wreck, gave out the following statement at 1 o'clock.

"So far as I can learn the switch was opened and locked open by some party unknown, probably a crank, and evidently for malicious purposes. Train No. 10, a fast passenger train, passed through the same switch 45 minutes ahead of No. 38, and it was all right at that time. It is positive that no other train or engine, freight or passenger, passed through the switch between No. 10 and No. 38.

Momentum Was Appalling.

Traveling at a rate of more than a mile a minute, the heavy train was hurled to its doom with a momentum that was appalling. The scene of the accident was at the Mentor depot. The switch that caused the trouble is about 10 yards west of the depot. As the heavy engine struck the switch, the engine left the main track and swung violently to the left. For a distance of 20 yards the engine ran on the rails, and then leaping from the track, turned on its side just to the east of the depot. The momentum was such that the heavy tender was hurled into the air and was hurled in the depot.

The combination car was hurled with terrific violence on top of the engine and tender and in a moment was enveloped in flames from the engine.

The Chicago sleeper, which was immediately behind the combination car, was thrown from the track and, crashing into the depot, was completely buried in the wreck of the building. The violence of the crash was such that the depot collapsed on top of the wrecked coach. The hapless passengers in this coach were crushed and mangled in the wreck and then completely buried in the collapse of the structure.

The next sleeper following was left off the track behind and the other remained upright on the rails.

Boiler Bursts, Spreading Death.

An instant after the crash of the wreck the boiler of the great engine burst with terrific force, scattering fire and steam through the wreck in a manner that made escape for the helpless imprisoned passengers impossible.

The wrecked combination car, which had landed crushed and splintered on top of the engine, was at once enveloped in blinding flames and scalding steam. The cries of the imprisoned passengers were heard above the roar, but they were beyond all human aid, and the car became a pyre for a number of human beings.

EATEN BY NEW GUINEANS

Little Doubt of Fate of Two American Missionaries.

probable fate of Rev. Joseph Chalmers and his companion, Rev. Oliver Tomkins. Presbyterians missionaries, who attempted to penetrate the interior of New Guinea, was brought to this port yesterday afternoon by Bert Doyle, a passenger aboard the Oceanic Company's steamship Ventura. Doyle says that the skulls of the two devoted men were recently recovered from one of the savage chiefdoms near Otenana, where for many months, picked bare of flesh by birds and bleached by sun and rain, these skulls had served as the principal ornament on poles before the tribe's dubs, or council-house.

The expedition into the interior of New Guinea, which Chalmers and Tomkins attempted to make late in 1893 was regarded as little short of suicidal. Although this vast territory lies only across the Torres Strait from Australia, no white man has ever yet explored it, with the single exception of D'Albertis.

TEAMSTERS MUST YIELD

CHICAGO EMPLOYERS INSIST ON TOTAL SURRENDER.

Will Not Even Allow Union Buttons. Rioting Breaks Out and Several Men Are Beaten.

CHICAGO, June 21.—A settlement of the teamsters' strike by mediation tonight appears to be as remote as it did a month ago. From today's developments, the indications are that the committee appointed by the Teamsters' Joint Council, with full power to act in bringing about an adjustment of the difficulty, will be unable to accomplish anything. This committee called on J. V. Farwell, representative of the Employers' Association, today and requested that the employers grant the committee a conference in an attempt to settle the strike. Mr. Farwell informed the labor men that there was only one way to settle the trouble—that was for the strikers to accept the terms offered by the employers a week ago. These terms are so at variance with what the strikers demand that the committee requested Mr. Farwell to give them until tomorrow morning to consider the matter.

Mr. Farwell also informed the labor officials that, unless they reached a decision to accept the terms of the employers, there was no use in making any further attempt to bring about a conference, as the employers were in a position to dictate terms, and did not intend to concede the strikers another single point.

Governor Deneen has been asked to put an end to the trouble. He refused to interfere. The two features of the employers' proposition to which the teamsters have objected are the maintenance of police protection and the discarding of the union buttons. The teamsters, it is said, are willing to waive the police question, but have the crowd had grown so dense and threatening that the officer was compelled to draw his revolver. This held the mob in check until the arrival of a squad of police, which dispersed the mob.

Tarrasch Leads Chess Masters.

OSTEND, June 21.—Two games unfinished in previous rounds of the international chess match, namely, those between Taubenhaus and Burns from the fourth round, and Janowski and Marco from the sixth round, were continued today. All the rest of the competitors having a day off. The first named contest was drawn, while Janowski resigned his game with Marco. Tarrasch therefore now leads Janowski and Maroczy with half a point, Leonard with one point and Alapin, Marco, Marshall, Schlechter, Teichmann and Wolf with 1/2 points, the latter having each scored 1/2 points.

Wear "Anti-Chafe" Gloria Shoes

Chafed heels and ankles are the penalty of wearing the ordinary makes of low cut shoes. Most factories make Oxford shoes on the same lasts they fashion the high shoes over. Such lasts are too full at the ankle to hold the Oxford in its proper position, and not only "gape" there, but slide up and down on the foot, wearing the stocking first and the heel next. "Gloria" Oxfords are cut separately for right and left feet, and are shaped upon special Oxford lasts, that bring just the right tension upon the ankle to prevent slipping, and also to avoid pinching around the upper edge. A modest price, too—$3.50. For men or women.
