The Oregonian will be delivered by carrier and will be on sale at the principal points on Long Beach, at Seaside and Yaguna Bay throughout the summer season. It will also be on sale at Gearhart Park, Nye Creek, Willits, Collins Hot Springs and St. Martin's Springs (Carson, Wash.). Orders by mail will receive careful attention and all mail subscriptions must be paid for in advance.

DINNER IN HONOR OF W. W. COTTON.

All those who have a friendly feeling toward W. W. Cotton will have an opportunity to display it by attending the dinner to be given him at the American Inn next Tuesday evening. To take this public means of showing the general good wishes attending Mr. Cotton in his recent appointment as United States District Judge seemed easiest, as all commercial organizations, the lawyers and other interested could gather there on common ground. Anyone who cares to may be present by sending a check for $1 to one of the commercial organizations, the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trade or the Manufacturers' Association. These should be sent immediately, so that provision can be made. This fee will entitle the guest to a ticket to the Fair grounds. The dinner will take place at 7 o'clock.

MISSOURIANS TO HOLD BASKET PICNIC.

The Missouri Society of Oregon has arranged to hold an old-fashioned basket picnic at Hawthorne Park next Friday afternoon and evening. A committee of ladies has been appointed for the purpose of arranging refreshments. All Missourians are expected to bring their baskets and join in the festivities. There will be a number of good speakers present, and much said about the "old and old state." The grounds will be lighted with Japanese lanterns, and the luncheon will be served at 6 o'clock in the evening, so that those who cannot attend during the afternoon can be present during the evening. All visiting Missourians in the city are cordially invited to be present on this occasion. A large attendance is expected.

HOME TRAINING ASSOCIATION.

The Home Training Association has a treat in store for all who attend the meeting Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Y. W. C. A. rooms, corner of Sixth and Oak. Miss Bertha Chapman, superintendent of the nature work in the high school, of Oakland, Cal., will tell how they interest the children in a practical way in knowledge of gardening and animal and insect life. Teachers will be especially interested and mothers will gain much practical knowledge in ways and means for interesting children in the different lines of nature work. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Children will be cared for in the nursery.

FARMER ROBBED IN NORTH END.

The latest thing in robberies occurred yesterday afternoon, when a colored woman in a North End dive robbed a man of $40 and felt him to the floor with a big club when he protested. At least, this is the allegation, and she will have to stand trial on a charge of larceny from the person. She was arrested by Detectives Vaughn and Hartman and locked up in the City Jail. The woman is May Williams, having an unenviable reputation, and having before been implicated in shady transactions, according to the police. Her alleged victim is John Martin, a farmer who came to town to see the sights.

BANKERS LIKE PORTLAND.

The Texas bankers found a new diversion yesterday, sending of telegrams to the Portland bankers, telling what a glorious time they were having and what a wonderful climate they were in. They did not stint themselves in the matter of words and were in a mood to praise things in proper manner. This genial crowd of 100 moneyed men left for the Lone Star state last night on their special train.

WILL EXTEND NEWS SERVICE.

The California Editorial Association will be entertained by the Commercial Club Friday afternoon by a personally conducted trophy ride. The visiting newspapermen will be taken, immediately after lunch at the American Inn, upon a string of cars standing on the track on the St. Helens road and for two hours shown the whole city, so that they will not fail to see all there is.

TABERNACLE SERVICES.

At Oakley Green, near the station, The United Evangelical Church has erected a tabernacle for their mission work there. In its regular services will be held each Sunday. On next Sunday the services will open with a Sunday school at 10:30 P. M., and be followed by 1:30 P. M. Several ministers will be present. The public is cordially invited to these exercises.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Two North Portland sales were made yesterday of some consequence. One Senestrarre sold the southwest corner of Sixth and Flanders for C. A. Dolph and others to J. D. Hart for $12,000. Roswell Lamson bought the northwest corner of Fifth and Burnside from Dr. H. E. Jones for $35,000. Both purchases were made for improvement.

NEW YORK SOCIETY MEETS.

A musical evening was given by the New York State Society in Ekke's Hall, Marquam building, last night, and many New Yorkers attended. The contributors to the entertainment were Miss Alice Dougherty, the violinist; Miss Ethel Beharrell, and Mrs. W. H. Heppie with vocal solos, and Mrs. William Marshall, with piano selections.

ARRESTED FOR BIGNAMY.

Wanted in Klickitat County, Wash., on a charge of bigamy, was arrested yesterday by Detective Day. The prisoner was locked up in the City Jail. He will be returned to the care of his alleged partner.

CHARGES POLICEMAN WITH CRUELTY.

Charges of cruelty were preferred against Patrolman Quinton yesterday afternoon by R. M. Wilbur, a real estate dealer. He called on Chief of Police Hunt and stated that the officer struck and kicked a sailor in the face at Third and Washington streets, without provocation. Patrolman Quinton states that the sailor was insulting women and conducting himself in a very disorderly manner, and that he slapped him on the back and told him to go on and behave himself. Quinton says the reason he did not arrest the offender was because it is not customary to do so unless a sailor in uniform cannot be controlled. The matter will receive attention by Chief Hunt.

ARRANGE TENNIS MATCHES.

Five teams of tennis players will play off a series of matches to see which one represent the Multnomah Club in the International Tournament to be played here beginning July 11. The entries are: Wickham and Bellinger; Herdman and Ewing; Rohr and Prince; Morse and Durham; Goss and McAlpin. Two entries in the gentlemen's singles being allowed each of the nine clubs competing, the two playing off the finals of a set of matches between those in the first three places of the doubles matches will be chosen. The tennis tournament begins next Monday on the club courts, the entries closing Saturday.

IRRIGATION COMMITTEE COMING.

The Irrigation Committee sent out by Congress last in the grand project in the reclamation of arid lands will arrive in Portland from Ontario, Oregon, Friday. Senator Fulton and a committee from the Congressional Club consisting of Colonel E. M. Brannick, A. H. Devers and A. King Wilson, left yesterday morning in a special car provided by the O. R. & N. Company, to meet the distinguished visitors and accompanied them here. No formal programme has been provided for their entertainment, but they will be given due opportunity to secure any information they desire.

SECURES FUNDS FOR SCHOOL.

A. Worthington, secretary of the Board of Regents of the Eastern Oregon Normal School, has returned from Eastern Oregon last night with a check for $1,000 for the maintenance of the Normal School at Weston, Mr. Worthington met with a response that was hearty and prompt, and a loan of sufficient amount was raised to run the school until the next Legislature meets. The school is flourishing and the student body is increasing. The entire faculty will return next year, thus showing their loyalty and interest in the school.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Charles Smith was arrested by the Chief of Police of Vancouver, Wash., yesterday morning with some clothing in his possession. The prisoner was questioned and turned loose. Later, the Chief notified the Portland officers about the case, and it was discovered Smith was wanted here for robbery in an office of a local wharf. Late in the afternoon Patrolman Roberts brought in Smith and locked him up, charging drunkenness. When the facts became known, arrangements were made to place a charge of larceny against Smith.

HELD COUNCIL OF RECOGNITION.

A Council of recognition was held in Artisan's Hall, Portsmouth, last evening, and received the new University Park Congregational Church, Rev. D. B. Gray in charge, into fellowship. Rev. A. M. Rockwood, Rev. J. J. Smith, Rev. C. F. Clapp, Rev. R. M. Jones, Rev. H. M. Smith, Rev. C. McPherson and Dr. House were present to represent the Portland Congregational churches. Several addresses were delivered, and the pastor of the new church will erect a building at some point between University Park and Portsmouth.

BUILDING SWIMMING TANK.

A new swimming tank for the Portland baths is being built by the city. The tank will be completed and put in place by next Wednesday. The tank is built more substantially than the old one and will be open to the public some time next week. Boys from the public schools are waiting anxiously for the baths to be opened, and are coming down to the river every day to ascertain when this will occur.

MRS. A. J. JOELIN DEAD.

Mrs. A. J. Joelin, wife of one of the pioneer Methodist ministers of the country, died Monday morning at 8:30 A. M. of pneumonia. Her remains were held in Seattle yesterday, and the body will arrive in Portland today for burial. Mr. Joelin has held various ministerial positions in the vicinity of Portland, and was a member of the First Baptist Church. He was a well-known and respected citizen.

SAILOR'S FUNERAL.

Peter LeGac, the sailor who fell from the French ship La Fortune on a boom of logs Tuesday and was killed, will be buried this morning. Short services will be held at Finlay's undertaking rooms at 8:30 o'clock, after which the body will be taken to the Cathedral for further services. The remains will be interred in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

Howe Held to Grand Jury for Shooting Cadet.

ADMITS HE FIRED SHOTS

Saw Daughter in Park With Young Men and Opened Fire—One Victim Now Suffering From Wound in Hospital.

Charged with assault with a dangerous weapon upon Valerie Elbin, Charles H. Howe was held to the grand jury by Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday afternoon and placed under $500 bonds.

Howe admitted on the witness stand that he fired two shots on the night he found his daughter in the company of two young men, but denied shooting at Elbin. Arthur Fogarty, who was conversing with Miss Minnie Howe when her father came upon them in Terwilliger Park, at 10 o'clock at night, was struck by one of the bullets and is still confined to his bed in Good Samaritan Hospital.

Howe is a hazy working man, employed by the Southern Pacific Railway Company as a brakeman. Elbin and Fogarty are cadets at the Newell Military Academy, and are aged 14 years. Miss Howe is also aged 14. She was present in court, but did not take the stand.

Cadet Elbin was the first witness called to the stand by the prosecution, which was conducted by Deputy District Attorney Moser. The cadet said he had been over to the Oaks that night, and had just returned in company with Cadet Fogarty. The latter, witness said, was in company with Miss Minnie Howe. Her father suddenly appeared on the scene, armed with a revolver.

"What are you doing here?" the enraged father asked, when he saw the cadets with his daughter. Simultaneously, he drew his revolver, and shot at them. "Don't, father, don't!" Miss Howe cried in terror, as both cadets fled swiftly from the scene, and Howe pulled the trigger of the weapon. The police say that it is not far from the scene of the shooting to the school, and there both cadets ran, Fogarty being badly wounded, and Elbin, according to his testimony, narrowly escaping death by a bullet that whizzed past him.

Professor Newell testified that Cadets Fogarty and Elbin were in their rooms and had retired shortly after "laps," at 10 o'clock on the night of the shooting. He said they must have left after his tour of inspection and gone into the park. Not the least interesting and important testimony was given by Cadet Walter Toose, son of Walter L. Toose, of Woodburn.

"I heard the shots," said Cadet Toose, "and looked out of the window. Shortly two men approached, and I went down to see what was the trouble. I found a policeman and a man I now know to be Mr. Howe. They asked me if I knew anything about the shooting. Mr. Howe said to the policeman, 'If I had taken my shotgun, I would have killed them.' The policeman referred to was Sergeant Hoggoboom, attached to the first relief. He was dispatched to the scene by Captain Moore.

Mr. Howe denied shooting at Cadet Elbin. He said he shot two times at the man who was with his daughter. RUMELIN ON TRIAL AGAIN. Faces Charge of Attempting to Bribe City Engineer.

Charles E. Rumelin, Councilman, is on trial for the second time on a charge of having attempted to bribe W. C. Elliott when the latter was City Engineer. The information was filed by the city attorney, who said that Elliott had received $5000 in it if the bid of the Pacific Construction Company, of Everett, Wash., for $2,000 for building the Front-street bridge could be rejected. The bid of the Pacific Construction Company of San Francisco, amounting to $3,000, would prevail. The time yesterday was principally taken up in securing a jury to try the case, which is comprised of the following named persons:

Articles of Incorporation. Incorporation articles of the Hoisted Transportation Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by W. Hoisted, Lloyd Wentworth and E. E. Coover, capital stock $20,000. The objects are to carry on a steamboat and transportation business on the Willamette and Columbia Rivers.

Articles of Incorporation of the Bible Spiritual Society were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by Ira Taylor, Laura F. Sharp, Lizzie Colson, A. P. Merrill, H. E. Cottle, R. W. Colson and H. B. Campbell. The purposes of the society are to promulgate the philosophy of spiritualism, to study and interpret the scriptures, and to study and interpret the scriptures.

OREGON GRILL IS OPEN

Magnificent Rathskeller. COST OVER $20,000. Decorations Are of Holland Type and It Is Most Handsomely Furnished in Northwest.

After many weeks' preparation, the magnificent Rathskeller Grill of the Oregon Hotel has been opened at Seventh and Stark streets. The grill represents an outlay of over $20,000, while the hotel cost in the neighborhood of $100,000. The Rathskeller is conceded by all to be the finest in the Northwest.

The decorations are of the Holland type. The walls and pillars are of red brick, and the tables of massive weathered oak, the whole giving a most pleasing appearance to the guest. The Rathskeller will cater to the best trade only, and is especially prepared to handle after-theater parties and banquets.

The ventilation is the source of much satisfaction to Messrs. Wright and Dickson, the proprietors. Fresh air is constantly supplied to the big room, and guests will never be inconvenienced by smoke or odors from the kitchen.
