> WILL REPORT ON SEWER Engineers Who Examine It Agree With City Engineer Wanzer.

The engineers and others interested, constituting a committee from the prop-erty owners in the Tanner Creek sewer nascement district, who have been mak-ing a searching investigation of the con-dition of the sewer, have finished their work and will render a report this morning entirely favorable to City Engi-neer Wanzer, so far as his connection with the completion of the contract by the Riner bondsnen is concerned, and in the main agreeing with his conclusions relative to the perfect condition of the structure. The criticisms will be of minor importance. Captain R. F. Greenleaf and J. H. Cunningham were the engineers in charge by N. A. King and R. B. Lawson as a committee from the taxpayers. Those contents interested as property owners of the district are Theodore E. Wilcox, Tyler Woodward, N. A. King, R. B. Lamson and W. M. Ladd. It is understood that several of the principal holders of property in the dis-trict have announced their intention of trict have announced their intention of paying the assessment that was levied for the construction of the sewer without any further delay.

City Offenders Before Municipal Judge Hogue

Years ago when Charles Sandstrom was iceman on the Portland force, he a posteriors on the Portanua tarce, he covered himself with glory by the daring capture of one of the most celebrated gate-crackers ever operating in the United States. Now Sandstrom is a prisoner in the City Jail, charged with burgiary.

Headquarters Detective Jos Day pinced Sandstrom under arrest, and locked him up late Wednesday afternoon. Yesterday morning the prisoner appeared before Municipal Judge Hogue, was arraigned and his case continued until Saturday for hearing: Sandstrom, when a policeman, was one of the bravesi and best patroimen in the department. His daring capture of "Jack" Ethinebart in 1907 forms one of the most servational and brilliant chapters in the history of the force. Rhinebart had "cracked" not less than 20 safes in Port-tand. When Sandstrom appeared in the Mu-nicipal Court yesterday morning, he hard-how to act. Nearly every one

Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday re-quested Deputy City Attorney Flizgerald to institute an investigation of an at-traction on the Trail at the Lewis and Clark Exposition known as "Gay Parce." Many complaints have been lodged with Judge Hogue and other officials against this attraction. It is suit to be worse this attraction. It is said to be worse, if possible, than the exhibitions recently given by "The Girl in Blue." who was arrested by Chief of Police Hunt and released without a trial by Judge Hogue. The plea put up by counsol for the wo-man was that her performance was iden-tical with that given at "Gay Pares."

Mr. Fitzgerald had ample evidence to convict in the case of "The Giri in Blue," as he had four policemen who were treated to a special exhibition of muscle dancing by her. He will now make an effort to secure some young lads said to have been admitted to "Gay Paree."
