

RUSSIAN ARMY IN GREAT PERIL

Oyama Assumes Offensive and Threatens to Envelop
Its Flanks.

RETREAT OR DISASTER

Only Alternative Open to Linievitch.
Gloom Spreads Over Russia at News Army Is Almost Surrounded.

SPECIAL CABLE.
LONDON, June 22.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says, according to a telegram from Gungshu Pass, the Japanese advance is developing all along the line.

Competent military authorities no longer doubt that Marshal Oyama has definitely assumed the offensive. The question is, What will General Linievitch do? He is menaced by two grave dangers—One is the outflanking of his right, the other, the envelopment of his left.

Against the former the Russians have been shown powerless, so that, contrary to the dictates of prudence, he must send an army into Mongolia in an endeavor to make a counter-flank movement against the Japanese, which certain indications seem to show he already intends, or he must trust to the strength of his defenses at Gungshu Pass and Changchun.

In either case, Linievitch's position appears even now seriously if not hopelessly compromised, and, unless the Russian army promptly falls back on Harbin, another disaster is inevitable.

GLOOM HANGS OVER RUSSIA

Believed That Linievitch's Retreat Is Cut Off.

CHICAGO, June 22.—(Special).—A Daily News cablegram from St. Petersburg says:

"It is known that the czar and his entourage, now at the Summer palace at Peterhof, are greatly alarmed at the situation in Manchuria and at home, and this knowledge has plunged the country in gloom. It is believed that Linievitch is almost surrounded, and that his retreat is threatened. Oyama's right wing is now resting on the Mandarin road, near Ninguta, and will soon cut off Vladivostok."

"General Linievitch's record increases the perplexity of people here.
They remember that in 1904, Linievitch reported imaginary battles, and one time recorded a loss of 500 men out of a company containing only 200. His recent boast that, if he had ships, he could take Tokyo, his story that the Japanese were exhausted and retreating, all make the nation fear that he is about to lead the army into a disaster.
Today he admits that the Japanese have advanced north of Irum.
"The czar now realizes that, as Oyama is in a position to take Vladiv-ostok and Harbin and Togo is prepared to sail to the Baltic, he must submit to the Mikado's terms, and that President Roosevelt alone can induce the Japanese to moderate their demands."

RAINS MAY DELAY BATTLE

Streams Are Flooded and Roads Impassable in Manchuria.

LONDON, June 22.—Dispatches to the Daily Telegraph from the seat of war indicate that it is not unlikely the heavy rains will stop the progress of the great battle. The Moji Japan, correspondent of the paper says that operations are being greatly impeded by the rains.

The Manchurian plains are flooded, and the roads are almost impassable to the heavy transports, but the conditions are more favorable to the light wagons of the Japanese than to the heavy ones of the Russians.
Lieutenant-General Mischenko's operations have ceased, the correspondent says, and one of his detachments, which was unable to retreat owing to the flooded condition of streams, is completely cut off.

SEEMING PAUSE IN ADVANCE.

Japanese Believed to be Clearing Front Before Battle.

GUNSHU PASS, Manchuria, June 21.
—Delayed in Transmission.—The operations of the Japanese during the last five days, which at first were thought to be portentous, have apparently ended after the last fight. The Japanese appear to be merely clearing their immediate front.

There is now no reason for any further delay in beginning the great battle, as the opposing armies are essentially equal. The Russian troops are under the impression that an advance is about to begin.
Correspondents are not allowed to refer to the sentiments of the army concerning the peace proposals. The heads of the various armies have adopted a belligerent attitude, especially since the opening of peace negotiations was reported here.

RUMORS OF RUSSIAN RETREAT

Probably Withdrawing to Strong Positions at Singhai.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 22.—(Gaz. A.
M.).—News from the battlefield is extremely meagre. A press telegram of Tuesday's date speaks of a "retreat action," and there are rumors in the city that the Russian army is withdrawing to strong positions at Singhai. A dispatch from Gungshu Pass of Wednesday's date says that the operations of the Japanese apparently ended after the last fight, and they appear to be merely clearing their immediate front.

It is probable that the Russian advance lines are crossing the railroad and will continue their retreat more or less hurriedly in order to avoid being flanked and pocketed until the positions at Singhai are reached. The main forces seemingly are not yet in collision.
Colonel Lodjensky, one of the correspondents of the Associated Press, died at Harbin of blood poisoning.

LINIEVITCH DRAWS IN LINES

Movement Towards Railroad Believed to Presage Retreat.

CHICAGO, June 22.—(Special).—A Daily News staff correspondent with General Nogi's headquarters cables, via Fushu, under date of June 21, as follows:
"General Linievitch is drawing the troops on the extreme west of his line toward the railway. Apparently, the Russians are preparing to retreat. Only a few thousand Muscovites are still south of the Tumen River."

"General Mischenko, who, with his Cosack command, was recently driven out of Liao-yang-wopeang, has reconquered that position, having been reinforced by 12 squadrons of mixed cavalry and some batteries."

"There is no great change in the military situation. General activity is not possible until after the rainy season. The Japanese vanguard, however, is already north of Koonsoo."

ENTHUSIASM SCORES RAIN.

Whole Population Greeted President on Journey to Washington.

NEW YORK, June 22.—After a two-day's sojourn in Massachusetts, President Roosevelt tonight left Jersey City at 8:15 for Washington. The President's train arrived at the Mott Haven yards of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad at 6:45 and was switched to the transfer boat, Morland, which started a few minutes later for Jersey City. At Jersey City a crowd cheered the Chief Magistrate, and he bowed his acknowledgment to the train pulled out for the National capital.

In circumstances most unfavorable as far as the weather was concerned, he was accorded throughout the trip an enthusiastic welcome in all cities and towns he visited in Massachusetts and Connecticut. He was accompanied by distinguished honorees and given evidence of regard by large educational institutions. Despite the terrible electrical storm which swept over Massachusetts and Connecticut this afternoon, the President's journey from Williamstown to Jersey City was a prolonged ovation.

After leaving Williamstown at 1:40 P.
M., the special train stopped at North Adams, Adams, Pittsfield, Brookfield Junction, Danbury and South Norwalk.
The crowds assembled at the six places aggregated many thousands, those at North Adams, Pittsfield and Danbury being notably large. At North Adams, the home of Benjamin Franklin, Lawrence President left the train for a few minutes and addressed a great crowd of people from a stand erected near the station. He was introduced by the Mayor of the city and addressed him particularly to the children. The schools had been dismissed and all the factories of the city had shut down in order that all citizens might join in the welcome of the President. Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, and Representative Lawrence left the train at Pittsfield.
The President being joined there by President Meilen, of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, who accompanied him as far as Danbury.

What constituted a picturesque feature of all the greetings extended the President during the day was the total disregard of the people for the heavily falling rain, and hundreds were drenched as they listened to the President speak.
The President's train is scheduled to reach the National capital at 2 A. M.
The President expects on arrival in Washington to go directly to the White House. During the past two days he has been free, temporarily, from the cares of state. When he left Washington he gave into the keeping of Secretary Hay the negotiations for peace in the Far East during his absence. Since he left the White House he has received no news of importance bearing upon the pending negotiations.

NEED OF STRONG NAVY URGED

President Says We Neither Impose Nor Be Imposed Upon.

NEW MILFORD, Conn., June 22.—The special train bearing President Roosevelt reached here at 4:40 o'clock this afternoon. The President appeared on the rear platform, and, after shaking hands with the people assembled, made a short address. He spoke of the necessity of having a strong navy, and said that, while a strong power should not impose upon a weaker one, in turn it should not be imposed upon.
Ex-Governor Nicholas Stanish called for three cheers for the President, which were given with a will.
The train moved away, the President waved his hands, saying: "Good-bye, my friends, and good luck to you."

Whistles Prevent His Speaking.

DANBURY, Conn., June 22.—The President's train arrived here at 5:15 and made a five-minute stop. All the factories blew their whistles at the train drew into the station, and the noise they made prevented the President from making remarks.

President Reaches Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—President Roosevelt and party reached Washington at 2:45 o'clock this morning over the Pennsylvania Railroad, on the return from their New England trip. The President's carriage was in waiting. The President and his party were driven directly to the White House.

LAW OFFICERS ON TRAIL

er legislative action could be taken on this report.

"This is only a preliminary report," he replied. "In my judgment, the legislature should not act until it has received the report of the committee. The investigation of the case of the Mutual Life Insurance Company occupied between four and five months and Mr. Hendricks will make a report on the Equitable investigation will take as long. This you see, would make it out of the question to submit the Equitable matter to the present extraordinary session."

Phil's Effective Devise.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—President Roosevelt has ordered that First Lieutenant Hamilton Folger, unjustly convicted by court-martial in the Philippines, and dismissed from the Army, be reappointed to his grade. The law, however, prohibits the appointment of a civilian as commissioned officer in the Army unless he is under 27 years of age. Folger is over the age limit, and the only way in which to restore him will be through a special act of Congress.

New Great Northern Officials.

ST. PAUL, June 22.—George S. Stewart will succeed J. M. Davis as superintendent of the Great Northern. The position of assistant general superintendent, Edward Furness, of Spokane, has been appointed a traveling passenger agent for the Great Northern road.

CONFERENCE ON PEACE

President Will Renew Efforts
With Taft's Aid.

OBSTACLE TO ARMISTICE

Japan Wants Assurance Russia Is in Earnest Before Consenting—

Idoff's Ill Health May Prevent His Coming.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In official and diplomatic circles the return of the President is awaited with great interest because of the understanding that in case there has been any new definite step in the peace negotiations it would be announced in a statement from the White House.

Secretary Taft has a number of telegrams from Tokyo and St. Petersburg which he will take to the White House tomorrow and a conference on the general situation and the outlook for an armistice will follow. In the absence of the President, Secretary Hay has been in charge of the negotiations, but all information on the subject has been withheld at the State Department.

Despite their strong belief that it would greatly further the cause of peace, if the belligerents would avoid a clash between their armies pending the Washington conference, the President and Secretary Hay are aware of the wish of the Japanese that before assenting to an armistice they receive more definite assurances regarding Russia's intentions.

Mr. Takahira, the Japanese Minister, is expected to return to Washington tomorrow, and Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador, will be in Washington by the end of the week.

CHOOSING THE NEGOTIATORS

Cassini Will Be Recalled—Will May Come in Neidoff's Place.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 22.—The Russian press is anxious to say that Count Cassini, the retiring Russian Ambassador at Washington, will not participate in the peace negotiations, but will leave the United States immediately on the arrival of Baron Rosen, his successor. From independent sources, the Associated Press confirms this statement.

Jordan Minister Lansdowne is indisposed. It is understood his condition is not serious, but his physician was called in last night and ordered him not to leave his bedroom today. There is no information, however, that this will appreciably delay the pending negotiations.

The question of a temporary suspension of hostilities seems to rest with Japan.
In the meantime the Chamberlains of St.
Petersburg and Tokyo are occupied with the selection of the plenipotentiaries. It can now be regarded as settled that they will number three on each side. An important consideration requiring adjustment is the desire of each country to appoint negotiators of equal rank, and this increases the probability that M. Witte, President of the Committee of Ministers, may be one of the Russian plenipotentiaries if the Japanese government names Marquis Ito, president of the Japanese Privy Council. It is possible that M.
Neidoff, the Russian Ambassador at Paris, may not go to Washington. As Dean of the Russian Legation, he is the first choice of the Foreign Office, but he is of advanced age, and his health is not robust. Should Neidoff not be selected, it is considered certain that Baron Rosen will be appointed.

Cassini's Plans Unchanged.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, announced at the time of the appointment of Baron Rosen as his successor that he would sail for Europe soon after the arrival of Baron Rosen, about July 5. Count Cassini's plans have never been changed since then. He has not yet finally decided on the exact date of his departure, but expects to get away probably the week following Baron Rosen's arrival, unless instructions arrive in the meantime.

Britain Will Not Aid Armistice.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—No assistance is expected in Washington from the London Government in whatever efforts the President may initiate to bring about an immediate armistice or to prevent a clash before the convening of the Washington conference. The London Government as an ally of Japan has shown itself in hearty sympathy with the President's policy to bring the belligerents together.
It feels that it cannot undertake to suggest an armistice at this time.

Neidoff's Health a Hindrance.

PARIS, June 22.—M. Neidoff, the Russian Ambassador here, has not been advised of his appointment as peace plenipotentiary, and therefore doubts the report. Moreover, it is said that the Ambassador's health does not warrant his taking a long sea voyage.

Russian Stocks Weaker.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 22.—Prices on the Bourse sagged a little, Imperial debenture losing one-quarter of a point.

BIG BEAR FOR PRESIDENT

Wyoming Rancher Will Present Him With Monster Silvertip.

MEETETEE, Wyo., June 22.—(Special).
—What is believed to be the hide of the largest silver tip bear ever killed in this state will be presented to President Roosevelt by L. Phelps, a wealthy citizen of this section, who paid $200 for it.

Henry Lyons, a trapper living near the head of the Gray Bull River, killed the bear after a running fight lasting nearly an hour, in which he nearly lost his life.
Bruln's hide measures 9 feet 11 inches from tip to tip, and 3 feet 8 inches wide. The foot of the monster measures 11 1/2 inches from toe to heel.
Continued late snows in the mountains have driven the bears down to the lower levels, and ranchmen are reporting considerable losses of young stock through their depredations. The last Wyoming Legislature repealed the law protecting bears, and they may now be killed at any time of the year.

REPRIVE FOR MURDERESS

Mrs. Rogers' Case Will Go to Federal Supreme Court.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., June 22.—A re-rieve until December 8 for Mrs. Mary M. Rogers, the condemned murderess, was signed this afternoon by Governor Bell, and for the third time the woman who was to have been hanged for killing her husband has been reprieved.
Legislature repealed the law protect-
any time of the year.
Today's reprieve was granted in order that the case may be carried to

A STORY WITHOUT WORDS

The Wonderful Progress of the Great Northwest Graphically
Illustrated by Eilers Piano House.

The Musical Demands of a Country
Just Turning Its First Century Cycle, Disclosed by a Remarkable Display.

If anyone doubts that the West is fully absorbed in the music of the Union State in artistic and musical taste, he should visit the Eilers Piano House.
This store of unrivaled facilities and prestige is now making a special Fair exhibit that is fairly dazzling in extent as well as in quality. Arranged and grouped throughout the immense establishment, which is capable of displaying now even more than a quarter block of fine pi-anoes, is an array of instruments that survive in reputation, as well as in artistic finish, any display ever made by one single firm, East or West. There are the Chickering, the best artists have lavished wherever piano merit is known; the Weber, whose peculiarly sympathetic tone makes it universally the musician's favorite; the Kimball, Steck, Hamilton, Lester, Hobart M. Cable and many others, all recognized, leading makes. A recital of the triumphs of these instruments would be the history of the musical life of the old as well as the new world.

None Too Good
And here they are displayed under one roof, a whole regiment of them, destined for the prosperous homes of the music-loving, appreciating people of the wonderful Pacific Coast territory.

Out of the Ordinary In providing for this Fair display, the Eilers Piano House has selected from all these famous factories only those styles upon which the best artists have lavished their greatest praise and skillful and finished workmen have bestowed their finest workmanship.

Planola Pianos and Metrostyle Pianos

The variety and number of the instruments in this display is another striking evidence of the imperative demand there is for the piano in the world for the best, and the ability of the Eilers Piano House to supply it. These instruments bring into the store the best of the highest grade and the means by which it can be played without any knowledge of the piano. The Metrostyle Pianola may be attached to any piano, and insures absolutely perfect music. There is also the new Orchestral Piano, a piano of the highest grade and the means by which it can be played without any knowledge of the piano. The Metrostyle Pi-
insures absolutely perfect music. There is also the new Orchestral Piano, a piano
of the highest grade and the means by
which it can be played without any knowledge of the piano.

Practical Side Not Neglected The Eilers Piano House is the store of even better than rational prices. The presents in all the Eilers transactions is "value." Our business is organized and conducted with the express object of giving the customer the best value possible. As we sell on the many sales-small profit basis, our patrons are, in turn, enabled to save materially. This is as much a fact when the purchase is a moderate-priced but good piano as when it is the purchase of a fine instrument.

Our doors are open to all visitors. Every one is welcome. We want strangers in the city, well, every one. It is an important consideration requiring adjustment is the desire of each country to appoint negotiators of equal rank, and this increases the probability that M. Witte, President of the Committee of Ministers,
may be one of the Russian plenipotentiaries if the Japanese government names
Marquis Ito, president of the Japanese
Privy Council. It is possible that M.
Neidoff, the Russian Ambassador at Paris, may not go to Washington. As Dean of the Russian Legation, he is the first choice of the Foreign Office, but he is of advanced age, and his health is
not robust. Should Neidoff not be selected, it is considered certain that Baron Rosen will be appointed.

The Supreme Court of the United States on constitutional questions which were raised at a hearing before Judge Hoyt H. Wheeler, sitting as a Justice of the United States Circuit Court. Mrs. Rogers' attorney petitioned for her release on a writ of habeas corpus. The court declined to grant the petition, but suggested that the petition be raised by the petitioner were such as to be passed upon by the Supreme Court of the country.

The refusal of the Judge to grant the writ was at once followed by the filing of an appeal. Judge Wheeler thereupon announced that he would render his decision on the question of appeal late in the afternoon in order to give Governor Bell an opportunity to relieve Mrs. Rogers.

This afternoon Judge Wheeler received a telegraphic message from Governor Bell at Wise River Junction announcing that Mrs. Rogers had been relieved. The Judge at once signed the papers which gave to Mrs. Rogers the legal right to have her case heard by the Supreme Court of the United States.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., June 22.—The verdict which has been ready for the execution of Mrs. Mary M. Rogers will be taken down in the morning.

After signing the reprieve, Governor Bell in an interview said:
"There is nothing more to be said now. You know we all have to change our minds."
