MOROCCO AFFAIR SERIOUS AGAIN

French Reply to German Demands Has Deadlocked All Negotiations.

KAISER MAY IGNORE FRANCE

If She Tries to Block Direct Dealings With Sultan, Guns of Metz May Talk - Believed France Fears War.

CHICACO, June 21 - (Special.) - A Daily News special cablegram from Berlin

Considerably less hope is manifest here today of a peaceful solution of the Moroccan crisis. The Foreign Office admits that negotiations are practically at a deadlock, which may be prolonged for Your correspondent is able to state, however, that Germany has no disposition to engage in a protracted exchange of notes with France.

When the Kaiser finds that France Is immovably opposed to an international conference, Germany will not respond with a declaration of war, but will continue, as at present, to deal directly with the Sultan. If France should then attempt to block German designs, she will find herself "under the guns of Metz."

Serious-minded Germans refuse for a moment to believe that things will reach that stage, yet they emphasize the fact that the Fatherland's procedure cannot and will not be affected by the consequences such an affront to German honor will entail. Thus far, Morocco has not been considered a sufficiently vital question to arouse patriotic enthusiasm outside military quarters, which are unmistakably anxious for a clash, but the war paseion of the people will not be long lacking, the moment France interposes force to arrest Germany's progress in North Africa.

From the German point of view, the most reassuring feature of the situation is the conviction that France does not want war under any circumstances. French dilatoriness is partly ascribed to the belief that the Republic's position will be strengthened by an early peace between Russia and Japan.

DISAGREEMENT NOT REMOVED

Rouyler's Note Leaves Negotiations Where They Were.

BERLIN, June 23.-The French note on the proposed Moroccan conference was handed to the Foreign Office this morn-Owing to its great length the note had to be sent by mail to Berlin, instead of by telegraph. The Foreign Office, while declining to discuss the points of the note in detail, admits that it leaves the situation where it was before. The points of disagreement between Germany and France have not been removed. It is expected that the negotiations will continue or a long time before a positive result is Germany's answer to Premier Rouvier has not yet been considered. It will require considerable time in order to meet all the points raised. White the delay might under ordinary circumstances be advantageous it affording time for the excitement to subside, German government circles note with some concern that powerful intrigues are going on, baving for their object war between Germany and France. Germany's intentions remain head. thoroughly pacific, but government circles here apprehend the possibility that these intrigues will result in inflaming the French people against Germany and creating a delicate and complicated situation.

TAKE ANSWER AS REFUSAL

German Papers Disappointed at Rouvier's Note to Germany.

RESLIN. June 23.-The evening newspapers frankly express their disappointnt at the French note. Much had been staked upon Premier Rouvier's ostensible wish to come to an understanding with night F. H. The National Zeitung, in an evidentish press attempts to give to the sitnation, whereas Germany does not believe that the present complications are such as to justify thoughts of war. This paper forcehadows Germany's rejection of M. Rouvier's suggestion that France and Germany reach a separate agreement on certain points before submitting the Morocco question to a conference, asserting that Germany maintains her opposition to any separate arrangement.

While the newspapers plainly show disappointment, they all maintain a calm tone. The situation is not threatening, and nothing is said which is calculated to wound French sensibilition issued after the meeting of the Council of Ministers today says Premier Rouyier acquainted his colleagues with the status of the negotiations with Germany.

These follow the normal course without change since the delivery of the note of Prince von Radolin, the German Ambassador. The note was simultaneously communicated to the French Ambassadors abroad for the purpose of informing the nowers.

In spite of the reassuring tone of the communication, public unreasiness was accentuated over the strained relations between France and Germany. This produced a panicky sentiment on the Bourse, where heavy offers of rentes sent down prices to the unusual figure of 51.96. The officials point out as favorable symptoms that Emperor William is yachting at Kiel and the German commander of the forces around Metz has departed upon furlough. The officials therefore insist that the Bourse crisis yesterday and today is not political, but purely financial, being a reaction from the unnatural prices which have prevailed for some A semi-official statement appeared this evening summing up the main features of the French note. He recently came from Idaho, and he is supposed to have stolen from Departure Bay a small boat which the sloop was towing behind it, which, when last seen, had the quartet on board. It is certain that the men lost their lives in Is-hour gale which raged after the sloop left Nannimo. Had they escaped, it would have been in the small boat, but this was attached to the upturned vessel when the Indians secured it.

Cabinet Discusses Abuses Under Exclusion Law.

PRESIDENT IS DETERMINED

Will See Chinese Have Fair Treatment--Hay Will Reassure China. Metcalf Will Remove Evils of Administering Law.

WASHINGTON, June 21 .- Chinese in migration to this country and the execution of the Chinese exclusion laws constituted the principal topic of discussion at today's meeting of the Cabinet. It was the last meeting of the Cabinet to be held before President Rossevelt shall ieave Washington for the Summer.

The situation is regarded both by the President and the members of his Cabinet as serious. As Secretary Taft phrased it, there seems to be more truble over the administration of the law than over the law itself. In fact, he expressed the belief that too much time was spent in developing evidence against Chinese who presumably were entitled to enter the country

The President made it clear that he was determined the Chinese should have fair treatment under the law whenever they applied for admission to this coun try at any port. He believed this was not only in the interest of American man-ufacturers and business men, but no more than just to the Chinese

Hay Will Conciliate China. While no definite decision was reached it was the generally expressed opinion that the amicable diplomatic and trade relations which this country has always maintained with China should be con-tinued if possible. To this end Secretary Hay will take action on behalf of this country. The report that the commercial guilds of China have entered into a hard and fast agreement to boycott American-made goods has had a disturbing effect on American producers interested in the Chinese trade. It will be the effort of this Government to endeavor to correct any misopprebension that may exist in China as to the too harsh enforcement of the Chinese exclusion laws. There is no disposition to exclude from the country any of the classes of Chinese who are exempt from the operation of the

Metcalf Will Correct Evils.

Secretary Metcalf, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, who has di-rect supervision of the Immigration Bu-reau, does not believe that unnecessary harshness is used in the enforcement of the law, but is investigating the subject with a view to correcting any evils of administration that may be developed. With Hours Too Long and Pay Too Short, They Tramp to Get Away.

BAKER CITY, Or., June 21 .- (Special.) -Footsore and weary from their long tramp, the miners and other help collected by Pierre Humbert to reopen and develop the old Searles property at Cornucopia, have been straggling into Baker City since 2 o'clock last night. They have a long story of grievances. Some complain that the hours asked are too long and the pay too short; others that the board is disgusting, while many pro-test against the hard usage in the en-deavor of the management to force more work than is reasonable and just under

Many walked 25 miles, and some the whole distance of 70 miles to get away from their troubles. Whatever the true facts are, one thing is patent, this labor strike has punctured the first attempt this Spring to boom Cornucopia.
