OFFICERS ARE ARRIVING

Interesting Programme Has Been Arranged. Prominent Suffrage Workers to Be in Portland and Take Part.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association, which has announced that a general meeting of its members, delegates and friends will be held in Portland during the first week in August, has now arranged its programme of events for the meeting. The programme will be the most comprehensive one ever presented in Oregon and will include some of the most prominent women of the nation, and of the best known women workers for the cause of woman suffrage.

Among the important officers and prominent workers who will be in Portland to take part in the meeting are Miss Susan B. Anthony of New York, who is chairman of the National American Woman Suffrage Association; Miss Carrie Chapman Catt of New York City, who is national secretary of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, and Miss Lucretia Mott of Philadelphia, who is the national vice-president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

The meeting will be held in the old city hall on Monday, August 7, and will continue until Friday, August 11. The programme will include a variety of events, including a banquet, a public meeting, a discussion of the suffrage question, and a series of lectures by prominent speakers.

The meeting will be an important one for the advancement of the cause of woman suffrage, and will be a great event in the history of Portland. The women of the city are looking forward to the meeting with great interest, and the programme promises to be a most interesting one.

FENDER IS WORTHLESS

Current Says Employee Was Elementary, but If Proper Fender Was Used Boy's Life Might Have Been Saved.

The life of little Joseph G. Riggs, aged 4 years, was ended yesterday when, while he was being pushed in a baby carriage down the streets of Portland, the front wheel of the carriage struck a projecting object, and the boy was killed instantly.

The boy was a very popular child in the neighborhood, and his death has caused great regret and sorrow. The family are in great distress, and the community is moved to sympathy.
