TRIAL BY JURY IS NOT A PANAGEA

Secretary Taft Says Procedure Could Not Be Wisely Adopted in Philippines.

ABUSED IN UNITED STATES

Judge's Power so Minified That Counsel for Defense in Criminal Cases is Able to Put Jurors Under Hypnotic Spell.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June M.-Th Yale senior clauses of the college and Sheffield scientific departments of the university held their class day exercises today. In addition to these exercises the anniversary of the Yale Law School and of the medical school, meetings of the law school alumni and the usual independent commencement week of the Yale corporation, were interesting events of the very full programme. Secretary of War Taft was the principal speaker at Secretary Taft contrasted the two great systems of law, the Roman, or civil law, and the Angie-Saxon, or common law as applied to the administration of colonial possessions. Americans are apt to narrow in their prejudices in favor of the common law, and prone to think that there is very little to learn from the civil law, which can be usefully adopted by a government in which the liberty of the individual is held so sacred. the Secretary said:

"The first impulse of the American lawyer is to apply the writ of habeas corpus, trial by jury and other means preserving the rights of the in dividual as a paracea to the government and criminal procedure of our new possessions, but careful investigation leads to a much more conservative attitude in respect to the changes needed in the existing Spanish procedure."

Proves Failure in Porto Rico.

Secretary Taft declared that trial by jury had proved a failure in Porto Rico, and the experience had shown that it could not wisely be adopted in the Philippines. He declared further that in our own jurisprudence it was by no means clear that trial by jury in civil cases is an unmixed good. The abolition of jury in civil cases, with proper appeal, would not, he thought, deprive any litigant of an impartial hearing,

The institution of trial by jury has come to he regarded as a fetish to such an extent that State Legislatures have exaited the power of the jury and diminished the power of the court in the hearing of criminal cases. The function of the Judge is limited to that of the moderator in a religious assembly. The counsel for the defense, relying on the diminished power of the court, creates by dramatic art and harp-, relying on the diminished power of ouri, creates by dramatic art, and harp-on the importance of unimportant de-a false atmosphere in the courtroom,

Many Homicides; Few Executions.

And now what has been the result in this country? Since 1885 in the United States there have been 151,051 murders and homi-cides and there have been 2286 executions. In 1885 the number of murders was 1808. In of jury trial which now prevails in most of the states, especially under the restrictions of the power of the court, which we find as we go west in this country. The cure for this growing causes in the booky politic may be found in statutory amendments.

Our country is discussed by the number of pholings that occur both in the North and in the South. Nothing but a radical improvement in our administration of criminal law all present the growth in the number of lynchings in the United States.

Government Will Probably Build No More of 16-Inch Type.

to shanden the type is anticipated. Only one of these guns has been made so far, and that one is now at Sandy Hook. The experiments, while showing that the guns could do what was expected in one way, have nevertheless convinced the experts that as a weapon it is too costly. Colonel Greer, thief of ordinance of the Department of the East, said that while it had not been decided to discard the gun now at Sandy Hook, it was not likely in his opinion that the Government would over have another made.

In his opinion that the Government would ever have another made.

"The gun," he said. "was ordered about seven years ago when it was decided to increase the caliber of our largest weapons for coast defense from II to 18 inches. At that time England was having a number of such guns made and great things were predicted for them. All of the England guns were failures. Ours has been fired perhaps half a dozen times in proving it. In one way it was a success, as it has done all that was predicted for it in range and offectiveness. There is no doubt of the result if it ever hit anything.

There is no doctor or the reason of the hit anything.

"On the other hand, however, every discharge of the gun is tremendously costly in the amount of labor required and in the expense of the charge. The gun is a time the expense of the charge. inte expense it the charge, to miss the target than a smaller gun, and a miss is pretty costly. Taking it all in all, it would seem as though several guns of smaller caliber would be more effective than a 15-inch gun.

"It is not at all likely, in my opinion, that the Government will ever build another one, although, of course, the gun now at Sandy Hook will probably remain

The Government had planned to build 40 such guns, 18 to be placed at Sandy Hook, ten at San Francisco, eight at Bos-Hook, ten at San Francisco, eight at Bos-ton and four at Hampton Roads. The great point made for the gun was that one shot would sink a battleship if hit. Its range was about it miles. The pro-jectile is 64 inches long and weighs 2070 pounds. In early experiments it was found that more than half a ton of pow-der, coating 20%, was needed to fire the projectile. The latter coats $600. About three times as many men were required three times as many men were require to handle the 16-inch gun as were needed care for a 12-inch.

The night was over-cast, but it was not so dark that objects could be seen at some distance. The Ancona was considerably damaged along her water line. The port authorities have placed an embargo on the An-cona, which will remain here until the in-quiry into the collision is completed. Thus far only a single body has been recovered by the divers, who have gone recovered by the divers, who have gone down to the wreck.

First Officer Myhre, of the Georgestaf, attributes the accident to the Ancona changing her course. He said the Ancona's how crashed seven feet into the training schooner's side, bringing down the latter's masts and rigging and preventing any of the cadets from galaing the deck. Those who were not entagled in the wreckage sprang on board the Ancona and assisted in launching the lifeboats. Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging. lown to the wreck.

Skirmishing Along the Front.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 27 .- (3:35 A. M.)-Hostlittes in Manchuria, apparently, have not reached the stage of a ently, have not renched the stage of a general engagement. Dispatches from both commanders indicate that there is ateady skirmishing along the main front, where minor detachments are fighting back and forth over practically the same ground, with no decided advantage to either.

These tactics seem made chiefly to maintain the line and worry the advance guards, while sparring for position before the development of the main battle.

The usual Chinese reports have been received that a turning has been begun, but the war office discredits them and declares that no considerable Japanese force has yet appeared on General

Indian Vicercy Resents Authority Given Lord Kitchener

SIMLA, India, June 26 .- It is freely umored that the Viceroy, Lord Curson of Kedleston, has either already tendered his resignation or shortly will do so, in consequence of the home government ruling, whereby Lord Kitchener, commander-in-chief of the forces in India, has been given complete control of the army in India.

of the army in India.

Two special meetings of the Indian Council have been held since the publication in London of the bluebook referring to Lord Kitchener's plans, the approval of which is considered to be a severe blow to Lord Curzon, since he, and espe-cially the whole Council, unanimously advised against the decision ultimately adopted.

The keenest excitement prevails in official circles here. The Times of India declares that India cannot afford to lose "either of the great men, Lord Curzon or Lord Kitchener, who domi-nate her affairs."

Prince of Wales to Be Entertained.

LONDON, June 26 .- While it is con sidered quite possible that Lord Curaon may tender his resignation because of the course taken by the home government, directly at variance with his views, it is not believed that it will be accepted or that the Viceroy will in-sist on quitting his position, at least until after the Prince and Princess of Wales have completed their tour of Inextending from November to LITTLE EFFECT ON MARKET

A question asked in the House of Commons this afternoon elicited from Indian Secretary Brodrick the state-ment that the government had re-ceived no information to the effect that Curzon had any desire or intention of resigning the Viceroyalty of India.

After the last cruise of the North Atlantic fleet he came home and was to have rejoined his ship tonight, with the understanding that he would not again have shore leave before departing for the Asiatic station.

The young couple were deeply depressed at their approaching separation. Friends gathered at his home to bid farewell to the bandmaster. In the midst of the fea-tivities Elchenrodt and his wife left the party and later were found dead in their bedroom, and clasped in each other's arms. Examination showed that after turning on the gas both had swalfowed carbolle acid. Mrs. Elchenrodt was 20 years old and her husband 28.
