ROOSEVELT JOINS COLLEGE MATES

Cordially Received at Harvard as a Member of the Class of '80.

RIDES IN A POURING RAIN

At Informal Reunion Held at Oakley Country Club, 130 of 166 Members Are Present From Nearly Every State in Union.

CAMBRIDGE, Mars., June 27.-Joining with his former college mates today in celebrating the 5th anniversary of the praduation of their class from Harvard, President Roosevelt returned to his alma mater, not as the Chief Magistrate of the Nation, but as a private citizen and a loyal Harvard alumnus. Although the ancient University of Harvard would have been glad to pay him all the honor due his high office, it was the President's request that he he regarded merely as a member of the class of '80 rather than as the President of the United supporting Nevertheless, students, alumni and the citizens of Cambridge united in giving him a hearty greeting as he drove through the streets of the university city.

The President's day was a busy one. Arriving in Boston at 6:65 o'clock this morning, he was driven to the Cambridge residence of Right Rev. William Lawence, Episcopal bishop of Massachusetts, where he is being entertained. The bishop is president of the Harvard Alumni Asso

Breakfasts With the Bishop.

Breakfast was served at the bishop's house, and among those present, in additary Loch, were the President's son, Kermit, who came from Groton School; Presi dent Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University; Judge Francis C. Lowell, of the United States Circuit Court, and Rev. Samuel Cruthers, paster of the First Parsh (Unitarian) Church of Cambridge.

During the forenoon President Roose welt visited the room of the Alpha Delta Phi Society, the Harvard Stadium and the Chestnut Hill residence of George C. Lee. father of the President's first wife. The President was then driven to the Oakley Country Club, in Watertown, where the class of '80 held an informal reunion and funcheon was served.

A photograph of the members of the class was taken, and also a photograph of the members of the class who belonged class of '80, 130 registered at class head-

Returning from the Oakley Country Club, the President was driven to the rooms of the Porcelain Club, an organization of Harvard students, where he stayed

Presented With Loving Cup.

President spoke briefly. He was greeted with a rousing class cheer as he rose to speak, and his remarks were freapplicated. At his request, no portion of his informal address was made During the evening William Hooper, in behalf of the class, presented a lovingcup to President Roosevelt. The cup was engiaved as follows: "To Theodore Rooseelt, President of the United States, From His Classmates in Harvard College, 1880-

The President left the Somerset at 11:30 o'clock, and went to the residence of Sishop Lawrence, where he retired immediately for the night. Policemen and secret service men were posted about the Lawrence residence during the night.

As on his visit to Massachusetts last week, rain marred the President's programme. As his carriage was driven out of Rishop Lawrence's yard this forenoon trip to the rooms of the Alpha Delta Phi Society, the rain poured in torrents, and several heavy claps of thunder were heard. The President, however, insisted that the hood of the carriage be owered, in order that the people who had gathered to see him might not be disarpointed, and, though the rain fell heavily, the President rode through it apparently not in the least disconcerted.

Bows in Answer to Cheers.

At frequent points along the streets which the Presidential party passed during the day, people gathered and cheered. For all their greetings the President had a bow and a smile.

President Roosevelt was accompanied on his drive by a secret service officer and a squad of mounted policemen. After visiting the studium, the police escort was ed temporarily, and the President's carriage was unattended from the stalium to Chestnut Hill, and from thence to the Oakley Country Club. President Roosevelt will remain here until 2 A. M.

Secretary of War Taft arrived from New Haven this afternoon. He will attend the Harvard commencement exercises tomorrow, and it is understood that an honorary degree will be conferred upon him by the university.

A feature of this year's commence-ment is to be the Expouncement of Planop William Lawrence, as president of the Harvard Alumni Association, the result of the plans of an endowme of $2,500,000 for Harvard from the alumni. This announcement is to be made at the commencement dinner at Memorial Hall tomorrow afternoon, when the President is to deliver an address.

"One of the saddest features of lives

manity. People who maintain steam yachts and dine Frenchfully at night and filt between Lenox and Newport and Palm Beach and Homburg are naturally and automatically driven into the society of the like conditioned and bound there. Their sons attend the same expensive academies, their daughters are polished off at the same eithe schools, their sons and daughters meet together and they intermarry and interdivorce, and the caste of the great rich emerges.

"Sound judgment and clear perspective in these motives and movements of human life are seidem found among the people of the caste who drag the golden ball and chain. We need National laws for divorce, for the oversight of insurance, for the regulation of the traffic of the great National system of railways. We are a Nation and must have National laws for local interests to local sefeguards for local interests to court the inspiration of fuller, richer National life and be Americana."

Proposed Reorganization of Seaboard Railway is Blocked.

NEW YORK, June 17.-With the announcement by the Ryan-Blair syndicate that 83 per cent of the stock of the Seaboard rallway has been deposited for ex-change into certificates of the Seaboard Air Line Company, a peculiar situation has arisen. Ten millions of stock refused to come in and stands out, demanding to know what Mr. Ryan purposes doing.

The road is not bankrupt, nor in receivers' hands, therefore it cannot be reorgan-ized in the usual way. If an attempt is made to turn the entire property over to ew holding company, outstanding stockholders will go into court to claim their vested rights. It was said today that the interests in the company stand as follows: Bultimore stockholders' pool, 22,000,000; Shepard & Ladenburg, Thalman & Co., in-terests. $12,000,000; Ryan-Blair syndicate, $18,000,000; outstanding interest, $10,000,000.

Auto Runs Down a Boy.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22.-What is said to have been a deliberate attempt of a chauffeur to scare persons on the street today resulted in the death of Eldon Garber, a 5-year-old boy. During a concert last night at Broad street and Susquehanna avenue, a big automobile driven at high speed dashed down Broad street. As the machine approached the crowd it is said the driver deliberately steered the automobile toward the child, with the evident intention of scaring

The chauffeur became confused and the automobile crashed into the boy. The chauffeur then put on all speed. Bicycle policemen pursued, but were unable to overtake the automobile.
