MILWAUKIE PARK

MILWAUKIE PARK

This choice tract of $60 acres on the Oregon Water Power Hallway and river. It minutes ride from First and Alder six, is now on the market and seiling fast. The present purchasers are all homebuilders, and improvements will begin at once. Large lots, $6x160 feet on the carline, right at the station, for $80.00 per lot. Choice acre tracts, from one acre up, with rich soil, water plentiful, for $80.00 per acre. The land surrounding these acre tracts is improved and highly cultivated. The price of lots is fifty $60 per cent less than property similarly situated in any direction from the center of Portland. Also take late secount the excellent car service, the healthful location and beauty of surroundings.

As a special inducement to working people to own their own home and enable them to have a large garden, is the principal reason why the prices have been placed low on lots and acre tracts. The title is perfect, a complete abstract of title furnished to the whole tract upon inquiry of the owners, the Hibernia Savings Bank, lift Washington street, Portland, Oregon.

Free tickets to and from Milwaukie Park will be given to all intending purchasers for the purpose of inspecting the property. Those buying at once have choice of lots nearest car line and station. All Oregon City cars stop at the tract, coming and going. The lots are all high, sightly and level.
