

NEW DIRECTORS FOR EQUITABLE

Reorganization of the Society Begun by Trustees of Majority Stock.

PROMINENT MEN NAMED

Resignations of Twenty-One of Old Board Are Accepted, Including J. J. Hill and Alfred G. Vanderbilt.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Grover Cleveland, Morgan J. O'Brien and George Westinghouse, the trustees of the majority stock of the Equitable Assurance Society, took the first step in the reorganization of the society today by accepting the resignations of all directors who had tendered them, and in forwarding to the board of directors the names of nine prominent citizens, representing the interests of the stockholders, with the recommendation that they be at once elected.

Who New Directors Are.

All of the new men hold policies of various amounts in the Equitable Society, and their names were submitted in large part by the society's agents. E. B. Thomas is president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company. F. G. Houston is one of the largest, if not the largest, stockholders in the Singer Sewing Machine Company. J. E. Schmiedlapf is a capitalist of Cincinnati.

Forgan's Resignation Withdrawn.

The board also accepted the resignations of all but one of the directors who had resigned, the one exception being James H. Forgan, who withdrew his resignation, which is held in abeyance. The other 21 directors who resignations were accepted were:

NO RISKS HERE

During the short period that will probably elapse before all the existing vacancies on the board of directors will be filled, and the longer time that must elapse before the annual election of directors in December, when our voting power as trustees of a majority of the society's stock can be exercised, we regard it as our duty to secure and conserve your interests, and in return we pledge ourselves that as far as it is given to us to see our way, the conduct of our trust shall be actuated solely by a desire to secure and conserve your interests and promote the safety and success of the great life insurance organization of which you and your families are the promised beneficiaries.

BRIDE TO SON OF A LORD

Miss Amy Philipps Married With Great Pomp in London.

LONDON, June 28.—Miss Amy Philipps, eldest daughter of Henry Philipps, of Pittsburg, Pa., was married this afternoon in St. George's Church, Hanover Square, to Captain the Honorable Frederick Guest, of the First Life Guards, son of Lord Wimborne. Much interest was taken in the wedding, and the church was filled, the guests including Ambassador and Mrs. Whitlam, Lord and Lady Rose-Lyon, the Honorable Gwendolyn Ponsonby, Miss Louise Wood, of Pittsburg; Miss Margaret MacVean, of Philadelphia; Miss Irene Callin, of St. Louis; Miss Hetty Davenport, and Miss Gwendolene Burden, of New York, and Miss Jean Reid, daughter of Ambassador Reid. The bride wore rich white satin draped with old lace, with a wreath of roses beneath a tulle veil.

Government Gives Up Cases.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Upon motion of District Attorney Beach, the cases against James T. Metcalf, Harry C. Hallock and Norma E. Metcalf, indicted for conspiracy to defraud the Government in connection with the contract for money-order blanks, were nolle prossed in Criminal Court today. Mr. Beach announced that after a careful investigation of the evidence he had decided to take no further steps looking to the trial of these persons, and asked that the indictments be dismissed.

Economy is a strong point with Hood's Sarsaparilla. A bottle lasts longer and does more good than any other. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said 100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR.

It's a Shame to Do It, But They've Got to Go

Sold our Millinery Manager as he surveyed the grand display of beautiful Hats, sought to sell for twice the price you can now buy them for, but he emphasized the right point. "THEY'VE GOT TO GO, and the Half Price Sale is making them move lively, too." This sale is no respecter of styles, but includes every new design for the summer's wear. All at HALF PRICE. Pick them out. If you have seen a Hat you admire, come in now and get it for Half. No matter how low the price was, you only pay HALF now.

THE SUMMER GIRL and SUMMER WOMAN With Both Flair Comfort and Delight at Our Special Sale of

Summer Wash Fabrics

There is no other store in the Northwest that even makes the attempt to show such a comprehensive line of Wash Goods as can be found here, and as in all other lines where quantity makes price we have the advantage as our goods all come direct from the mills and importers, and much of it from the foreign makers direct, enabling us to quote prices regularly about what smaller dealers pay the wholesale house. And now, when we have secured to place special prices on the most desirable of all our Summer Goods, it creates an opportunity seldom presented to the consumer. The items mentioned below are only a few taken at random to show the great extent of the reductions. The stock itself is so large and varied that it would take our entire newspaper space to describe it. Come and see for yourself.

One Day's Time Five Cents

"I have really saved a whole Jay's time at the cost of only a nickel," said a Baker City lady the other day. She had planned to spend four days at the fair and had purchased a Guide through our plan for 4 cents. After spending three days at the fair in intelligent sightseeing by consulting the Official Guide and visiting the exhibits she was interested in, she declared she had seen it all and I was thoroughly satisfied. Any one purchasing 1c. 30 or more worth of goods at this store will receive a coupon good for 25 cents toward the payment for the Official Guide if presented at Guide headquarters in the Official building; thus obtaining the Guide for 5 cents while the regular price is 25 cents.

FOR TODAY 300 LADIES' FINE SUITS AT HALF PRICE

This big lot of suits consists of the lingering numbers from a great many different styles. Not very many of any one style or color and only a few sizes in each style, but in the aggregate every desirable style, color and size may be found. It is unnecessary to dwell on the merits of these garments; every person hereabouts is well acquainted with our high-grade suit stock.

These are suits selected by our Miss Bernard during her last trip to the East. They are correct in every detail, made like our garments are always made, with every attention to detail. They are all in strictly 'down-to-date' styles, suitable for this Summer and early Fall; our regular prices were $15.00 up to $75.00.
