Makes Addresses, Cables German Emperor and Attends to Affairs of State.

CORDIAL WELCOME GIVEN

In All Nearly a Thousand Degrees Are Bestowed by the University, Including Secretary of War Taft.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 28 -- Although nominally celebrating with his class, as the 25th anniversary of the class of '80, of Harvard University. President Roosevelt was today the honored guest of America's most anhonor were conferred upon him, as he already holds the highest degree the university is empowered to bestow, but welcome accorded him by Cambridge citizens, alumni and college officials was mest cordial. The President entered heartily into the spirit of commencement day and played a leading part in all the functions incident to the occasion. It was scarcely 5 o'clock this morning when the Lieutenant-Governor, representing the commonwealth, called at the home of Bishop William Lawrence, where the President spent the night to escort him to the Harvard Yard, where the academic procession was to form for the march to Saunders Theater, the scene of the commencement exercises. The number receiving degrees from Harvard today aggregated 995, and included seven honorary degrees.

Three Addresses Are Made.

Following the commencement exercises, the President made three public addresses, one at the Harvard Union, a second, and the principal one of his tour, at the annual alumni dinner in Memorial Hall, and a third from the steps of Memorial Hall to the members of the alumni who could not gain admittance to the Memorial Hall exercines. The speech in Memorial Hall, which was a general discussion of the mission of the college, evoked the greatest enthusiasm

Beside the more pretentious events today, the President's programme included a brief visit to the Germanic Museum, where he sent a cablegram to the German Emperor, thanking him for his gifts to Harvard; luncheon at the Porcelain Club, and at the chief marchai's headquarters in University Hall; ten at the residence of President Albert Bushnell Hart and a dinner al

the Somerset Club. During the early evening the President found time for a conference with Secretary Tatt on matters relating to the Panama Canal, and also to give altention to certain cipher messages which had been received from Wash-ington. It was arranged that the President should go to his car before midnight, although the train would not leave until I o'clock tomorrow morn-ing. The train goes to Bridgeport, where the party will board the yacht Sylph for Oyster Bay.

of Bishop Lawrence, the President was driven to Massachusetts Hall, in front of which ancient structure the commence-ment procession was formed. The President was accompanied by Lieutenant-Governor Guild, who represented Gover or Douglas, the latter being ill. Long, and the entire pro-cession then started for Sanders Theater At the theater the commencement parts were given as follows:

Latin salutatory, B. A. Moore: "A Mis-understood Party," E. E. Brown, "Public Evening Schoots," G. G. Hubbard; "The Italian in America," J. D. R. Storey; "The Spirit of the Present South," W. A. Lambeth.

Latin Orator Makes a Hit.

The Latin orater, in the course of his speech, addressed the President, a trans-lation of his words being as follows: And then size, better of our Republic, and a splendid example of homesy and fourier in government, that now, as an alimnus of 25 years' standing, revisits our alma mater, re-ceive our sincers welcome. With firm hand, like a plot holding the hem of the ship of state, as in the past so in the future, may you stremunish; continue an object of terror to will doors and, to the wild seasts that haunt the mountains.

Cambridge, Mass. June 28, 1965.—In His Majesty, the German Emperor, Berlin: I have just been visiting at Harvard University and the Germanic Huseum, the foundation of which we so largely owe to your interest. I take this occasion to thank you and through you the Germani people for the many acts of couriesy and kindliness which in recent years have steadily brought closer together the German and American peoples. This graving friendship between the two nations means much for the future welfare of mankind, and I wish to thank you personally for the efforts you have made to foster it. THEODORE ROOSEVELL.

Million From Alumni.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 28.-President Hadley, of Tale, announced at the alumni dinner this afternoon that a gift of $1,000,000 had been recently made by John D. Bockefeller. The gift is the largest single donation ever made to the largest single donation ever made to the university. President Hadley also said that $2,000,000 in all had been given to the university within a comparatively recent time, the other million being subscribed by graduates in sums varying from $50,000 to $250,000. The names of the latter donors were not made public.

President Hadley said that the "only condition of any kind underlying Mr. Rockefelter's gift is that the money is to be invested in income-producing securities and preserved inviolate as an endowment for the inscitution, the annual income only to be used for current ex-
