Mrs. Galler by Fire.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., June 29.

SMALL BOY AND SISTERS, AGED

EIGHT AND SIX.

Water Was Not Deep, but They

Were Too Small to Save

Themselves.

CLATSKANIE, Or., June 29.-Eglund

Emila Bassi, aged 6, three children of Thomas Bassi, of Quincy, Or., were frowned yesterday afternoon in Dobbin's Slough, close to that point. Their bodies were discovered by searchers between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning, in water not proper time. As the afternoon grew late and evening came, they still had not come home, and by the time darkness had fail-en, all the available assistance in the neighborhood had been enlisted for the years old, left. The parents are distracted over the sad affair, which has caused general sorrow in the Quincy neighbor-

LIGHTNING IN THE EARTH.

Foot Level of Rossland Mine.

to the 900-foot level in the same mine, seadworks, the lightning passed down the iron air line. Which branches off at the various levels. Another theory put forward is that damp air acted as a conductor of the electricity into the bowels

HELD FOR HORSESTEALING.

Bassi, aged 12; Annie Bassi, aged 8, and Young Chicago Girl Captures Los Angeles Millionaire.

HIS WIFE HER BENEFACTOR

Disinherited Daughter of Professor W. C. Wilkinson Here on Honeymoon With Man Who Secured Divorce for Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 29 .-(Special.)-A special from Los Angeles says: Stung by What he termed his Jaughter's perfidy, William Cleaver Wilkinson, professor of literature and criticism at the Universty of Chicago and known the country over as the author of a Chautauqua series of textbooks, has disowned Evelyn A. Wilkinson, because of her marriage to Nathan W. Stowell, a Los Angeles million gire. The action was due to a remance which resulted in Stowell, who is 53 years old, divorcing his compani years and marrying 21-year-old Evelyn. Stowell and his bride are at present visiting the Lewis and Clark Fair at

In a letter to the attorney for the former Mrs. Stowell, Professor Wilkinson poured out his feelings in this manner:

Portland.

"You cannot imagine the depths of darkness under which we are compelled sadness. We would infinitely have preferred laying her in the grave. If wide to pay the expense of transportation. publication in the papers will contribs to the vindication of the injured wife we are willing to suffer it all." To the former Mrs. Stowell Professor

"But, dear Mrs. Stowel, not even you can more heavily reprobate the perfidy my daughter than does her father. The cruelty, the cruelty, the infamy a few weeks I had succeeded; but, alas, I was deceived. Would that I could do something to heal the dreadful wound. I can only covenant you to God most earnestly in my prayers. I am so

Evelyn A. Wilkinson and Stowell were married in Plymouth Congregational Church in Chicago on June 12. A Chicago dispatch quotes Professor Wilknson as follows: When we were in Los Angeles with Evelyn we were called home guddenly and left her, as she had been ill. Mrs. Stowell came forward and out of the goodness of her loyal heart, invited my they have been in the state. He says daughter to be her guest in her heautiful residence. As the invitation came from Mrs. Stowell it was accepted. That was 14 months ago. For a month my daughter stayed under Mrs. Stowell's roof and partook of her most generous hopsitality. Then she came back to us Unbeknown to us, she received letters from Stowell. Then he went to El Paso and took a pretended residence there so as to obtain a divorce."

HOPGROWERS IN POOL.

Lane County Lines Up Under Krebs' Management.

large number of hopgrowers of Lane County met in Eugene this afternoon to Salam some time in July, attended by delegates elected from the several hop dis-tricts. At this convention the corporation will be formed. After its formation the crop of each grower will be transferred to on, which will do all the sellamittee which will meet in Salem every Saturday for the purpose of making sales and report on the condition of the mar-ket, etc. Hop experts will be called in to ascertain the quality of each crop and keep it in its proper grade.

Mr. Krebs is encouraged over his project, and stated that he believes that 50 percent of the 180 crop will be turned into this corporation. After he gets Oregon ington, and then to New York State, and s to have the entire crop of the States under control of the cor-

FINDS DEATH IN THE CUP.

Despondency Drives Mrs. Charles

GARPIELD, Wash, June 35.—(Special.)

-Mrs. Charles Lawrence, aged 25 years, took strychnine at 7 o'clock last night. and died one hour later. Her husband she had gone, but gave no reason for the south of Garfield. She had been in poor health for some time and had become despondent. Mr. Lawrence is a pioneer of Gurfield, and was at one time quite realthy, but lost all in the 22 panic. He is the oldest brother of J. C. Lawrence, he new Railway Commissioner from Bastern Washington; also a brother of Perry Lawrence, a prominent grainbuyer of Pullman, and formerly State Grain In-spector. Elder George F. Stivers held funeral services over the body this after-

ASSESS TAX CERTIFICATES.

Those Holding Papers Will Be Sought Out.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 29 .- (Special.) -If the instructions given the Assessor of Douglas County today by the Tax Com-mission are followed by other Assessors of the state, all delinquent tax certificates will be massessed as property of the person holding them. The Assessor is advised to obtain a list from the County Treasurer of those to whom he has sold delinquent tax certificates. The same opinion also ad-vises the Assessor to list school warrants to the person presenting them for pay-ment, unless he can abow that ownership was in some other person on March 1. Commenting on that portion of the opin-jon relating to tax certificates, Chairman Rockwell of the commission, who is the

"In this item of taxation alone the sev- gists, eral counties and the state are losing con siderable money each year. It is generally known that the purchasers of tax certificates receive 15 per cent upon their investment, take no chances of loss, and frequently acquire title to property for an insignificant amount, compared with its real worth. The source from which this tax is collected is generally conceded to be one which is estopped from entering any protest." which is estopped from entering

LINN HAS A CANDIDATE.

Geo. W. Wright Proposed for Concressman of First District.

ALBANY, Or., June 19.—(Special.)—The probabilities now are that Linn County will have a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from the First District in the person of Hon. George W. Wright, of this city. Mr. Wright, who has resided here for the last 16 years, is an able and successful lawyer, as well as an eloquent orator. He is one of the larg-est taxpayers in Lion County, and well able to make an active campaign. He is a firm believer in Republican principles, a stanch supporter of President Roosevelt, and has never been identified with fac-tional differences in the Republican party. He is well versed in the political problem of the day, and if he enters the contest, as he is now urged to do, there is no doubt but that he will stand fair chance to make a successful campaign.

SENDS LUNATIC TO OREGON

IOWA RETURNS FORMER COR-VALLIS MAN NOW INSANE.

Governor Chamberlain Scores Act in Sarcastic Vein and Threatens Retribution in Future.

BALEM, June 28 - (Special.) - Officials of the State of Iowa got a severe scoring from Governor Chamberlain today for to live the remainder of our lives of bringing an insane man to this state, turning him loose, and then asking Oregon

"If this is the proper course to pursue says Governor Chamberlain in reply, "Oregon can find a considerable number of former residents of lows in the Asylum here and can take them back to their home state and ask lows to bear the ex-done, but he makes his opinion of the action of the lows officers plain and says The cruelty, the cruelty, the infamy that if he ever knows of a Sheriff bringof it! I sought with all my power to ing an insane person here again he will avert the catastrophe and I thought for have the Sheriff arrested and prosecuted.

The man who was brought to Oregon was Russell Gifford, formerly of Corvallis, Gifford went to lows and the Sheriff of Crawford County brought him back to Corvallis and left him. The County Court of Benton County committed him to the Oregon Insane Asylum.

The Board of Control of the State of Iowa wrote to Governor Chamberlain, askthankful that you have such friends."

ing that the State of Oregon pay the ex-pense of transporting Gifford, amounting to $17. Governor Chamberlain says most emphasically that the State of Oregon will make no such payment.

He informs the Iowa officials that Oreon has always been charitable enough to have for all the insane found within her corders, regardless of the length of time could get rid of one-half of their basane patients by returning them to Eastern States from which they came a short time prior to their commitment.

After answering the letter of the lowa officials, Governor Chamberlain said in an interview that there should be a law on the statute-books making it a crime for any person to bring an insune patient to this state to throw him upon public char-

BIG BANKS CONSOLIDATE.

First National and Colfax National

The First National and the Colfax Natake preliminary steps to belp form a gigantic corporation to handle the crop of the Pacific Coast and to control prices.
Courad Kreba. of Salem, president of the Krets Hop Company, which has 624 acres of hops at Independence and Brooks, is at the head of this big movement.

A general convention will be held at Salem some time in July attended by detional Banks, the two oldest banking houses in Eastern Washington north of Walla Walla, will be consolidated July L. of both banks.

Le.1 Ankeny United States Senator directors of the Colfax National, and E. T. Coman, cashier of the First, with E. Scriber, cashier of the Colfax Nations will manage the latter institution. Coolidge will retain the presidency of the Colfax National, and the board of direc-tors will be enlarged to include all the directors of both banks, The capital stock of the Colfax National will be increased to $200,000, and the Trus Company will have a capital of $50,000 Both these banks were organized 23 years ago, and are among the solid financial institutions of Eastern Washington. Their joint deposits are nearly $1,500,000

Explosion in Launch.

ASTORIA, Or., June 29 .- (Special.) the launch Tyrone, belonging to the War-ren Packing Company, was lying at the companys wharf in Cathlamet, yesterday afternoon, Captain Hegbloom went into the engine-room and struck a match to examine the machinery. An explosion immediately followed, setting fire to the boat and badly burnnig Captain Hegbloom about the bend and hands. He is not dangerously injured. The fames were extinguished before the launch was seriously

Old Man Insane.

ASTORIA, Or., June 38 .- (Special.) John Swan, a resident of the west end of the city, was arrested by Sheriff Linville today on the charge of insanity, and he will be examined before the County Board tomorrow morning. Swan is about 60 years of age, and was released from the asylum a few months ago. During the past few days he has threatened to kill a number of persons, and has posted a nu-ber of threatening notices on residence tain Goodale, a construction quartermas ter of the United States Army, received tructions today from the departm Washington to award a contract Ferguson & Houston, of this city, for the construction of a wharf and approx a warehouse at Fort Stevens. The tract price is $845.

Warehouse for Fort Stevens.

Wool-Clipping Delayed.

ENTERPRISE, Or., June 28.-(Special.) Sheep-shearing in this county has been greatly handicapped by the heavy rains of the past week. Unless better weather prevails the wool clip of this county will not be disposed of until the latter Chamberiain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints, and is the only remedy that will care chronic diarrhoea. For onle he all drug-

Smallpox Epidemic Threatens Gray's Harbor.

COMES FROM GRAND RAPIDS

Large Company Already Exposed Came to Puget Sound and Scattered All Over Northwest, Carrying It With Them.

ABERDEEN, Wash., June 29 .- (Special.) -Unless the state health regulations in the States of Washington and Oregon are more rigorous there will be an epidemic of smallpox. Recently, a family came from the East'to Gray's Harbor, and two members, since their arrival, have been taken down with the dreaded disease.

It is stated that they were of a large company which left Grand Rapids, Mich, where it is reported there are 500 cases. The company separated at Tacoma or Scattle, part of them going to Oregon and part to Washington. As a result of one family's coming to Gray's Harbor, ten cases are reported. The disease is light in form, and possibly will be checked.

MISUSED JUDGE'S SYMPATHY T. S. Wenton Proves to Be an Old Jail Bird.

SALEM, Or., June 29 .- (Special.)-When T. S. Wenton induced Judge Frazer to give him the minimum sentence for forg-ery, he imposed upon the court by using Wenton forged the name of H. F. Albee to an $15 check and tried to pass it upon Charles Dahl. He was arrested, and finding that he had no chance of escape from conviction, he pleaded guilty. In order to secure the favor of the court, he said that he came here from England five months ago, and had been working as a painter in Washington until he came to Oregon early in June. Drunkenness was his ex-

With a bold front Wenton told his story to the court, but he was a sheepish-look ing man when he was brought to the peni-ientiary today and was met by the prison officials who turned him out of the penitentiary about 12 months ago.

Wenton served his previous, term under the name of H. J. Chambers, on a sentence of two years for larceny in Wasco He is an accomplished musician and served as organist at the chapel services on Sunday afternoons. He was known as an ex-convict when he began his previous term, so this will be his third term

J. L. Post, who was brought to the penitentiary a few days ago, served 25, years for larceny, ending his term last February. After his discharge he went to Portland and advertised that he was about to issue a book entitled "Twenty Months in an Oregon Heil." It seem that he lacked sufficient data for the book for he is now back serving a seven-year term for larceny.

STUDENTS QUIET CREDITORS

University of Washington Boys Will Pay Debts Later.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seat-tle, June 28.—(Special.)—An investigation has shown that the college students are has shown that the college students are over $500 in debt to their various creditors. For the plat week a committee, appointed by the board of control of all student affairs, has been endeavoring to get hold of the outstanding accounts and to reach a satisfactory agreement with the different creditors. With one or two exceptions these creditors have shown a most friendly disconting toward the board. most friendly disposition toward the boys. and have promined not to push their bills until the coming Fall, when the students will have a chance to meet their obliga-tions with the fees paid in for membership of the associated students and the cipts from football

PLANT RAINBOW TROUT.

Brought Large Span Over Mountains Government Sends Thirty Thousand From Crook County. for Upper Willamette Valley. COTTAGE GROVE, Or., June 29,- of the earth.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., June 29.-(8) cial.)—Thirty thousand rainbow trout arrived here today, shipped by the Government Bureau of Pisheries. Twenty thousand came to D. T. Awbrey and 10,000 to the Oregon & Southeastern Railroad Company. These trout are to be distributed in branches tributary to the Willamette River. They will be placed in small clear-water streams and will be held there until old enough to breed, and then turned

Several thousand eggs have been sent here to Mr. Awbrey which have been hatched and turned out. It will take three years before these fish become old enough

MEDIUM TRICKS OLD MA

INDUCES HIM TO DEED AWAY $80,000 IN LAND.

Spirits From Fourth Dimension Dupe Erasmus Bartlett to Part With His Wealth.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 29 .- (Spe cial.)—A spirit medium told under oath today how she had prevailed upon aged Captain Erasmus Bartistt, of Washing-Captain Erasmus Bartisti, of Washington, to part with his wealth. Bartisti was a millionaire and his relatives are now trying to get back some of the property he disposed of. Depositions were taken here for the trial at Bellingham. Medium Hattle Arens admitted that she had delivered messages to Bartisti advising him to deed his space in an $20.000 vieces of land in Bellingham Bay to $50,000 piece of land in Bellingham Bay to Hugh Eldridge of that town and his wife,

"I received the message from the spirit world," declared Mrs. Arens. "When I went into trances the spirits of Edwin Eldridge, Augustus Bartlett and Judge Rice came to me from the fourth dimen sion and told me to deliver the mea-sages to Mr. Bartlett." Later the woman admitted that she acted as though unconscious in the presence of the old man to make it appear real, although conscious all the time.

The Bartlett Estate Company, composed of the heirs of Erusmus Bartlett, alleges that in 1891, through a conspiracy existing between Hugh Eldridge and Hattle Arens and Elizabeth Tully, two spiritualists, Bartlett, then 82 years old, was induced to deed his half-interest in 500 acres of Bellingham Bay land to Eddlight acres of Bellingham Bay land to Ei-dridge.

Medium Arena, a part of whose depo-sition was taken in the offices of Thomas Gerstling and Frick before Notary Pub-lic Clements Bennett became indignant when her intimate knowledge of the do-ings of the spirit land seemed in question. She said that she did advise the old man to sign the deed in question. She received the order from the ghosts of his departed friends, who worked out business problems in the realm of shades. Her deposition will be completed tomor-row. Then the other go-between for ghosts, Elizabeth Tully, will also be heard.

Opposition to National Good SLEPT TWO YEARS ON MCNEY Roads Association. No Trace of Thieves Who Frightened

BROAD HINTS AT GRAFT

There is still much mystery surrounding the fire at the home of and robbery of Mrs. Saille Gailer, wife of Joseph Galler, early yesterday morning. No arrests have yet been made. Five people have been under suspicion and their places of residence searched, but no clew to the missing money was found. Some people doubt that the their took class. She Oregon, Washington and California doubt that the theft took place. She says fear of the bank is the reason she has been sleeping with it under her head for the last two years. Consider Forming Separate Organization, Believing Pres-head for the last two years.

A fire that was burning the curtain over the doorway of her bedroom awoke Mrs. Galler, who jumped out of bed, broke a pane of glass out of the front room window and put her two children out on the porch. She called for help, which came, and the fire was extinguished. She says the money, a total of £550, was in a tin box under her pillow, and that in the excitement she forgot all about it until morning. CHILDREN LOST IN SLOUGH st. Louis meeting in November.

Correspondence looking toward the organization of a Pacific Coast associaion has already passed between Samuel Hill, of Seattle, and Judge Scott, of Salem, head of the Oregon association, In this correspondence it is brought out pretty plainly that the Eastern officers are accused of using their positions for selfish interests. It is declared imple-ment men predominated in the Bastern delegations to the Portland meeting and that the association has lost its standing

Washington good roads delegates de ciare this state will not send any more delegations to a National meeting se long as the control remains in the hands of the men who are now at the head. Whether harmony could be restored if a shake

The three children had come down from the hills to Dobbin's Slough, and had crawled out on some poles to reach a boat. The poles apparently turned over, throw-ing all three into the water, and they were too young to do anything for themworking for good roads is capable of accomplishing a great deal in the three Coast States. He is committed to that

Mr. Bassi, the father, conducts a general merchandise store at Quincy, and is also a long-distance telephone operator at that point, which is about three miles from Clatskanie. He has only one child, 2 Says Oregon at Least Is Not Ready to Secede.

SALEM, Or., June 28.-(Special.)-When asked tonight regarding the report that he and Samuel Hill, of Seattle, are heading a movement for the withdrawal of Oregon and Washington organiza-tions from the National Good Roads Bolt Penetrates to Nine-Hundred-Association, President Scott, of the Ore gon association, entered a decial. He admitted that he had just received a letter from Mr. Hill upon matters relating ROSSLAND, B. C., June 29.—Lightning descending to the 500-foot level of the Josie mine, at Rossland, severely shocked to the work of the association, but de-clined to say what the contents of the letter were, further than that he does not understand that Mr. Hill advocates a miner who was working 2000 feet from the shaft. The man almost lost con-sciousness, so strong was the current of electricity which passed through him. He was so far beneath the ground that Sneaking for himself, President Scott he could not hear the rumbling of the thunder, which accompanied the storm, but the lightning made its signag way to him. The electricity went 400 feet deeper, success of the association, he think depends upon the members of the ganization taking care to elect men where a carman was knocked insensible. Three other miners, each in different parts of the Josie, felt shocks. absolute honesty and integrity to the principal offices. It is supposed that after striking the of Good Roads.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 29 .- (Special.) -A here. The invitation was accepted, and ctal.)—A man giving his name as J. M. Tethrow was arrested here today on a charge of stealing a span of large bay horses in Crook County. The horses an-swered the description telegraphed to of arrangements have been appointed Wellington E. Loucks of the Nationa good roads experts, was present at the league meeting last night, and addressed the members. The County Court, the City Council, the college, the Citizens' League traded to Wes. Chrisman for a horse and

The man was lodged in jail, and Fisk arrived promptly and took charge of him. Tethrow said he was on his way to Jackand the Ladles' Civic Improvement Society join in issuing the invitations.

son County to wish his sister. People here claim he worked here about two years agd for the Pacific Timber Company, and that Tethrow is not his right name. Asks Distribution of Property.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 25.—(Special.)

—Mrs. Mary Watts today petitioned Judge Ryan for a legal distribution of the estate of John F. Watts, which consists of 80 acres of good land in Clackamas County. in addition to other property in the East. In 1888 Watts left for Alaska, and since that time his family has not received a word from him. All sorts of inquiries on the part of the wife have proved fruitless. to far as locating Watts is concerned.

Hotel Man Deathly Ill.

ABERDEEN, Wash., June 29.-(Special.) Robert Lowery, a plomeer hotel man, and well known all over the Pacific Coast, underwent an operation Thursday for supposed disease of the kidneys. Instead of finding what the diagnosis had determined, a well-developed cancer was found. Mr. Lowery's death is only a question of a few days or weeks. For many years he conducted the Pacific Hotel, which burned in the confingration of October, 1904.

Olled Streets in Walla Walla.

WALLA WALLA. Wash., June 28 .- The City Council has commenced the experi-ment of using oil on the residence streets in Walla Walls to solve the problem of keeping down dust during the Summer months. Borer avenue. I given several applications of the oil tals morning and if it proves satisfactors. if it proves satisfactory other streets will be treated in the same manner.

Poor Pioneer Kills Himself.

BELLINGHAM. Wash. June B.-J. F. Tarte, El years old died at Blaine last night from effects of morphine taken with suicidal intent. He was a ploneer of Northwest Washinston, and had grown despondent at inability to support him-

June 28, 29 and 30, the O. R. & N. places on sale very low rates to the National Educational Association, Asbury Park, N. J.; the United Society Christian Endeavor, and on July 5 very low rates sold account the Grand Lodge B. P. O. E. Buffalo, N. Y. Particulars by calling upon C. W. Stinger, city ticket agent, Third and Washington streets, Portland, Or.

ent One a Detriment.

SEATTLE, June 28 .- (Special.) -- Oregon, Washington and California will probably break away from the National Good Roads Association. This movement is the result of the big factional fight at the last Portland convention, when a new onstitution was finally adopted and the election of officers postponed until the before Congress, postponing the day when National aid will be given the when National and will be given the good roads movement.

Three of the railroads reaching the Coast have already agreed to withdraw their support from the National good roads organization, and a fight to secure the withdrawal of Eastern lines' aid will be made in Chicago. Samuel Hill, who stands high with the railroad financiers, is airroady opposed to the organization. very deep. The little girls were drowned with arms locked about each other. Yesterday afternoon the three children went blackberrying in the hills adjacent to Quincy, and they falled to return at the is atrongly opposed to the organization headed by President Moore, and will use his influence against the association when be reaches Chicago. He started East he reaches last night.

up revolutionized the society is questionable.

Mr. Hill believes a Coast organization

SCOTT DENIES REPORT.

says that he is opposed to withdrawal from the National Association and thinks that every state should be repre-sented in the National association. The good roads convention and good roads raily for a Fourth of July celebration is scheduled for next Tuesday at Corvallia. At a meeting last night the Citizens' League invited the National Good Roads Association experts to hold a convention July 4 set as the date. Invitations to all the farmers of the county have been sent out, and committees to take up the work

Corvallis Will Devote Day to Cause

WANT FAIR IN SEATTLE.

Alaskans Propose 1907 Exposition

on Anniversary Occasion. SEATTLE, Wash., June 28.-The Lewis. and Clark Feir in Portland has set the should not have an exposition. So far has the matter gone that a number of prominent husiness men in Seattle and mineconners in Alasku propose to hold a meeting soon to discuss the advisability of holding an Alaska Fair in this city in 1987. That year will mark an epoch of ten years since the first great rush to the glendule. A very large audience attended gold fields, and will also be the 40th anniversary of the purchase by the United trated lecture on good roads.

HOFFMAN IS IDENTIFIED.

Woodburn Bankrobber Brought to Scene of Crime.

WOODBURN. Ore., June 22.—(Special.)

—W. J. Culver, Sheriff of Marion County, brought from The Dalles tonight Jack Hoffman, who on arrival here was identified by O. A. Nendel and Walter Durant as one of the men who robbed the Bank of Woodburn. Other citizens who may the robbers on the day of the crime cannot positively identify him. Hoffman was arrested in Wasco County by the Sheriff. The preliminary trial will oc-cur tomorrow before Justice H. Overton, of this city.

FLAGSTAFF AS LANDMARK.

Native Daughters Raise One on Sitof Old Fort Clatsop.

ASTORIA. Or., June 28-Under the auspices of the Ladies of Nancy Weish Cabin, Native Daughters of Oregon, a fagurant was raised on the site of Old Fort Clatsop this afternoon. The cerenony was attended with appropriate ex-

ENTERPRISE, Or., June 28.—(Special.)

Recent heavy rains in this section have caused much of the beavy grain and first crop of hay to fall. The grain which has fallen will necessarily have to be cut for hay, as it cannot be harvested with a binder or header.

SPECIAL TODAY and SATURDAY

Cream White Brilliantine Suits $7.65 Pongee Silk Coats Silk Shirtwaist Suits, a few only $8.85 Silk Shirtwaist Suits · · · Covert Jackets, broken sizes

$6.85 $11.50 $5.00

Arrived yesterday the swellest Box Coat you ever saw. It is the new English Bedford Cord Tan Covert plaited and plain back Box Coat, all lengths. These are ahead of anything yet shown in this Also new, elegant silk, full plaited skirts-Brilliantine, Panama and Serge. Remember we have the genuine man tailors to fit you-no guess work-Easy installment payments if you like.

The J. M. Acheson Co. FIFTH AND ALDER STS.

ING IN ROSEBURG. National Body's Train Stops for a

Day and Shows Highways

ASSOCIATION FORMED AT MEET-

ROSEBURG, Or., June 29.-(Special.)-Great impetus to good-roads enthusiasm convention held here under the direction of the National Good Roads Association. The visitors were escorted to the operahouse by the Roseburg Band, and marked interest was shown by the attendance of citizens from all parts of the county. F. J. Blakeley, vice-president of the Oregon Development Lengue, presided, and the visitors were welcomed by himself. Mayor isitors were welcomed by himself, Mayor loover and John T. Long, on behalf of

Douglas County. Addresses were made by Colonel W. H. Moore, president of the National Association; J. E. Rose, of Texas; Charles G. Canfield, of Ohlo; Senator Mann. of Florida; Hon. William Bradburn, consulting engineer of the National Association; P M. Rixey, of Missouri, and H. E. Louns oury, of the Southern Pacific Ballway Company.

Local road and street conditions were examined and practical instructions were given for their improvement, regarding the proper material to use, drainage,

A Douglas County Good Roads Associa-tion was formed, with Judge M. D. Thompson president, Morros Weber and J. C. Alken vice-presidents-at-large, B. W. Strong secretary, L. Wimberley treasurer, Vice-presidents for other towns are: J. C. Young, Oakland; C. Rose King, Youcalla; J. A. Black, Drain; Willis Kramer, Myrtis Creek; H. J. Wilson, Canyonville; E. D. Riddle, Riddle's; Hon. H. G. Sonnemann, Glandisks. A very large sufferior attention.

SOUTH BEND WANTS PACKET

Doubling of Freight Rates on Railroad Causes Agitation.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., June D. cial.)—As a result of the action of the Northern Pacific in doubling the freight rates to this point, the business men here are agitating the building of a steam are agitating the suiting of a steam schooner to run between South Bend and San Francisco. A subscription paper has been passed around, and in a short time over one-half the necessary sum to build a steamer of suitable freight capacity was promised. Should the business men here stand together and ship all their goods by water, there would be good money in the proposed line, for return cargoes of lum ber, cysters, etc., would test the ship's

TUNNEL ANOTHER'S GROUND

Right of Way Given in Mining Case

BOISE, Idaho, June 28.—(Special.)—To-day Judge Beatty in the United States Court granted a decree of condemnation in the suit brought by Larson & Greenough against Hedrick & Ballile for right of way for the long tunnel on the Morning Mine through the ground of the defendants. The Judge stated he would appoint the appraisers within five days unless the parties agreed on them before that time.

pose he had fied the case of Hedrick a Baillie against Larson & Greenough. That case will be heard tomorrow, the purpose being to give the plaintiff use of the tunnel. This question of condemnation of right of way for a mining tunnel through the ground of another has not heretofore been before the courts in this state, and the exact meaning of the provision of law on the subject has not been determined.

REMEMBER THE BRAVE.

for Countrymen. SEATTLE, June 29 .- (Special.) -- Saburo Hisamidzu, Japanese Consul în Seattle, will forward on the next boat sailing to tion of that country the sum of 1900s, representing voluntary subscriptions tendered by the Japanese residents of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Alaska for use of the association, the object of ich is to relieve the families of those who have died in battle or military service of any kind, and to care for those who

TIMBER FRAUDS IN IDAHO. Judge Beatty Will Remain to Try

Case in July Term. BOISE, Idaho, June 25.—(Special.)—At his own request, Judge Beatty has been released from assignment made for him to hold court in California, and he will preside at the special term to be held here beginning July 5, to hear timber cases. He has summoned a special grand cases. He has summoned a special grand jury for the term. It is learned that the cases to be investigated by the grand jury have arisen in the vicinity of Lew-iston, hence the mistaken report that the term is to be held at that place.

Oil Inspection Produces Revenue.

amount of illuminating oil shipped into the State of Washington is estimated by State Oil Inspector C. N. Beal at 150,000 to 450,000 gailons during the Summer months and nearly double that during the Winter months. There will therefore be naid into the hands of the oil inspector paid into the hands of the oil inspector and his deputies approximately 2000 in each Summer month, and 1960 in each Winter month, making a total revenue from this source for the year of $15,000.

The new oil Inspection law requires the the deputies turn one-half of the fees collected by them over to the chief in spector. He retains sufficient to pay his all of their half as their payment for services. The state will not at least $5000 from the inspection each year.

salary of 11800 per year, with traveling expenses added, and transmits the balance to the state. The deputies retain

Barely Escape With Lives. WALLA WALLA, Wash. June B.—
Fire at 2 o'clock this morning, believed to be incendiary, destroyed a small dwelling-house at the Harras slaughter yards. Monroe Palmer and wife, who occupied it, narrowly escaped being burned. They got out with difficulty, both being almost overcome by smoke. They lost all wearing appears and household furniture. It is believed the walls of the house were saturated with coal oil and set on fire by a man who had trouble with Harras several days ago. WALLA WALLA, Wash, June B .-

Harras neveral days ago.

SOUTH BEND, Wash, June 29.—(Special.)—The oyster men have been busy of late preparing beds and spreading tons of shells for the spawn to catch on. R. W. Mills, of the state oyster patrol, has appoint the appraisers within five days unless the parties agreed on them before that time.

Semator Hayburn, representing Hedrick & Baille, entered a demurrer to the application, which was overrued. He stated plication, which was overrued to a seed and all this sum will be expended in this only wish to have the tunnel condemned to public use and for that purposers.