AT THE THEATERS

What the Press Agents Say.

KOLB AND DILL TONIGHT.

"I. O. U." All This Week-"The Beauty Shop" All Next Week.

"Laugh and the world loughs with you," is an old adage of which time alone teaches the real meaning. The entire world has not laughed, but, judging from the number of people who are trying to see Kolb and Dill at the Marquam Grand Theater, this week the greater part of Theater, this week, the greater part of the theater-goers of Portland and vicinity have endeavored to live up to the old say-ing. These funny German comedians have surrounded themselves with an excellent cast of principals and a chorus of 40 beauthat will cause you to forget your trou-bles. A special mattine will be given to-morrow. "The Beauty Shop" will be the bill next week, for which the advance sale will open this morning.

"NERVES" DRAWS THE CROWDS

Since the Opening of the Belasco the Audiences Have Been Immense. "The theater that becomes a necessity;" a bright patron of the Belasco has so designated the Belasco, and the facts in the case bear out his statement. There exists an absolute necessity in every large city for first-class theatrical entertaincity for first-class theatrical emerit at reasonable prices, and that is exactly the field which we Belasco file. It maintains the best stock company in the United States, and its productions are unequaled outside of New York City. Eu-gene Ormonde, the brilliant leading man, made an international reputation as lead-ing man for Blanche Bates in 'The Darling of the Gods," and stands among the first in his profession. Miss Lucia Moore, the leading woman, is said by competent oritics to be the foremost stock actress in America, and other members of the company are worthy such association. "Nerves" is one of their best bills.

"Finnigan's Alley."

The Empire Stock Company have created a vast amount of fun this week with that funny Irish comedy, "Finnigan's that funny fries to collect, Findam's Alley." It makes the children acream with laughter as well as older people, and the daily marinees, now that school is out, contributes largely to the young folks' pleasure in vacation time.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

At the Grand.

If you don't know where your watch or ring has disappeared to, write the question and bring it to the Grand with you this week. Tatum, the mindreader, who is the head of the bill, will locate the lost article for you in a minute. What Tatum does in the mindreading exhibition at the Grand is nothing short of marvelous. All of the new feats performed by Anna Eva Fay are surpassed by him and he does many things Miss Fay could not do. The work of Tatum at the Grand is creating a sensation in Portland this week, and deservedly so, for what he does causes every patron of the theater to wonder. If there were not another act on the bill, Tatum would be worth the price of admission, but the management has a list of good feature acts in addition to Tatum. The La Vatis have never had an equal in Portland for midale work. They are graceful and artistic. never had an equal in Portland for midale work. They are graceful and artistic, and their daring is surprising. Ed Chrissis has a funny monologue, and the Hazelit children are good entertainers. The Gottlobs have a pleasant playlet, and the illustrated song is tuneful. The Grandiscope pictures and the rest of the performance is also first-class in every respect and in keeping with Portland's formost vaudeville theater.

"You will have to take care of your son and see to it that he behaves himself, or he will be put where he will have to behave," said Judge Hogue to the father. If am not to blame for what he has done, if he has done anything wrong, "No one else is to blame," said the Judge. "I certainly am not, and no one but parents can well be heid accountable."

Sentence was suspended.

Bill at the Star.

This week's bill at the Star is one of the best this family theater has ever presented to its patrons, and is so evenly balanced that it is hard to say which particular act should be singled out as the head-liner. McCres and Poole, sharp-shooters, give us a specimen of markamenship that has never been equalled in this part of the country, either on or off the stage, every shot cailing forth the most enthusiastic applause. Vardon, Perry and Wilbur, a trio of young men in a musical act, are worth the price. All three have splendid voices and accompany themselves with music of the man-This week's bill at the Star is one of some tumbling of the most difficult na-ture. Foxy Grandpa, on the Staroscope, has made a hit with the mailnee patrons. "Dear, Old Girl" is Mr. Bonner's song for the week

The Baker's Comedy Bill.

Comedy week at the Baker Theater has proven unusually popular and thousands of people have availed themselves of a really excellent opportunity for a good laugh. The star comedians at the Baker understand the secret of fun-making and some way or other there is a roar of laughter every time Jos Flynn moves or speaks. Flynn came to Portland with a big reputation as a comedian and he is going away with a still bigger one. Harry Newman, the occentric English actor, is another elever man in fun-producing, and Lorraine and Howell, in their combination comedy-acrobatic stunt, could hardly be Comedy week at the Baker Theater has correins and rower, in their comments of correct accounts the surpassed. Jean Wilson is at his best this week in a new illustrated ballad. The moving pictures are good and, throughout, the engagement is a noteworthy one.
