OUT FOR PRESIDENT

Many Councilmen Seek the Position.

WILL ELECT WEDNESDAY

As There Is but One Democrat in the Body, the Struggle Lies Among the Other Fourteen Members.

The new City Council will meet for the first time next Wednesday afternoon, and one of its initial steps in the direction of permanent organization will be the selection of a president.

"Jack" Anand, Councilman-at-large and manager of the Pacific-Postal Telegraph Company, is a candidate for the office, but if rumor is any criterion, he will have 12 competitors for the place among the other 15 members.

Councilman Vaughn, the only Democrat among the lot is not reckoned in the running, so far as the presidency is concerned, and, as far as political complexion goes, will resemble a huckleberry in an apple orchard.

The four most important committees at the disposal of the Mayor are the ways and means, liquor license, judiciary and elections, and of these it is almost certain that Vaughn will get an important share.

On June 17 the third anniversary of the reclamation act, occurred the formal opening of the first Government project constructed under this law, the Truckee-Carson project, by which 250,000 acres of desert will be brought under ditch.

INNOVENCE AND WEAKNESS in a cottage, temptation and baseness and wealth; the heart of gold under the rags of poverty, and, strange to tell, a spark of honor even in the soul of a villain, these are the chapters to be found in the story being told at the Empire this week.

"Lost in London." The same old story of a weak and curious girl listening to the golden words and glittering promises of the stranger, visiting by the humble friar, the same old tale of a woman's yielding, her remorse, her remorse and her pathetic death. The same tragedy of humble love betrayed yet enduring, wronged yet forgiving.

FRANK FANNING as Gilbert Featherstone, shows that "his men are not more than half bad." His work lends the story much of its interest.
