The Italian cruiser in the harbor is not bombarding Portland. This is merely the glorious Fourth—such a Fourth as Portland has never before seen and those sounds of bombardment are nothing more than the explosions supplied by the ubiquitous small boy and the patriotic citizen. It does not make any difference how much noise they make.

At the Lewis and Clark Exposition, however, there is to be an explosion that has been termed a "bang" Fourth. While an elaborate programme has been prepared and every provision made for the entertainment of the Exposition visitors, it was decided yesterday to put firecrackers and explosives under the ban. People will get all the noise they want before they come to the Fair, so Exposition officials decided. It was accordingly ordered by President Goode that explosives and fireworks shall be excluded from the grounds, aside from those introduced by the Exposition at night. The Centennial Guard was given orders to enforce the order.

Free From Deafening Noises.

The result is that the Exposition will be free from deafening, nerve-racking sounds. The Fair will be a comparatively quiet retreat, although the spirit of the occasion will be manifest everywhere. Beginning at 11 o'clock this morning there will be something of special interest during every moment of the day and evening. The Government buildings, exhibit palaces and Trail will be open and at their best; there will be open air band concerts afternoon and evening and free amusement features have been provided for frequent intervals. Band concerts by the famous Libera Band and the biggest display of fireworks ever seen in Portland will close the day's festivities.

The independence day exercises will be held in the bandstand at the foot of the Grand Stairway. The long expanse of terraces covered with benches will make possible the seating of a tremendous crowd here. President Goode will call the assemblage to order promptly at 11 o'clock. Rev. A. A. Morrison will then deliver the invocation.

ADMISSIONS, 15,005.

The department of admissions reports yesterday's attendance at the Exposition as 15,005.

and will be followed by Barry Bulkeley, who will read the Declaration of Independence. As he finishes the Libera Band will begin playing "Columbia," and will be accompanied by the chimes in the Government building. Rev. Stephen Wise, D. D. will deliver the oration of the day, after which Mrs. Rome Bloch Bauer will sing "The Star-Spangled Banner." Rev. T. L. Elliot, D. D. will pronounce benediction and the exercises will close with the playing of "America" by Libera's Band and a salute of 45 guns by the First Battery of Field Artillery, Co. K. G.

Daredevil Ride Down Chute.

Immediately after these exercises Kilpatrick will give his daredevil ride down a chute and will perform the same feat on an automobile later in the afternoon. Again in the evening he will make the two rides. The bike ride over with the Libera Band will be under way and will continue until 4 o'clock. The concert, with a new programme, will be repeated from 8 to 10 o'clock P. M. The display of fireworks will commence at 9 o'clock and continue for nearly two hours. Many rarely beautiful designs in skyrockets have been secured and distinct among the illuminations will be portraits of Lewis and Clark, President Washington and President Jefferson in fire.

Arrangements have been made to handle a tremendous crowd. There seems every probability that the past attendance record will be shattered. The weather will be ideal, so the weather prophet promised, and this will influence thousands to seek the delightfully shady nooks of the Fair grounds. Bunting and flags have been draped at various points about the grounds and many more decorations will be added before the gates open this morning. The Administration building is finely decorated with designs formed of flags and bunting. The hundreds of flags on flagpoles were hung at half-mast yesterday in honor of the late Secretary Hay.

CROWDS FROM CALIFORNIA

Railroads Taxed to Accommodate Rush—California Special Week.

Railroad officials say the crowds from California to the Lewis and Clark Exposition within the next few weeks, will tax their resources for handling them to the utmost. "We are at our wit's end," said a Southern Pacific official today, "trying to find coaches to accommodate the crowds from California to the Exposition. I understand that our road has refused to book any more delegations until this pressure is relieved."

Members of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce and 200 delegates from that city will arrive in Portland July 9 and will be received at the California State building the following day. From July 24 to 25, the week will be known as "California Special Week." During that period, the members of the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles will be well represented on August 10 and 11.

But the day of greatest import to California will be September 9. On that day the hotel state building at the Exposition will be dedicated with unusually impressive ceremonies. Plans for entertaining the delegates from California are as yet undecided, but one of the most pleasant features, will be excursions to points of interest on the Columbia River and into the interior of Oregon.

ASK LOWER NIGHT RATE

CONCESSIONAIRES WANT REDUCTION TO 25 CENTS.

Also Request President Goode to Allow the Trail to Open on Sundays.

Twenty-seven concessionaires from the Trail called on Exposition President Goode yesterday and made formal request for the reduction of the night admission rate to the Exposition. They also asked that they be allowed to keep their various attractions open Sunday. The reduction in rates asked was to 25 cents straight. It was set out that the present arrangement of issuing a 25-cent trade coupon, with the 50-cent admission ticket after 5 P. M. was not proving satisfactory. It was insisted that the Trail attractions were not drawing the crowds they had expected. In presenting their requests the argument was used that the residents of Portland were not attending the Exposition freely at night owing to the high admission rate. Visitors from outside points attend the Fair mostly in the day time, and occupy themselves in the exhibit buildings, and thus the concessionaires claim they are between two unfortunate circumstances. They see in a straight 25-cent rate a heavy local patronage, made up of those in search of a few hours' diversion who would be willing to pay 25 cents for a place to go, but would hesitate about parting with a half dollar. As to Sunday opening it was pointed out that amusement features are flourishing throughout the city and outskirts on Sunday, and they therefore believe they should be given a chance to compete for amusement-loving crowds who venture away from church on Sunday.

EXPOSITION DECIDES AGAINST PROMISCUOUS FIREWORKS

Patrons of the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition will please take notice that no fireworks or other explosives of any kind will be permitted on the Exposition grounds on the Fourth of July. It has been decided to place a ban on all kinds of explosives, and the Centennial Guard will be instructed to enforce this order.

It will be the purpose of the management to keep the Exposition grounds orderly and free from noise and disturbance throughout the Fourth of July, so that all visitors may have the privilege of spending a quiet day and of escaping the usual din of explosives. The co-operation of the public toward this end is respectfully solicited. All exhibit buildings, including the United States Government buildings and also the Trail will be open as usual. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted free.

At the usual hour in the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks on the lake front, which will be free to all and which all are invited to witness.

H. W. GOODE, President.

ation, acted as spokesman for his party in presenting their requests. He advised President Goode that the present coupon system was apparently not so successful as it might be, and that the immediate reduction to a straight rate would therefore seem to be a necessity.

President Goode took the matter under advisement and will bring it before the executive committee this week for consideration and final action. It is believed in Exposition circles that the reduction in rates will be allowed, but that the request for Sunday opening is doomed to receive a negative reply.

Children Admitted Free.

All school children under 15 years of age wearing a Sacajawea button will be admitted free to the Fair on the day of the unveiling of the statue, Thursday, July 6. All ladies having carriages are invited to be in the parade.

Nebraska Exhibit.

JUDGE DE HAVEN SETS NEXT CASES

J. N. Williamson, Van Gesner, and Marion Beggs Face Jury Friday.

TO ARGUE OTHER CASES

Wednesday Morning All Demurrers
Against Land-Fraud Indictments
Will Come Up for Debate in Federal Court.

John Newton Williamson, Dr. Van Gesner and Marion R. Beggs will be brought face to face with the United States Court on Friday morning at 10 o'clock to answer to the indictment charging them with subordination of perjury, in having induced 100 persons to swear falsely in regard to entries made upon timber and stone land in the vicinity of Prineville.

Judge De Haven set Friday morning as the time for beginning the trial when the case was called yesterday morning. He also stated that he would fix Wednesday morning as the time for taking up all land fraud cases in which demurrers had been filed against the indictments. He would then set apart a time for hearing the arguments in those cases where such hearing was necessary.

All the jurors of the original panel, with the exception of those serving on the Mitchell case, were discharged from further service and ordered to be paid by the clerk. After the Mitchell case had been given to the jury in the afternoon the court ordered that another venire of 50 names be drawn in open court, which was done by Captain Sladen, the clerk.
