If that is so, it is being asked, is it not, then, true that the office of Senator is vacant by virtue of the conviction of Monday night, and can not Governor Chamberlain appoint a suc cessor to fill the two remaining years of the convicted Senator's term? May Draw His Salary.

Senator Mitchell will yet continue to draw his salary as a United States Senator, and it may be that he will continu in office until his term has expired. Until judgment has been pronounced upon him and has been executed, there is remaining a barries in the way of those who have their eyes upon the Democratic Senatorship of Oregon. Senator Mitchell today ids practically the same position in relation to the Senate as he has at any time since his indictment and during his trial. He will, in all probability, continue to maintain his present status until after the Supreme Court has passed upon the case. Until judgment is passed, he is a Senator of the United States, though barred by custom from attendance upon the sessions of that body.

On Monday morning the convicted man will once more face the bar of justice, when his attorneys will ask for a new trial on grounds of error which will at that time be presented by them. Since the error alleged has been once covered by the ruling of Judge De Haven during the progress of the trial, it is safe to presume that the motion may be denied. This being done, the court will probably attorney yesterday, is this: "Section 1007 of the Revised Statutes of the United States relates to write of er-ror generally, but does not specify when they shall be a supersedeas or stay of proceedings; but the Supreme Court of the United States promulgated rule 36 of that court by which a supersedeas may be obtained by merely serving the writ with-in the time prescribed without giving any security, provided the Justice who signs the citation directs that the writ shall do when no security is required or taken. In re. Clasen 140 United States 200, 120 These remarks, which he may Should be the best obtainable. The Singer sewing-machine is acknowledged the light-of running, most durable and one light-

These remarks in plain English mean that the Supreme Court may, upon the filing of the writ of error by Senator Mitchell, suspend sentence or stay the execution of sentence if it has been moed until such time as the appeal has been heard, and may require no bond to be filed.

May Suspend Judgment.

It is presumably certain therefore not only that the case will be taken to the Supreme Court, but that judgment may be suspended until the appeal has been decided. These suppositions being true, the Senator will remain in office until after the case has been passed upon by

As long as the case is pending and there is a chance for error to be found and a new trial ordered the Senator has cha of being held once more innocent in the eyes of the law. But the Senate is a body jealous of its honor and its dignity. It may therefore, in view of the conviction and the evidence, ask Senator Mitchell for his resignation order to show its disapprobation of the actions proved by the verdict of guilty. The Senate, however, is Republican and would naturally look askance at any move that would add another Democratic vote to the roll. So it is doubted whether not for the sake of putting itself upon record it would ask for the resignation and open the way to an appointment by Governor Chamberlain. Neither is it thought by conservative people here that President Roosevelt would attempt to insence the Senate to take such action unjess it desired to do so voluntarily. Even should the Senate make the request, Sen. ator Mitchell is not forced to comply.

Case of Senator Burton.

In the case of Senator Burton, convicted under the same section of the law for practically the same offense as Senator Mitchell, the questions at issue were argued before and decided by the Supreme Court within a year after the date of the urial in the lower court. It is possible, and since the Government is here in carnest to finish, it is probable that the Mitchell case will be before the Supreme Court in an equally short space of time. nd if that be so and the decision of the lower court is sustained, there will yet be a year to run after judgment has been executed upon the Senator. This would still give Governor Chamberlain an opto appoint.

This being done, the court will probably the defendant, as announced by senator Thurston, will give notice of appendix to the Supreme Court of the United to the states, and will within a short time specified by law, file a writ of error with the supreme Court asking the consideration to state a grievance. Vesterday, with some failes, 1 took a trip in Cheende Locks by the supreme Court of the United to the rolum trip we found it packed with passengers.
