The 1500 inspectors and taggers employed by the Bureau of Animal Industry at the chief shipping points, feeding stations and stockyards, were instructed to keep a record of all shipments of cattle, incinding the time of their departure and arrival, and whether or not they were fed and rested. In this way evidence that is declared to be absolutely conclusive was secured in 1200 cases.

Many of the roads want to compromise by paying fines in some few cases and having the others dismissed, and all of them have promised to obey the law here-after. To do this some of the roads will run cattle trains on passenger train schedules to get them to their destina-tions within the 28-hour limit. Others are putting on large stable cars in which the cattle can eat, drink and rest. The oper of these cars is now being investi-

CHERBOURG, July 4.- The French and American squadrons joined today in celebrating the American national holiday. At an early hour the ships of both countries broke out flags from stem to stern. The American flag was conspicu-ous everywhere, yachts, buildings and wharves showing the Stars and Stripes The sky was overcast, but the harbor presented a brilliant picture. Crowds lined the wharves awaiting the national salute by both squadrons, which was fired at noon, accompanies by salutes m the land forts. A regatta was held between the crews of the French and American warships. The prize for whaleboats was contested for by a picked crew from the French battleship Bouvines and a mixed crew from the American ships. The French-men won. A second race for gigs was won by the crew of the flagship Brook-A large flotilla of pleasure craft followed the races, and the crowds lining the shore on both sides of the harbor vigorously applanded, the Americans getting a good share of the praise.

An imposing scene took place when the French military and naval officers received their American naval comrades ashore. Gigs from the flagship Brooklyn and other ships brought the Americans to the Quar Breton, which was beautifully decorated with American and French flags. Several hundred French officers, of all branches of the service, surrounded by a vast crowd, assembled to welcome the Americans. A procession, headed by the band of the French Co-jonial infantry and made up of American and French officers, all in shore uni-forms, was then formed. The procession halted at the Place de la Republique, where the band played the American and French national authoms, the officers uncovering while the crowd applauded. The French officers then served punch

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidness, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most dis-tressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. ASTORIA, Or., July 4-It is learned here late tonight that Sir James Dunsmuir is highly indignant over the treatment accorded him by the quarantine officers at the local station. She was escorted as far as buoy 8 by the Dansmulr collier Wellington which later left out southbound.

The Thistle proceeded up the river, but was stopped by Quarantine Officer Earle in the Electro. An examination was made and the party finally released. Because the Wellington entered the river without a pilot she is subject to a fine of $5000 by the Government and half the amount of the pilotage by the state.

Liberati Conducts Band Like Safe and Sane Man

Liberati is a "safe and sane" master of bands. After the frenzied gyrations and the mane-shaking, it is a relief must bicssed to see him in the very act of lead-ing his musicians. He wields his baton with such dignity as might have invested the baton of a Marshal of France in the days of Wagram. So many of our band leaders explode their energy with much the same spectacular sizzle of sparks as the pin wheels and "nigger-chasers" "went off" during yesterday's devilish pandemonium. I have watched many musical lunatics in their employment of get-ting music out of brass borns and things in fear and trembling, lest they might jump down the tuba's throat or fly into a thousand pieces from the very wildness of their abandon. Liberati is not like that. He directs as a human being should, and the audience is permitted to listen in peace of soul and quiet of nerves. not a fearsome sight to see Liberati, but tis inspiring. After the unprofit-nble din of burning powder and the gaud of the Trail, it was good to drink deep ties by 59 per cent. in the music of the band. Liberati is already popular here, but during his stay at the Exposition he and his players are destined to win a much larger part of public favor. The leader has toured the country many times since he came to America 32 years ago to direct a band. He is no novice or youngster. He told me last night of his grandchildren and yet he's something of a matinee idol. The joke about matinee chorus girls with grandchildren is not all a joke. Even poets have fallen into such hard lines, and Liberati, being a tone poet with a conscience for truth, confesses to grandchildren.
