TALKS WITH ROOT

President in Conference on Hay's Successor.

CABINET MEETS ON TRAIN

Choice of New Secretary of State Considered and May Be Announced Soon - President

Refuses to Speak.

PITTSBURG, July 5,-The President's train arrived here as a special from Cleveland at 8:50 P. M., exactly on schedule time, and at 9 o'clock left for the East as a section of No. 6. At the station a crowd had gathered to greet the President, but no formal reception was given him. After repeated calls for a speech, the President came to the rear platform of his car and said:

'My friends, I should not be expected to make a speech on this occasion, as I am returning from the funeral of Mr. Hay, who was a friend of all the people, and for whom I had a deep affection." Cabinet Meeting on Train.

President Roosevelt passed the aftergoon and evening after leaving Cleveland in informal conferences with his Cabinet officers and friends on board his special At 1:15 P. M. the train drew out of the Union Station at Cleveland and ran to Wheelock Siding, 17 miles east of Cleveland, where it remained until 3:45 c'clock, when the trip to Oyster Bay was resumed. During the run to Wheelock and the brief stay there luncheon was served, the President having as his per-sonal guests Elihu Root, Paul Morion, Charles Emory Smith, Secretary Shaw, Attorney-General Moody, Postmaster-General Cortelyou and Dr. Rixey, Dur-ing the afternoon the President took se important matters with the members of his Cabinet individually.

Long Conference With Root,

The President talked long and earnestly with ex-Secretary Root, who has been almost constantly with him since he joined him in Jersey City yesterday afterannouncement regarding the successor-ship to Secretary Hay, but it is known that the subject was considered infor-mally by the President today. It is not unlikely that the President may authorze a statement in the near future re garding the appointment, but he has not indicated yet, at least not for publica-tion, who his choice may be for Secretary of State.

At Alliance, O., where the train stopped for five minutes, the President appeared on the rear platform of his car and acknowledged the greeting of the people. He said he could not make an address n the circumstances The members of the Cabinet who are with the President leave the special train at Philadelphia in the morning and return directly to Washington. The President will reach Oyster Bay at 11 M. Secretary Metcalf left the party televeland to go to Utica, N. Y., where be will join his wife, and from there go Oakland, Cal., by way of the Cana-ian Pacific, for a short vacation.

No announcement will be made here as where the convention of 1907 will be held. At an adjourned meeting of the board the matter was referred back to the executive committee, with instruc-tions to secure further information and report to a meeting of the full board, which will be held some time during the Preceding the formal opening of the convention late in the afternoon, there was held a business meeting of the United Society of Christian Endeavor (corporntion), at which officers and trustees for the ensuing year were elected and annual reports of the officers were presented. All the old officers were re-elected. Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, president, on account of ill health, was not present, and a letter expressing his regret was submitted.

THE BEST WATER IN THE WORLD

"Water you can drink." Years ago there stood in front of Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, a fount that bore the legend, "Water we MAY Drink." It was very rich in color, a fact-no doubt-which prompted the old-time minstrel, Hughey Dougherty, to say that, "What the town needs is water we CAN drink." That's the sort you'll find here at our store; drinking founts of pure, cold, sparkling "Bull Run" water-best in the world. It's a hobby of ours to only have the best-of everything. You're welcome to our rest rooms and writing nooks, Second Floor; lavatories, Second Ploor; information and checking bureaus, First Ploor. Three mammoth elevators, largest on the Coast.
