BACK TO HIS CELL

W. F. Beckman, Octogenarian, to Face Murder Charge.

PARDONED ON ONE COUNT

Eleven Years Ago He Killed His Wife and Stepson in Douglas County-Convicted on the First Charge.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 6 .- (Special.)-William P. Beckman, 80 years old, a vet-eran of the Civil War, has been brought here to be tried for the murder of stepson in this county in 1894. At the same time Beckman also killed his wife, and for that crime he was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. In 1902, owing to extenuating circum stances, Beckman was pardoned by Gov-Geer. He went at once to his former home in Wisconsin, but returned about three weeks ago to Portland, where Upon learning of this, Judge Hamilton immediately issued a bench warrant, and Beckman was rearrested, under the for-mer indictment for the murder of his stepson, Robert Ring, upon which charge he has never been tried.

he has since been staying at the home

Beckman lived with his wife, stepson and two stepdaughters on a farm about nine miles east of Roseburg. From evi-dence brought out at the trial in 1894 it shown that his home life was far from happy. Continual nagging from the members of his family made his life a burden. Early one morning, after a par-ticularly distressing scene, the double murder was committed Immediately after the shooting the two stepdaughters fied to the neighbors and gave the alarm. When they returned with assistance the house was empty, save for the dead, and after some search the old man was found wandering in the hills.

He made no resistance to arrest.

Attorney Prebbles, now of North Taklma, counsel for Beckman, succeeded in proving that the family jangles were about the old man's property, and that their efforts to get hold of what he had drove him to desperation. This showing resulted in the lighter sentence of life

Persecution Is Alleged.

SALEM, Or., July 6.—(Special.)--Attor-ncy C. J. Schnabel, of Portland, called the arrest of W. F. Beckman to the attention of Private Secretary Gatens today and protested against the arrest of Beckman. The superintendent of the Penitentiary has been advised not to reto that institution, unless by order of a his letter to Mr. Gatens Mr. Schnabel says that Beckman is 80 years old, that he left Minnesota to go to Los Angeles because of fatling health, and that the fact that he had a ticket to Los Angeles shows that he had no intention of stopping permanently in Oregon.

The records here show, moreover, that remaining out of the state was not a condition of the pardon. The reasons given for the pardon are thus stated: "The sentencing Judge, three trial jurors and citizens of the county in which the was committed recommend nd citizens of the State of Minnehis former residence, testify to his good character, and arrangements have been made for his transportation to Min-nesota, there to be cared for by his friends." In view of these facts, and rendered to his country during the Civil War." the pardon was granted Mr. Schnabel asserts that the arrest of Beckman was brought about by a forneighbor, who is persecuting

POLICE MAKE TWO RAIDS

Crapplayers and Optum-Smokers Are

Taken to Prison.

Patrol loads of negro crap shooters and white opium smokers filled the City Jail last night. In a raid on a crap game at Chandler's saloon on Park and Flanders streets, 11 negroes were cornered and held at the point of re-volvers by Officers Craddock and Burke until help was summoned. The two officers, however, were not able to hold all those who were participating in the caped by smasning a large window in the room and clambering through. A crap game and other gambling para-phernalia was captured. It is said the by the Rose City Male Quartet phernalia was captured. It is said the game has been in operation since Feb- by Miss Bamsdell. Appalachian and Sierra Members Will Join With Mazamas.

Members of the Appalachian Club Boston, who will join the Sierras and Mazamas in the ascent of Mount Rainier, surprised the local mountaineers by ar Portland yesterday ahead of the scheduled time, and many more are expected today. Great interest and enthu-siasm is being manifested in the expeditions to Rainier and Hood, and the climb ers are coming in big numbers. There will be 28 from the Appalachian Club, and 105 from the Sierra Club, of California. The Mazamas will turn out 75 strong. making a big party to try the stronghold of the great sentinel of the Sound. Appalachians who have not arrived are taking in the scenery of the Northwest, some visiting at Yellowstone Park, and others coming over the Canadian Rockies. They are charmed with the magnificent intains of this section, and wonder why they never came here before to climb some of these beautiful, snow-clad peaks instead of contenting themselves with the smaller mountains of the Appalachian range. They will all be here by tomor-row, and the entire Blerra party will also have arrived by then. visitors are cordially invited to make their headquarters at the Mazama clubrooms, in the City Hall, where members of the local organization will be on hand to extend greetings and give information on all subjects. Bulletins will be posted there giving details of the various excursions and side trips which have been arranged. The first outing will be a tramp around the picturesque skyline trail, giving the visitors an opportunity to see the beauties of Portland its surrounding scenery from the most advantageous viewpoints. All who wish to go on this tramp will meet on the east end of the Willam-Heights steel bridge (take W car on Washington street), at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, where Colonel Hawkins will meet them and be the guide on the trip

FRANK SITERA, SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY, DROWNS,

When Attempting to Land on Bridge Near Trail He Falls Into Lake.

Frank Sitera, a 17-year-old how employed at the Bismarck Cafe at the position, was drowned last night Guild's Lake about 10 o'clock, by falling out of a boat when he was attempting to land on the bridge that runs paralle to the Trall. The body was recovered about half an hour after it had been in the water. Although Captain Clark and his life-saving crew worked over the body for several hours in the hopes of effecting resuscitation their efforts were of no avail. Sitera lived at Omaba. Neb., being attracted to Portland be-cauge of the Exposition. He worked as waiter at the Bismarck Cafe and was great favorite among the men employed there.

Last night Sitera and Julius Glassel, also a waiter employed at the Bismarck Cafe. rented a boat and rowed about the lake. About 10 o'clock Sitera asked his companion that he be landed, as he had some work to finish. They rowed to the bridge, only a few feet from the restaurant, where he grabbed hold of the railing. Sitera had a mandolin one hand, which he had been playing while in the boat, and started to climb upon the bridge. The boat slipped back from under his feet and, having the musical instrument in one hand, he lost his grasp and fell in the water. Glassel immediately began screaming for help, which was answered by several dozen men, among them Captain Clark and his life-saving crew. After diving for half an hour the body of the dead boy was brought to the surface by John Blase, a waiter at the Bismarck Cafe Captain Murphy, of the Exposition Guard, was summoned and had the life-lines stretched so that the men who worked over the body of the unfortu-nate lad would not be hampered by the immense crowd that had gathered. The water was only eight feet deep where Sitera was drowned, and his body was found within four feet of the bridge. Julius Glassel, who was in the boat, says that Sitera did not come to the sur-face after he went under. There was a large crowd on the Trail at the time, having assembled to witness the automobile ride of Kilpatrick, who is filling an engagement at the Exposition. least 1000 persons were present the body of the boy was recovered. POLLOWS MALARIA CONTRACTED IN SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR.

Victim Had Become Helpless When He Tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pilis, but

Was Cured in Four Months Because he did not know that there is remedy for ataxia, Mr. Ariel endured four years of weakness, pain and the misery of thinking his case incurable.

"At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war," he says, "I went with Company B, Eighth Regiment, M.V.M., into camp at Chickamauga, and while there my system became thoroughly poisoned with malaria. When I was mustered out, I carried that disease home with me. After a while locomotor ataxia appeared." "How did the ataxia begin?"

"I first noticed a pain in my ankles and knee joints. This was followed by a numb feeling in my legs. At times I had to drag myself around; my legs would shake or become perfectly dead. I had constant trouble in getting about in the dark. I kept a light burning in my room at night as I could not balance myself in the darkness. Even with the aid of a light I wobbled, and would reach out and catch hold of chairs to prevent myself from falling?"

"How long were you a sufferer?" "Four years in all. During the last three years I was confined to bed, sometimes for a week, again for three or four weeks at a time. When I was lying down the pain in my back was frequently so severe that I had to be helped up and put in a chair to get a little relief. I had considerable pain in my bowels and no control over my kidneys. The worst of all was that the doctor could give me no hope of recovery."

"How were you cured?" "I read that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured locomotor ataxis and one or two friends spoke to me about them. In the fall of 1908 I began to take them for myself and I had not used more than one box before I found that the pains in my knees and ankles were greatly relieved. Four months afterward I became a perfectly well man, and I am today enjoying the best of health."

Convulsion, Fits, then Epilepsy.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has been so successful in curing these brain-wrecking diseases that there is every reason to believe that even the most hopeless cases can be benefited, if not fully restored. We will be pleased to refer any one thus afflicted to many who now enjoy the blessing of health, after years of hopeless suffering.

"I have a son that had brain fever when two years old, followed by fits of the worst type, and he was pronounced incurable. I spent hundreds of dollars for him, without relief. After about fifteen years he became so bad that we incurable. I spent hundreds of dollars for him, without relief. After about fifteen years he became so bad that we sent him to Longelif hospital for the insane, at Logansport. Ind. He was there nearly three years, but he continued to grow worse, so we brought him home July 20, 1902, in an awful condition. He had lost his mind almost entirely. He harding knew one of the family; could not even find his bed; was a total wreck. He had from 5 to 10 fits a day. We were urged to try Dr. Miles' Nervine, and before the first bottle was used, we could see a change for the better. We have given it to him ever since, and he has had but two very light spells since last August, 1903, and then he was not well other ways. We pronounce him cured, as he can work and go anywhere. If any one wishes to ask any questions concerning this, they are at liberty to do so."
