TORPEDO - BOATS IN PURSUIT

Potenikin's Movements Cause Revolt in Crimea and Caucasus.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 6 .- Such news as came from the Black Sea and Causus during the day was extremely arming. The whole Crimean Peninsula is on the verge of revolt, and anarchy reigns in the mountains of the Caucasus from Batoum to Baku.

At Theodosia the workmen are backing the mutincers. The crews of several ships in the harbor have joined the muticity, and a bombardment is momentarily

Telegrams from the Caucasus, where a state bordering on anarchy has existed for a month say the news of the mutiny on board the Kniaz Potemkin made an electrical impression, and was the signal for a general movement with which troops and police are practically powerless to cope. Railroad traffic in all di-rections has ceased, and the people are fleeing on horseback and in all kinds of vehicles over the mountain roads and trails. Almost consternation prevails in official circles here.
