

'Employes at a state institution have a right to continue their residence at their former place of abode or to change their legal residence to the place where they secured but considerable money is carare employed. That is a matter to be settled by their own sense of right. The Thunder Mountain mail is taken that way. The postal authorities have been notified and a vigorous seach will be in-stituted for the bold robber. state, however, cannot tolerate any attempt by its employes to violate the elec-tion laws. If investigation shows that any such attempt has been made by any employe of the penitentiary he certainly "THE CARNIVAL OF VENICE"

will be relieved from service. Mr. A. F. Kees has been making an exemplary record as Superintendent of the nitentiary and has surrounded himself with men who are proving their petency. His success at the head of the institution is apparent to all who are fore that when the facts are presented they will not reflect on him or his ad-ministration."

enters the gates is anxious to witness it. The grand choruses, ballets and spe-BOYD KILLS HIMSELI

Spurred on by the applause of Indian aidens and a number of visiting white

Finthead Indian Intoxicated With Motion and Applause. MISSOULA, Mont., July 7 .- At the Flathead Indian reservation, where five tribes of the Flathead Nation are holding a monster pow-wow, Knootic Dornoe, one of the well-known braves of the Flatheads, after 26 hours of continuous dan-oing, died last night.

lating the laws will be promptly arrested and fined. Before 9 o'clock tonight every gambling resort in the city had been deto a family feud. The requisition issued by Governor Johnson, now under consid-eration, contains the same alleged deserted. Now that the county authorities have fect that was given as the official reason for denying the Allen extradition, viz., absence of an affidavit showing the pertaken charge of the situation, the next objective point will be the Milwaukie pooln. which it is known will be visited petration of the crime charged.

and closed down just as soon as the au-thorities are in possession of the desired evidence to justify their action. It was DANCES 20 HOURS TO DEATH decided by the officers in making to-night's raid that no arrests should be made, for the reason that the games were running by permission of the city author-ities, but the first violation will result in the arrest of all participants.

They panned out $150 in a couple of days, The situation in Oregon City on the gambling issue is unusual. In the annual and the ledge, which is being worked, still holds good with depth and develop-ment. They are confident that such rich results augur well for the old-time prodnunticpal election last December J. U. Campbell, the Republican nominee, openly declared that in event of his election gam-HCOT.

bling would be suppressed and the relating to the saloons would be rig enforced. In the election he was the rigidly girls, Dorsoe danced and danced to the beating of tom-toms. The while people the subject. The result of the election present told the Indian to desist dancing clearly indicated a desire for an when they observed him staggering, but, waving them aside, Dorsoe would start town, but upon taking his seat Mayor Sommer declined to tolerate open gamagain in a frantic manner as the Indian girls yelled their admiration of his prowbling until a few days ago, when games were resumed. There followed a contro-versy between the city and the county ers, and the squaws would savagely beat the tom-tom until the weary Indian fairly officials as to whom was responsible for the resumption of open gambling in this reeled about the weird instrument He was told that he had won the prize city. The municipal authorities persisted best dancer, a number of ponies, but in shouldering the shouldering the responsibility on the nty officials, and the latter have acted. to the river bank and died. Dorsee was one of the prominent members of tribe, and was reported quite wealthy. may yet include nickel-in-the-slot ciga machines, which may be put out of busi-ROMANCE ENDS IN DEATH Not only will gambling be entirely sup Walls. Valley. ressed, but the county officials propose o make a clean job. E. Matthies and Scattle Couple, Supposedly Unac-Henry Roos, two Gregon City saloon deal-ers, have been charged with selling quainted Previously, Drowned. SEATTLE, Wash., July 7.-H. F. Gib-on, a druggist, and Mrs. James Mitchell, uor to minors, and will be arraigned in An order was today made by the Clack-amas County Court by which 70 per cent the Justice Court tomorrow. Deputy Dis-triet Attorney Schuebel stated tonight that of a furniture salesman, were drowned yesterday in Lake Washington. An upturned boat with wearing apparel violations of the law prohibiting the sale the Clackamas at Barton is assumed by of intoxicants to minors will not only be strictly enforced, but the loltering of mibelonging to the couple was found on the bank of Union Bay, and today men are searching for the bodies. nors about these resorts will also be the occasion for issuing warrants. No one saw the accident, and it i

NORTHWEST DEAD. H. Iderhoff.

Footwall of the Ledge and Ore Runs

Well.

BAKER CITY, Or., July 7.-A cpecial telephone message just received from Sparta, states that a big strike has been made in the Mary Ainsworth mine near that place, by Colonel John Yonger, George Wilson and John Ferris, formerly and the ore goes away up in the thousands

reman of the Gem mine. They got the stwall of the ledge in the Ainsworth day, when his clothing was ignited by firecrackers.

the architect. Work on the new building Fines aggregating $125 were imposwill be commenced early this fall. The building will cost $75,000. Material used will be basalt rock for foundation and ed on the men arrested in a raid at Chandler's saloon, Park and Flanders streem, Thursday night by Policemen Burke and Craddock. All were charged with gambling. When the patrolmen swooped down upon the place a game of craps was in progress.

Chandler was fined $25 and the oth-ers, all negroes, were fined $10 each. journalists, representing American and Canadian newspapers, who are making All the fines were immediately paid. a 9000-mile trip under the guidance of the Eastern Canadian Immigration Asso-ciation, arrived here today and left this

"I have agreed to this because I think it the best way to handle the cases," shid Deputy City Attorney Fitz-gerald. "But it must be understood that this game must close. It will not be allowed to run and these defendants must not understand that they are to be permitted to run the game."

"We understand that we cannot run now," said W. M. Davis, counsel for the defense. "At any rate we have just been running a little game for pastime.

at 147 Second street, in which seven white men were found Thursday night, when Sergeant of Police Hogeboom and

. . . Lee Gong was fined $100 by Judge Cameron for conducting an opium den talty turns participated in by 300 picked Interested in Davenport Bank, Officials of Which Are Arrested.

SPOKANE, July 7.-H. C. Boyd, aged 25, assistant general agent of the Hamburg-Bremen Insurance Company, bought a re-volver in a second-hand store tonight, and while the proprietor was making change, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head, having placed the muzthe pistol in his mouth. Boyd was heavily interested in the Big Bend National Bank, of Davenport, Wash. C. C. day, president of the bank, was arrested in Boston. Boyd's actions on the Great Northern, on which he arrived tonight, were so peculiar that he must have been insane. He was well known in the North-He started in the business in Portland years ago. His father was a banker in Portland While Boyd's body lay on the floor, two women pushed their way through the crowd and attempted to rifle the pockets, one of them saying she knew he was her husband, and that he told her he would commit suicide. The women were frus-trated in their attempt and escaped before the police arrived.

May and Lambert Arrested.

SEATTLE, July 7 .- (Special.) -- Charles C. May, the Davenport banker who was arrested at Boston vesterday, was indicted by the last Federal grand jury making false returns to the Co trolley of the Currency. Alleged shortages by Max and his cashier were covered up. A. F. Lambert was cashier of the Big Bend National Bank, and May president, Lambert has already been arrested. The indictments were returned by the last Federal grand jury to sit for the entire State of Washington, and the men will be tried in the new Eastern Washington

JUGGLE WITH ASSESSMENTS istered 98 degrees.

County Assessors in Washington to Disregard State Commissioners.

district at Spokane

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 7.-(Special.)-- by Deputy Marshal T. M. Morris, of Sent. An opinion filed by the State Board of the, for $20,000 in the interest of Mrs. K. An opinion mee by the state Board of the for some in the interest of Mrs. R. Tax Commissioners today, advises County Stertan, of San Francisco, and released Assessors to make their assessments at a uniform rate upon all classes of property, regardless of any classification by the State Board of Equalization. The commission says:

"It is not generally understood by the $2000, but Mrs. taxpayer at large that the equal ization not agree to it. by the State Board, or in other words, the values placed upon all classes of property by the State Board, are not the values upon which the rates of taxae computed. Such values are fixed State Board solely for the purtion are con by the Stat pose of determining what sums of money shall be paid by each county into the several state funds. Such sums being ascertained, the rate necessary to raise them is computed and extended by the several County Auditors upon the values fixed by the County Boards. The raising or lowering of the value of any class of property by the State Board does not in any way affect the amount of taxes that such property is required to pay.

SUICIDE AT UNDERTAKER'S.

Dayton Man Seeks Out Place to Kill

Himself.

schools in the West. DAYTON, Wash., July 7.-R. H. Chil-ton, one of Dayton's most prominent citizens, and a former business man, committed suicide yesterday afternoon at performers, and the gorgeous scenery, costumes and effects, representing an investment of $100,000, make it a production of world-wide imp e. Performances every afternoon and night.

LEWIS COUNTY MILL BURNS

of a professional.

ase of a professional. It is not known the amount the robber

Greatest Show of Modern Times Now

on the Trail.

"arnival of Venice," attracts all the vis-Itors to the Exposition. It is recognized as the one great, overshadowing theatrical attraction of the Fair, and every one who

Kiralfy's magnificent spectacle,

Fiame in Sawdust Starts a Fifty-

Thousand-Dollar Fire CHEHALIS, Wash, July 7.-(Special.)-Another big Lewis County sawmill went up in flames today, that of Luedinghaus

Brothers' at Dryad on the Chehalis and South Bend branch, 17 miles west of this The loss is estimated at $50,000 with probably one-third insured. The fire caught at 12:30 in the sawdust about the bollers in the shingle mill. All the machinery was ruined. Everything about the mill except the dry sheds burned. The firm employed about 75 men.

The

SALMON THICK IN ALASKA

Sockeyes Running in Nans and Skeena Rivers

place.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 7 .- Sockeys in large numbers in Naas and Skeena Rivers.

News brought from the North today is to the effect that all the canneries are working to their fullest capacity to that the missing couple were in any way attached, and so far as their friends attached, and so far as their friends knew, they had not been in each other's handle the phenomenally large run. company before. Both are well known,

HOT DAY IN SAN FRANCISCO

Temperature of 98 Degrees Only Surpassed Three Times

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7 .- In the rec ords of the local weather bureau there are only three dates which show a higher temperature than that reached today Shortly before noon the thermometer reg-were on the programme.

Libeis Steamer for Injury.

Claims It Is Trying to ABERDEEN, Wash., July 7.-(Special.)-BOISE, Idaho, July 7 .- (Special.)-In the United States Court today Judge Beatty pany for damages caused from a fail while going off the gaugplank at the wharves in San Francisco a year ago. The company agreed at once to settle for 00, but Mrs. Sterian's lawyers would troduction of an affidavit by F. W. Brad-ley, president of the Bunker Hill Com-pany, in which he alleged his belief that In honor of the visiting officers of the In honor of the visiting officers of the Italian cruiser Umbria, Signor Liberati and his band furnished a special Italian programme at the Exposition last night, which was very largely attended, not only by the members of the ship's crew, but also by Portland musical enthusiasts. Sethe Federal Company was paying divi-dends in excess of its earnings, and that the sult had been brought to force the Bunker Hill to sell out the mines at a low price, the inference being that the property would be secured for the Federal lections by many well-known composers upany and enable it to earn div Mr. Bradley was recently reported to have een appointed manager of the Federal Omega Nu Sorority at Fair. Jompany, and his declination of th Members of the Omega Nu Sorority, piloted by the local Zeta Psi Chapter, vis-tied the Exposition yesterday, inspecting all points of interest. The Omega Nu girls have been in grand convention in Portland during the week, and yester-day's which is both week and yesterday's visit to the Fair was the final feature of the programme. The sorority oc-cupies a prominent position in many high house yesterday morning to go fishing. and were not seen afterward. Neither Mrs. Gibson nor Mr. Mitchell was aware land in a Hurry.

Italian Musical Programme.

Mrs. Mitchell left Madison Park boat.

the Oregon Water Power & Railway Com-pany, which corporation will be directly OAKLAND, Cal., July 7.-(Special.)-Governor and Mrs. Pardee, who are here benefited by the proposed improvement. It is extremely doubtful if the $4000 that reattending the function given in honor of Secretary Taft and party, left this city on a hurry-up call from Portland today. mains lacking can be raised.

There came a message from that city stating that Miss Madeline was seriously sick with pneumonia. Governor Pardee had planned to leave tomorrow for Fres-no, from which place he and other officials were, on Monday morning, to start for King's River Canyon, and in a semiofficial way view the country through which a road is to be built to make that intry accersible to sightseers. The inability of the Governor to make the trip will not driver other members of the party from going.

Miss Madeline Pardee, the 16-year-old amer daughter of Governor George C. Pardee, has been ill with pneumonka at the Callfornia building, and Governor Pardee was elegraphed for yesterday afternoon. Her ndition was regarded as serious early the day, but she was reported to be improved in the evening. vs. Silverton.

GAS KILLS MINING MAN. Moses Manuel, of Homestake Fame

Buried in Earth.

HELENA, Mont., July 7 .- Mones Manuel, a well-to-do Helena mining man, who discovered the Homestake mine, in Deadwood, S. D., lost his life last night In the Minnesota mine, near Corbin, is miles south of Helena. He descended into a shaft alone to examine pumps, carrying a candle, which ignited gas that had escaped from a gasoline tank which leaked. An explosion resulted, caving in the shaft and blowing timbers in all Rescue parties are digging for Telegrams Lost in Tanana River.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 7 .- All messages which had accumulated near Fairbanks since the recent break in the telegraph line, have been lost by the up-setting of a boat in the Tanana River. graph line, have DAYTON, Wash., July 7.-R. H. Chil-ton, one of Dayton's most prominent cilizens, and a former business man, committed suicide sesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock by putting a 44-cellber bulket through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Hirsch Will Speak. Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday through his brain. Mr. Chilton has been M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch will speak Sunday M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch Will Speak Sunday M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch Will Speak Sunday M. E. Church, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch Will Speak Sunday M. E. Church, Dr. Hirsch Will Speak Sunday M. E. Church Speak Sunday

OREGON CITY, Or., July 7.-(Special.)-H. Iderhoff, aged 61 years, and for 20 years a resident of Clackamas County, died of inflammation of the stomach at his home near Stafford yesterday. He is survived by a wife and two sons. The deceased was a highly respected citizen, and was an active and devout Christian.

Thomas Durry.

Barton Bridge a Doubtful Matter.

have raised but $6000 in subscriptions, one

Supreme Court Cases

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 1.-(Spe-cial.)-Thomas Durry, retired stockman and one of Walla Walla's oldest residents, Crouch, who appeared for the defendant when the case was called before Judge Cameron yesterday. The case died here this morning of peritonitis. Mr. Durry had been out of active business was not ready for trial, and the question of bail was under discussion. "I think the defendant will appear for several years, and at one time was well known throughout the

for trial and that it would be perfectly afe to let him go on his own recogn nizance," said Attorney Crouch. "He came here as soon as he read in The OREGON CITY, Or., July 7 .- (Special.)known him for 20 years. Schlessinger has no money, for he gives all he earns of the cost of constructing a bridge across to help the poor. "If he is so well known and so high-ly respected-so philanthropic-why is the country, $6000 to be the maximum ap-propriation that shall be allowed by the it some of those he has known for 20 county for the improvement. The buildyears can't put up $50 ball for him?" asked Deputy District Attorney Hansy. ing of the bridge, together with a conecting road of a required grade, it is es-Judge Cameron decided that Schlestimated, will cost at least $15,000. Other than the $6000 which is made available by singer would have to put up $50 bail or go to jall, and the bail was secured. the county, the petitioners for the bridge half of that amount being subscribed by L. W. Shulz went on a spree, was obbed of $35, had two men arrested for larceny, a jury of six acquitted the defendants and the old man had to pay $8.50 court costs. There is a sore spot so weak that after hearing it and de-linto line liberating upon it for a long time a arrested.

The case will be heard today.

SALEM, Or., July 7.-(Special.)-In set-ting eight cuses for trial in the Supreme Court, Clerk J. Murphy today cleared the trial docket in that tribunal, and no more cases will be set for trial before the Summer vacation. Including the cases that have been tried, but not decided, and those set for trial, the court has about 20 cases before it, and probably all these will be decided before vacation. The cases worst evidence against them was given charged him. by Daisy Mendenhall, who said that Hanshaw told her Shultz had some

Yesterday the complainants and the set today are as follows: July 15-Cohn vs. Wemme and Sears vs. money which he proposed to get. Sub-July 19-Horn vs. United States Mining woman's testimony.

curity & Trust Company: Horn vs. . . . United States Mining, Security & Trust

place

of $25.

Company and A. Rowley: Mee vs. Bow-den Gold Mining Company. July 29-Whelan vs. McMahan; Davis

and the case dismissed,

house showed her guilt.

the case against Kittle Gray,

fense, arose and appealed the case.

Claim Scattle Strike a Failure.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 7 .-- (Special.)-So far as the Puget Sound Sheet Metal Works is concerned, the strike inaugu-rated against it by the building trades yesterday is not causing any loss. company, claims to have filled the places of the strikers. The places of bricklayers, carpenters and others who went out in sympathy at some of the buildings where the Sheet Metal Works is doing work have not been filled work have not been filled.

Pasco Fire Cost $25,000.

SPOKANE, Wash, July 7.-Losses es-timated at $25,000 resulted from a fire at Pasco last night, a number of frame at Pasco last night, a number of frame buildings being destroyed and much of the town being in danger. The heaviest loser is Mrs. Volkman, whose lodging-house, with contents, was destroyed. Her loss is placed at $30,000, with $2000 in-surance. Among other losers are R. Gantenbein, second-hand store, $200; J. R. McClarkin dwelling, $200 R. McClarkin, dwelling, $900.

New Courthouse at North Yakima.

IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT

Port Angeles stone for the superstructure,

Editors in British Columbia.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 7 .- A score of afternoon for Victoria. They will return

Dies From Firecracker Burns.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 7 -- Charles Hicks, 4-year-old son of Harry Hicks, lied in convulsions this morning, as the result of terrible burns received Wednes-

tomorrow

Patrolmen Galbraith and Daly made a spectacular raid. Numerous excuses Louis Schlessinger, an alleged doctor, were given by the white men for being found in the establishment, but all were found guilty with one exception. He arrested on charge of practicing medicine without a license and assault and battery, is a much-abused person, acwas released and the other five were sentenced to serve 10 days in Deputy City Attorney F cording to the statement of L. E.

Fitzgerald stated to Judge Cameron that citizens had called attention to the opium den, saying they had seen men and women entering there, and that once they saw two young girls go in. "When informed of this," said Mr. Fitzgerald, "I went to the Captain of Police and gave him directions con-cerning it. I told him to have the place watched by plain clothes officers and to arrest every person found in there. Oregonian that he was wanted. He is a well known man; Judge Williams has It was one of the most successful raids ever made:"

init

It cost I. Toll $10 to violate a police regulation concerning hotel runners at the Union Depot. Judge Cameron found the defendant guilty and fined him, after which he cautioned him not to come again into court on a similar charge.

Toll made the mistake of tackling Policeman Scallen, who was in charge of two prisoners, escorting them to headquarters. The officer was in plain clothes and Toll did not know him, so the "runner" left his position at lowed the three men at least 25 feet-according to the evidence. Policeman Scallen swore that he told in Shuiz's heart, but the evidence was Toll to guit soliciting and to get back into line, but Toll persisted and was liberating upon it for a long that by verdict of not guilty was returned by H. W. Goddard, J. C. Stuart, David S. Stearns, Vic Phalon, G. R⁰ Struble and United that be knew the policeman, but Judge Cameron re-marked that he thought it likely that for the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure marked that he thought it likely that Frank Hanshaw and L. C. Pontius were accused of the robbery, and al-though there was some evidence that was Toll's second appearance on a showed they might have taken the similar charge, but previously Judge money, it was not very strong. The Hogue was on the bench and dis-

. . .

Whather or not Mary Jeffreys went into a certain drug store on quently the defense impeached the Sixth street to purchase a bar of soap depends her liberty She is charged with the theft of $170 from a Turk, and A barber shop at 84 North Sixth is attempting to prove an allbi.

street is so notoriously had that the proprietor of the Hood Hotel overhead that the Turk is mistaken in the perhas posted signs warning his guests to son, and declares she never saw him has posted signs warning his guests to shon the establishment. This is the shop complained of Thursday by Al-bert Kratzke and J. Walz, as the re-ault of which Louis Schofteld, a barber, was arrested. It was charged that the complainants suffered extortion in the place fense an opportunity to bring in a witness to show that the woman was in defendant got together in court and settled the matter before it came to trail. A portion of the money received H. H. Bowers, an adverti H. H. Bowers, an advertising solicitor, was arrested upon complaint of Mrs. C. A. Moore, in whose employ he from the complainants was returned the sentence uttered by Judge Cameron yesterday after he heard the evidence in the care against Kittin Green the care against to Bower, he agreeing to do some work for her in the future, it was merely a breach of faith. A civil action, the charged with robbing Edmund Reeves, a logger, Attorney Alex Bernstein, for the decourt said, would have to be filed if the complainant wished to secure the Judge Cameron remarked at the $50. close of the case that aside from the actual testimony of Reeves, which was Albert Graham, colored, was arrested very convincing, the fact that the ac-cused woman was found immediately after the robbery hiding under the was charged with assault with intent to do bodily harm. Jealousy was the cause of the affray. The woman was

. . .

Kittle Gray is a colored woman of cause of the affray. The woman was the North End district, and has fre-New Courthouse at North Yakima. NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., July 7.--(Sue-cial.)-The County Commissioners this her hiding under the house. Two other tion has aroused wide comment in the mining world. the body.

MINING SCANDAL SCARED UP

FEDERAL COMPANY ACCUSED

OF BAD FAITH.

President of Bunker Hill Company

Force Sale.