REFUSED TO SHOOT MUTINEERS

Firing Squad Turned Guns on Officers and Twelve Fell Dead. LONDON, July 10.—The Morning Post from private sources gives an account of the recent outbreak at Libau, according to which the first naval mutiny led to 22 men being condemned to death. The attempt to carry out the sentences of death provoked still more serious signs of mutiny, whereupon the port commander ordered the executions to be stopped and applied to St. Petersburg for instructions.

NAVY CLEARED THE WAY

Under date of July 9 Admiral Kataoka says: "The squadron conveyed the transports through dense fogs on July 5. The fleet preserved good order and reached the point chosen for concentration on the evening of July 7. The fleet anchored and the work of sweeping the sea of dangerous obstacles was completed. The transports were led in gradually. The warships lowered launches and assisted in landing the troops, guardships protecting the operations. Admiral Dewa reported that his division had reached the landing point at 6 o'clock in the morning, and a landing was effected. A reconnaissance was conducted, but no defenses were found. Only three guards were discovered.

POTEMKIN SAILS FOR HOME

The question of insurance on property lost by fire in the harbor during the recent disturbances is occasioning serious disputes between the Russian government and the foreign insurance companies. The foreign corporation declare that they will make claim against the Russian government. The Russian government number about 400, and the total losses are now estimated at $30,000,000.

CZAR TURNED DOWN WHITE

Would Not Appoint Him Peace Envoy, and Chose Muraviev. ST. PETERSBURG, July 10.—The Associated Press has high warrant for the statement that M. Witte, president of the Committee of Ministers, was strongly urged upon the Emperor for head of the peace mission. Even Foreign Minister Lamsdorf is understood to have joined in recommending his election. The Emperor, however, flatly declined to appoint him, and after M. Nelidoff, Ambassador at Paris, pleaded illness, His Majesty personally chose M. Muraviev, the Ambassador at Rome.

RUSSIA EAGER FOR ARMISTICE

But Believes Japan Wants Firm Grip on Sakhalin First. ST. PETERSBURG, July 10.—Although ten days have elapsed since Russia informed President Roosevelt of her willingness to conclude an armistice pending the result of the Washington conference, Japan, so far as known to the Russian government, has not deigned to reply to the President's communication. When the question of an armistice was first broached by the President, it is understood that Japan indicated that she would decline to agree to a suspension of hostilities until the plenipotentiaries met. Russia agreed in principle to this as the basis for negotiation. Since then the Russian government feels it has given ample proof of its desire to conclude peace, and it is possible it may go a step further.

It is possible, however, that Japan might agree to suspend hostilities in Manchuria, although the latest reports from there create a strong impression that Field Marshal Oyama is at last advancing for a decisive blow.

JOY AT REGAINING ISLAND

Japan Long Repented Cession of Sakhalin to Russia. TOKIO, July 10.—The announcement of the landing of a Japanese force at Sakhalin Island and the occupation of Korsakovsk, followed by the northern flight of the garrison, has been received with great satisfaction by the Japanese. The landing of the army at Sakhalin marks the first entry of the Japanese upon Russian territory proper. The Japanese have expressed themselves as pleased to be again in possession of the island, declaring that they have long felt that the bargain under which they relinquished the place a year ago was unsatisfactory. The Japanese express the belief that they will speedily control that entire island, as they regard the garrison there as being incapable of serious resistance, and are confident that it will certainly be captured.

Welcome P. D.'s and M. D.'s. The Town is Yours. The Doctors of Publicity and of Physics are with us. Make the store your down-town headquarters, boys. You are heartily welcome. THE OLDS-WORTMAN-KING STORE, WASHINGTON-FIFTH-SIXTH. LEADING DEPARTMENT HOUSE ON THE PACIFIC SLOPE—THE "DIFFERENT STORE."

Pertinent Paragraphs Particularly Profitable to People of Prudent Propensities Who Would Share This Week's Unparalleled Price Prunings on Wanted Summer Goods.

"Much Like Men:" There's something back of a man, who, when he says a thing makes you feel it's so. He may say it quietly. It may be a simple "no" or "yes"—but you believe it. Another man may say the same thing; may emphasize it; may yell it to you, and repeat it again and again. But you don't believe it. Stores are much like men. We've used the simile before. Yesterday we announced the opening of a series of very exceptional special sales of goods peculiarly adaptable for present use and wear—vacation and recreation supplies—staple high-grade linens and stylish shoes. These, and other merchandise in the wanted-now class. The statements were quiet, plain, simple facts of really wonderful reductions on staple and seasonal summery goods. But it was believed, for the crowds of buyers came surging in soon as the doors opened, and kept increasing through the day. The pleased expressions at the exits told a story of satisfaction, of promises fulfilled. That's why it pays this store to advertise. Not all the good things were told yesterday, there's more today.

Did You See It? The most wonderful exhibit on the Fair grounds is often missed by visitors who are not familiar with the grounds. One-third of the people who left the gates a few days ago when asked "Did You See It?" replied NO. That is the trouble with trying to see the Fair without a guide, the very things you want most to see are missed. You do not know where to go to get the most out of the Fair.

Then You Need an Official Guide The best way to get it is through our store. The Guide sells for 25 cents everywhere, but we have arranged to furnish it to our patrons for 5 cents in this way. With every purchase of $1.00 or over we give a ticket, which, when presented at the Guide Headquarters in the Oriental building, is worth 20 cents on the purchase of a Guide.

That Shoe Sale's a Wonder A STOCK ADJUSTMENT THAT MEANS A REDUCTION OF $40.00 WORTH OF SPLENDID FOOTWEAR BY DRASTIC PRICE-CUTTING. It was no matter of surprise at all that such generous response came from our announcement of Sunday of a really sensational sale of good shoes that opened here yesterday. No wonder, then, that such an outpouring of buyers filled the shoe store to repetition yesterday, and the unprecedented bargains. The only ones disappointed were those who failed to be waited on in the crush. We did the best we could, employed all the skilled help we could procure, and tried to reach all with our accustomed perfect service. This will be remedied today, as a number of extra salesmen and fitters to experience an enclosed and will be on hand to help handle the crowds. The bargains have been added to, so that today's buyers will be surprised by an even greater number of wonderful shoe values than were those of yesterday.
