

FULTON ENDORSES C. B. HEGAROT

Recommends Portland Man for Receiver of Roseburg Land Office.

HELPED BUILD THE JETTY

Appointment of ex-Government Engineer Is Urged—B. L. Eddy
Will Be Appointed
Register.

J. B. Hegarot, of Portland, was recommended to the President yesterday morning for appointment to the position of Receiver of the Roseburg Land Office by Senator Fulton. Since the retirement of James H. Booth from the Receivership at Roseburg, many applicants have arisen to demand recognition for past service to the party. Mr. Hegarot, it is understood, has not been one of these. He made application of Senator Fulton some time ago for recommendation from him, but it was not until yesterday that his name was sent to Washington by the Senator. His recommendation comes as a result of the investigation made by Senator Fulton who is convinced that Mr. Hegarot is the man for the place.

Mr. Hegarot was formerly the engineer in charge of the Government work at the mouth of the Columbia, where he was stationed to oversee the construction of the jetty. Of late he has been living in Portland and at the time his name was sent to Washington by the Senator, he was in the employ of the Government at Roseburg. He did not know that his application had been considered favorably by the Senator.

B. L. Eddy, the nominee of Senator Fulton, for Register at the Roseburg Land Office has been endorsed by Secretary Hitchcock and his appointment approved.

JAPANESE GIRL IS SLAIN

Killed by Countryman Because She Would Not Marry Him.

The 14-year-old daughter of S. Takaki, who was shot and killed two days ago in Spokane, was born in this city, and is well known among local Japanese. Her parents were intellectual people of their race, and their daughter was receiving a liberal education. The news of her foul

IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT

Judge Cameron was driven from the bench yesterday morning by drippings from defective plumbing overhead, and had to hold the session seated in Clerk Hennessey's chair. The Court looked quite serious over the occurrence, but the only remark was that the building should be repaired, so that water could not interfere with justice.

Several thousands of dollars were expended last year on improvements in various portions of the building in which the courtroom is situated, but somehow the person having the repairs in charge overlooked all sections appertaining to the Municipal Court.

Carl Decerning, a youth, was charged with the larceny of a watch, the property of Frank Beaumont. The accused has for some time been in the employ of G. L. Becker, who emphatically declared his firm faith in the lad, and when Judge Cameron suggested that he would discharge the defendant in case $5 was paid to the complainant, Becker promptly paid. The $5 was in payment for the watch, although the defendant denied the theft, saying that it had been stolen from his vest pocket.

Jacob Marguhl was fined $20 on a charge of assault and battery yesterday.
Jack Diamond being the complaining witness. It was shown that Diamond had suffered greatly from a jab in the eye given with an umbrella in the hands of Marguhl, and had been confined for several weeks in a local hospital.

After being acquitted of a charge of vagrancy yesterday, H. L. McCormack muttered a most uncomplimentary mutter regarding the court officials, because they ordered him to cease living with a woman not his wife, and go to work.

Judge Cameron, who has a faculty for hearing things spoken in his court, quickly called upon McCormack to repeat what he had just uttered, but McCormack declined. He was locked up until the ad-judgment of court, at which time he was brought out and given to understand, in a few well-directed words, that when he wished to speak in the courtroom, to address his remarks to the Judge.

"I don't propose to have anybody mutter things in my presence, about ruling, or about anything connected with the court," said Judge Cameron.

L. E. Johnson, who runs a saloon in the vicinity of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, was fined $25 yesterday by Judge Cameron, for failing to appear to answer, after having the case continued for several days.

Judge Cameron discharged H. Pfeiffer, another Fairgrounds saloonkeeper, although two policemen took the stand and declared under oath that he had kept open house many mornings until about 1:30 o'clock, when they would appear and order him to close. Judge Cameron said he thought there might be a mistake in the time of the officers, as the defendant claimed it was only 1:08 A. M., and that he was only open once that late.

Pfeiffer also declared the saloon directly opposite his has been running after hours, unmolested by the police. He made this statement in the presence of the two policemen, who denied it.

A. Beimel, a blue-jacket from the revenue cutter McCulloch, engaged in a pistol duel with George Sullivan, a bartender, at Third street and the late Wednesday night and was fined $25 yesterday. Sullivan was fined $20, and Fay Stevenson was fined $5 for being drunk. She was with the defendant, and was said to be the cause of the trouble.

R. M. Smith yesterday appeared as private prosecutor in the case of Sadie Smith against Sadie Voight, and was much chagrined when Richard W. Montague showed by a witness that Attorney Smith recently gave strong testimony against Sadie Voight in the divorce case in the Circuit Court during divorce proceedings brought by young Smith. After hearing much testimony, Judge Cameron continued the case, warning the belligerent to cease quarrelling. Mrs. Voight said she would immediately move to escape Mrs. Smith.

A. Connell was fined $10 for using abusive language toward J. C. Stuart, a publisher. It was shown that Connell applied most vile epithets toward Stuart.
Judge Cameron declared the language used was outrageous and disgraceful, and said that another complaint would be filed against Connell, but none was filed.

FOR TICKET - SCALPING.

Three Men Are Arrested for Violation of the Law.

Three arrests of alleged violators of law governing the sale of railroad tickets and keeping of establishments where tickets are sold were made late yesterday afternoon by the police. All of the prisoners were taken into custody on warrants issued out of the Municipal Court at the request of Arthur C. Spencer, of the legal staff of the O. R. & N. Company.

The names of the trio under arrest are H. G. Caspary, He is held under two charges. One is conducting an establishment where railroad tickets are sold and the other is selling railroad tickets contrary to law. He was recently found guilty of these offenses in St. Louis and was fined. He came to Portland with Hugh A. Tensard, who was also fined in St. Louis, and they entered business together.

W. H. Stance was the second man arrested, and he was booked on a charge of selling railroad tickets contrary to law. E. H. Anderson was the last of the trio. He is charged with the same offenses as Caspary, and he is Caspary's partner. The office of the alleged scalpers is near the Union depot.
All were released upon payment of $50 cash bail.

The information upon which the complaints were issued is that William Hanson, who recently reached here from the East, sold a return-trip ticket to them and purchased an unused return-trip ticket to another point. At the time Hanson had trouble over money matters with the alleged scalpers and caused the arrest of Caspary and Anderson. The case fell through because Hanson got his money back and did not wish to remain here and prosecute.

WILL INSTALL OFFICERS

Commissioner Kilbey, of Salvation Army, Will Arrive Today.

Commissioner George A. Kilbey, commander of the Salvation Army forces in the West, whose headquarters are in Chicago, will arrive in Portland today. The commissioner is of worldwide reputation among Salvation Army workers, and is deputy commander to Miss Eva Booth, who visited Portland several weeks ago. He is visiting the large cities of the West in connection with the big changes of high officials of the army in the Western territory and the rearrangement of the boundary lines of the various divisions.

Owing to the growth of the Salvation Army in the Northwest, it has been found necessary among the army leaders to form new divisions, with headquarters in Portland, consisting of the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming, and in connection with this the commissioner is installing Brigadier and Mrs. W. F.
Jenkins as the new provincial officers, the said installation meetings taking place in Spokane, Seattle and Portland.
An officers' council has been organized for tonight and tomorrow night a great rally of officers and soldiers will take place. The installation meeting and welcome will take place Sunday.

SWIMMING CLUB FOR BOYS

Judge Frazer Will Organize One in South Portland.

Judge Frazer will meet with boys of South Portland this afternoon in the vicinity of Jones sawmill, on the beach, and organize a swimming club and make arrangements to build a bath-house. The bath-house at the foot of North Seventeenth street is nearing completion.

Judge Frazer and residents of Montavilla have organized two boys' baseball clubs at that place and furnished the boys with bats and balls, and uniforms are to follow. This will break up evil practices which have been going on in that neighborhood, such as breaking windows in vacant houses and raising disturbances.
The boys have promised to stop smoking cigarettes and stealing cherries. The storekeepers who have been selling the cigarettes to the boys will be prosecuted.

A summer camp for poor boys will be established at Seaside. About 900 boys will be taken there in lots of 25 each, and the camp will be alternately in charge of Judge Frazer, his clerk, Marion Johnson, and Officer H. H. Hawley.

Judge Lindsey, of Denver, the most prominent juvenile Court Judge in the country, will attend the meeting in Portland of the Convention of Charities and Correction, and will preside over the juvenile Court branch.
