

HOPE NOT MADE

Until August Course of Market Will Be Uncertain.

UNDERTONE NOW IS BETTER

Liberal Receipts of Fruit Put Front Street in Better Condition—Wide Range in Eggs—No Further Changes in Butter.

HOPE—Future course of market will not be known until August. FRUIT—Heavier arrivals put front street in better shape.

The hop market shows no material change from a week ago, unless it be a steadier undertone that has become apparent since the late rush to sell ceased.

Contradictory reports continue to come in of the condition of the Oregon, Washington and California crops, but advice from other harvesting sections of the world so far have been favorable.

On this subject, M. H. Dunst, the California grower, writes an important letter to the Sacramento Union, in which he says in part: "I doubt if there is a hogrower or hogdealer in the whole United States, perhaps in the world, who is not wondering what the next 60 days will bring about."

"I am happy to say that I am informed that as far as some of the growers who shined themselves not to sell before August 1 under 20 cents per pound have broken their faith."

"The sugar market continues in an uncertain condition. The tone is weak, but no one cares to prophesy what the future will bring forth."
