Marse Garvin essayed to pitch against the champions yesterday, but as he is not yet at himself, he was bumped in a lively fashion, for the Tigors landed on his choicest shoots in clusters, the result being that they rang up a total of nine tailies, while the best the locals could do was to shove four men over the register.

The second inning proved the undoing of the local star, for in this chapter the visitors rushed six men around the circuit, principally assisted by safe hits it seemed as though all the Tigers had to do in this inning was to swing wildly and the ball would land safe, and before they were finally retired a perfect avalanche of tailles was rushed over the plate. Lynch started off with a safe one to left, and Casey's attempted sacrifice was thrown away by Garvin, which advanced Lynch to third. over the plate. Lynch started on with a safe one to left, and Casey's attempted sacrifice was thrown away by Garvin, which advanced Lynch to third, whence they both acored on Hogan's single to left. Brown fanned, but Doyle waved at a wild pitch and landed the ball safely in left, after which a pass to Sheehan filled the bags, and allowed Nordyke to score two of them with his double to left. Eagan's single and McLaughlin's out made the total of six for the inning. Portland got one back in its half on Householder's two-bagger and sinon Householder's two-bagger and singles by McLean and French, but further scoring was cut off by a fast double-play by Casey, Eagan and Nordyke.

The Tigers pushed two more over in the fifth on the squeeze play, when, with McLaughlin on third and Casey on second, Hogan bunted, and both runners scored, as the local infield went up in the air on the play, Hogan even reaching first in safety, for Cates failed to cover the bag when Van Buran ran in on the bunt.

Portland secured two in its half, when French reached second on errors by French reached second on errors by Nordyke and Casey, and scored on Cates' triple to left, the latter registering a moment later by a double-steal, in which he was assisted by Jakey Atz. who had been passed to first on four that failed to cut the corners.

Tacoma scored its last rup on two-baggers by Sheepan and Eagan in the eighth chapter. Portland's fourth and last rup came in the ninth, when Van Buren beat out a bunt and took second on Hogan's wild throw, whence he was sent over the pan on singles by French and Runkle Cates ended the game with a long drive that was captured by

The main feature of the game was se umpiring of "Slats" Davis, whose ork was exceedingly gratifying to the local fans, after having witnessed such clowns in that line as Perrine and Kiopf. Davis hustles the players all the time, and is always master of the field, and when Pitzgerald tried to get little gay with him from the bench with a fine of $5.

Yesterday's game would have taken at least two hours with either Perrine or Bray handling the indicator, but Davis hustled the contest through in one hour and 25 minutes. Players and spectators do not have a chance to question the base decisions of Davis. for he is on top of every play, and therefore his rulings are not debated as was the custom with the other indi-cator-handlers who have appeared here Insufficient in Making Foreclosure to Publish a General Notice to All Persons Interested.

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 17 .- (Special.) and the court has handed down an opinion of unusual importance affecting tax titles. The decision was given in the case of A. J. Anderson vs. Emanuel Lurati. It is held that the tax title secured by Lurati against the property involved is void.

Herdman and Ewing Defeat Los Angeles Team.

HUNTER BEATEN BY ROHR

Many Surprises in the Championship Games Played on Multnomah Field by the Best Men of the Coast.

The first day's tennis for the Lewis and Clark and international champ ships was played at Multnomah Field yesterday. Herdman was the hero of the day and deserved everything he got.

when Ewing defeated Joe Smith in straight sets. Dr. Nunn followed with another surprise party by doing up George Durham, although the doctor had a hard time of it, and had to struggle through three sets. McAlpin again heid up the banner of the "old men" by defeating F. V. Andrews in straight sets and he earned his victory. Great interest is being taken in the play of the two representatives from Spokane. Neither Walker nor McBurney have had a hard match, but from the play thus far seen, it is apparent that Spo-kane has sent a team that must be reckened with.

The biggest surprise of all was when irving Roar defeated J. D. Hunter from Victoria. The match was very long and Robr fairly outdid aimself in his work His voileying was high-class and his service hard and accurate. Hunter was unjoubtedly off his game, for he led in the last set 5-2, but finally lost it.

The Benham-Herdman match was probably the best match of the day from the expert's standpotht. Bennam is a clever, active player of wide experience and with his partner Armstrong is looked upon as one of the stronges players.

Although very tired Herdman went in with Ewing to do up the Los Angeles team and succeeded in the attempt. team and succeeded in the attempt.

Great interest is taken in the playing of Gorham, from Los Angeles, who has not yet appeared in singles.

Farquihar gave Goss a lot of work, and at one time was leading in the games. He won the second set quite easily and displayed remarkable ability as a getter. He passed Goss repeatedly and fought like a tiger right up to the last. This is the first time Vancouver, B. C., has ever sent a team to Portland, and both Beecher and Farquihar are good, strong players. As a Farquhar are good, strong players. As a double team, they have had long expe-rience, and will make somebody work. The results of yesterday's matches were Schwengers beat McGuire 6-0, 6-2. Goss beat Farquhar 7-5, 4-6, 6-0. Beecher beat Gilbert 6-2, 6-4. Ewing beat Smith 6-4, 7-5.

McBurney beat Rosenfeld 6-2, 6-1.

Rohr heat Hunter 7-5, 7-9 9-7.

Gifford heat West 6-1, 6-2. Schwengers and Dewdney beat Shives and Veneys 6-0, 6-2.

Benham and Armstrong beat McGuire and McLaughlin 6-4, 6-4. Herdman and Ewing beat Hammond and Gorham 7-5, 2-6, 6-0.

The matches for tomorrow are all im-portant, and will show up some fine tennis.
Unfortunately, Scheugers will not be able to stay for the entire week, so that he will probably not be able to finish in all of his matches. Schrengers is probably the strongest man in the Northwest, and at 4 P. M. he will meet Goss in the Lewis and Clark championship. This will in singles, and will be watched with a great deal of interest. Goes was defeated by Schwengers last year in the international at Victoria, so that he has been biedon next week. # COLUMBIA RIVER EXCURSIONS.

conceded that no such match was ever witnessed at the Queen's Club, where a big sailery, including many Americans, cheered both the winner and the loser to the echo. Wright played a slightly better head game, and had more endurance than Brookes. Wright's game was brilliant, and he killed the ball more often than his opponent, who is himself noted for his net work.

Larned's match fell flat after the big contest, but Larned captured three straight without apparently letting himself out.
