MILWAUKIE POOL ORDINANCE IS RE-PEALED—At a meeting of the Milwaukie Council last evening pool ordinance No. 10, of the Milwaukie Country Club House, run by M. G. Nesse and Isaac Gratton, of Portland, was repealed. However, its liquor license still stands. What the re-suit of the repeal of the pool ordinance will be remains yet to be seen. Mr. Grat-ton purchased the church property, on which the club house stands, paying, so it is understood, $500. The building put up is not an expensive one, but some recent improvements have been made in the way of a restaurant and sleeping spariments. Since the clubhouse was opened the Sell-wood cars, instead of stopping at the golf links, run up to Milwaukle, and the city treasurer has been greatly enriched by the license fee POPULAR BISMARCK CAPE.-Beginning tomorrow, the Bismarck Cafe, the popu-lar trail restaurant, will add to its already strong attractions the Ladies' Or-chestra, of Chicago. This organization will remain with the Bismarck until the close of the Fair, as will also the Tyrolean singers, who have already contributed so largely to the popularity of this house. The Bismarck continues to hold the patronage of a large majority of the Fair visitors, both by reason of its excellent service and reasonable prices. Wild. Offose Annexation.—Henry Prettyman, of Mount Tabor, who is heading the movement against annexation, says that Rufus Mallory has been retained to contest the recent election. Councilman Edwards at the meeting of the St. Johns Council last night, refused to vacatic his seat, after he had been declared ineligible by the City Attorney by reason of his having disposed of his property. Discussion of his resignation was taken up last night where it was dropped Thursday morning at 12:30 o'clock. For several hours legal authorities were quoted to show that Councilman Edwards was no lenger a member, but he clung to his seat. Mayor King, acting as umpire of the game, declared Edwards out, but Attorney Green said he had no authority to render such a decision, and that the only way to get Councilman Edwards out of the Council was through process of law. Councilman Edwards declared he intended to stay in the game as long as the Mayor, and the matter then went over until the next meeting of the Council.

East Side Residence Devoured by Flames.

FATAL MISTAKE IS MADE

Alarm Sent In From Wrong Box Places Department at Disadvantage and Allows Flames to Gain Headway.

The beautiful residence of C. B. Lindsley, Twenty-fourth and Multnomah streets, was fotally destroyed by fire which started at 5-25 o'clock last night. The fire was caused by an overturned lamp. The loss is $6000, partially covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsley were in a room in the second story of the dwelling, laying a carpet preparatory to refurnishing the room. A kerosene lamp was sitting on the floor. In some manner it became overturned, and the burning oil immediately spread over the carpet, the room becoming a mass of flames. It was with great difficulty that the occupants escaped without injury. Neighbors became aware of the fire and started to turn in an alarm. Through some mistake, box No. 247 was pulled, at Thirtieth and East Burnsids, on the opposite side of the Burnsids, on the opposite side of the gulen from the fire. The department, in responding to the alarm, naturally went to the box, and upon arrival lound they could not cross the gulen and get to the flames. This mistake on the part of those who turned in the alarm aided in the de-struction of the house, as the apparatus had to drive back to Twelfth street before the guich could be crossed, much time thus being lost. The house was a total wreck before water could be played anying the greater part of the furniture and household effects, which were carried to places of safety. A blackened chimney and charred walls are all that is left of the residence, which was accounted one of the most beautiful in that part of the morning to visit the Exposition. journeyed to the Fair grounds in the af-ternoon and returned to the city about 5 o'clock, as he was fatigued after his long journey. He missed the restaurant at which he was accustomed to go, and an obliging young man agreed to pilot him there. Before they had walked far the stranger showed Sincock a watch and asked him what he thought of it. As Sincock took the watch a man dressed in a policeman, uniform stepped on and in a policeman's uniform stepped up and placed both under arrest, stating that the watch had been stolen. He agreed to let Sincock go on to the restaurant without the formality of going to the poilce station, if he would put up money for his appearance. Sincock gave the bogus policeman $35, nearly all he had with him.

After dinner Sincock went to the sta-tion to protest his innocence and ask what he should do in the case, and then

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

The Baker's Good Bill. Big audiences have been seeing the all-feature bill at the Baker Theater this week, and its success has been marked. There is a variety of good things in the vaudeville line, and nothing is left out that should be there to complete a good show. The flying Zereldus have an act that makes an audience hold its breath. The three Park Parks and the property of the pr that makes an audience hold its breath. The three Rays have a particularly bright act and Connie Ray whom they feature, is the greatest child artist in vaudeville. This is a notable week at the Grand, where John P. Hill & Co. present "Rip Van Winkle" in a tabloid version. Mr. Hill's portrayal of Joseph Jefferson's character bears favorable comparison with that of the late Mr. Jefferson. Glenroy and Russell are a team with snappy, singery dialogue, brisk dancing and catchy songs. The acrobatic troupe, composed of the Lamonts and Lafayettes, have one of the quickest turns of its kind in vaudeville. They never lag for a moment. La Grecia has an aerial act of superior merit and beauty. For the illussuperior merit and beauty.
