RVINGTON MEET TODAY

Vexed Problem of Poolselling and Captain Spencer's Ultimatum and Sequences Which May Develop in the Game.

Out of the 42 nominations for the ening day handicap, valued at $753 to winner, only six will face Starter Mulholland when he sends the field away this afternoon. Handleapper Horace Egbert in allowing weights will Tocolaw carry 115 pounds. Corn trongly as the winner of the Scattle before the race, is in at the nice reight of 105 pounds. Sea Air will pick up 100 pounds, and Briar Thorpe will carry a feather, $9 pounds. Judge has a weight that he likes, 104 pounds. Before its slated to carry a burden of M6 pounds and at the weights which have been assigned to all the starters they should all finish in a bunch.

The entire card of six races, considering the fact that many of the starters are were not unloaded and stabled at Irvington until late yesterday aftermoon, will be one that will be hard to beat. There are some local favorites on the card, but for the most part they are new to Portland racegoers. The fifth race, the O'Brien Purse, will bring together the class of the sprinters at together the class of the sprinters at the track. Misty's Pride is a starter in this race and she will meet again this Malan and Laidlaw, a pair of the least of thoroughbreds now racing on ast During the 49 days of rac-hish will be held at Irvington, it afte to any that out of the 259 races of easier bunch of sprinters will hook together than those which will face it together than the property of the same of the same of the same than the same of the same of

It is an unfortunate taing for the Portland racing game that this controversy arose at this late date. Captain Spencer at one time was vice-president of the Multnomah Fair Association, and is held that position and was fully cognizant of the fact that there was poolselling at the Irvington racetrack. He also knew when the lease of the track was made out to W. S. Dixon, Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan's nephew, that the mabeth Ryan's nephew, that the chewas to be used for racing, and is pools would naturally be sold into the inclosure. Captain Spencer is this when he agreed to the assument of the Dixon lease to the linoman Fair Association, for before conserted to this he insisted that its given a five-year lease calling the ownership of the betting ring, in what his putcome will be is not own. He declared that if there was sing on the norses at Irvington he used in in the law and stop it, and setting on the horses at Irvington he would can in the law and stop it, and by cross the smul the lease. From the arrange with, which have been going on indications are that the association. intends to start racing this afternoon.
