one of the common Fatherland. They are Germans all born and bred, with the Old World blood running in their veins, and the pride of race flowing strong.

MISMANAGED TRANSPORTATION LINE.

It has been considerably more than a year since the various transportation lines operating out of Portland were satisfied to a certainty that there would be very heavy traffic to and from Portland.

SHOCKING THE HINDOOS.

Bishop Thoburn's closing remarks before the Methodist Congress proclaim him a very Abdiel for courage and lone-ness fidelity to obsolete ideals.

THE MILWAUKEE COUNCIL.

The Milwaukee Council has repealed the ordinance recently passed for the benefit of a bunch of Portland gamblers who had tried to pry the lid from the Milwaukee Council.

LIMIT OF WHEAT PRODUCTION.

The Chicago market scored another remarkable advance yesterday, closing 3 cents higher than on the day previous.

THE GERMAN SOUVENIR FESTIVAL.

After the conventions of doctors, and vaudeville (female), and Methodists, and charity societies, which have come in swift succession, filled our churches and halls, and displayed their badges on our streets, it is something of a relief to welcome these jolly Germans!

previous exports that Europe, in the face of the abnormal strength in the United States, hammered prices down to a lower level than was reached the preceding year.

OREGON OZONE.

T. K. Hedrick writes, in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, this choice new version of an old postcard poem: Mary had a little lamb; Its fleece was white as snow; And she got the darned beast Whitewashed!

MINER SCOTT REACHES NEW YORK.

Metropolitan Adventures of the Man Who Broke the Transcontinental Record—He Tells About His Dog and Visits the Stock Exchange. New York Sun, July 15.

PAUL JONES' SUIT OF MAIL.

Now in New York—Worn in the Fight With the Serapis. Philadelphia Inquirer.

MY RELATIVES.

I've always been an only child And lived with Ma and Pa. And knew I had just one Aunt Kate, But her I never saw.

RELIGION OF JAP LEADERS.

The Herald and Presbyter furnishes queer facts—at least, at first glance they seem queer—in regard to Japan's great Generals and Admirals.

WE GET NOTICE.

The Fair at Portland had an extraordinary patronage during its first month, the admissions exceeding the proportion of those at Chicago or St. Louis.

THOUGHTFUL WIFE.

Washington Star. "She is always thinking of her husband's comfort and peace of mind," said one woman.

WHAT A DAY BROUGHT FORTH.

Columbia (S. C.) State. With the Hon. Benjamin Ryan Tillman pleading against any repeal of "passbook" laws.

SWIFT COMMUNITY.

Chicago News. Tourist—I understand your Western towns are very progressive. Redburn says—Yes, yesterday I got the express boxes of "silly" memory.

for this distinction? What is his record, private and public? Where did he get his political start? These questions are answered fully in an article to be published in The Sunday Oregonian tomorrow.

NEWBERG GRAPHIC SOUVENIR EDITION.

E. H. Woodward and W. C. Woodward, editors and publishers of the Newberg Graphic newspaper, are to be congratulated on the splendid issue of the souvenir edition of that paper, marking its 17th year of public usefulness.
