

CREAMERIES UP AGAIN

City Creameries Advance to the 25-Cent Mark.

FRONT STREET IS FIRMER

Half-Cent Rise Reported in Cheese.

Butter—City creameries advance extra to 25 cents. No change on front street.

EGGS—Much complaint of poor quality of Oregon receipts.

FRUIT—Lemons have advanced tendency.

COFFEE—All low grades firm.

AN ADVANCE, NOT ALTOGETHER UNEXPECTED, OCCURRED IN THE BUTTER MARKET YESTERDAY.

THE LOCAL ESTABLISHMENT THAT LED IN THE PREVIOUS ADVANCE TO 25 CENTS STARTED THE NEW PRICE YESTERDAY, MAKING DELIVERIES AT THAT FIGURE.

THE SHORTAGE SUPPLY OF CREAM, DUE TO THE DRYING UP OF PASTURES, IS THE INCREASING DEMAND FOR ICE CREAM AND THE BETTER MOVEMENT IN THE BUTTER TRADE ARE THE REASONS OF THE UPWARD MOVEMENT IN PRICES.

AN ADVANCE OF 1/2 CENT WAS ALSO MADE IN THE CHEESE MARKET, BRINGING TWINS TO 12 CENTS AND YOUNG AMERICANS TO 13 CENTS.

NEW YORK HOP CROP SUFFERS.

Letter From Grower of That State Contains Discouraging Advice.

"We are having very hot, scorching weather here in the hop crop in New York, some say one-half."

FIRM COFFEE MARKET.

All the Lower Grades Have Stiffened and May Go Still Higher.

THE COFFEE MARKET IS FIRM. ALL THE LOWER GRADES HAVE STIFFENED 1/2 CENT AND ARE NOW FIRMER THAN THEY HAVE BEEN FOR A LONG TIME.

LIGHT SUPPLY ON STEAMER.

Lemons Are Strong and About to Advance—Day's Receipts of Fruit.

Many Bad Eggs Coming.

Bank Clearings.

PORTLAND RECEIPTS.

Grain, Flour, Feed, Etc.

WHEAT—Wheat, 11.50; flour, 1.25.

COAL—Coal, 1.50; oil, 1.25.

No Falling Off in Consumption of Beer, Says the Writer—Money on Hand to Back His Assertions.

PORTLAND, July 24.—(To the Editor.)—In answer to a query statement on the hop situation which appeared in your paper of the 22d, I desire to say that this party for the past several years has made himself conversant with the situation in the East, and a failure as a prognosticator of large crops and low prices for hops.

Severe Slump in Wheat Prices at Chicago.

JULY BREAKS FIVE CENTS

Heavy Profit-Taking Results From Encouraging Crop Advances From Northwestern States—Liberal View of Grain.

CHICAGO, July 24.—A break of 5c a bushel in the price of wheat July delivery occurred here today. At the same time, the September option sold at 34 1/2c. Details of sensational reports of black rust damage to the Spring-crop crop caused the heavy profit-taking that resulted in the sharp decline. The market closed weak with September wheat at 34 1/2c, compared with final quotations of Saturday at 35 1/2c. SHARP DEMAND GIVES NEW YORK MARKET STRONG TONE.

Saturday's Selling Was From Professional Bear Sources and Not Successful—Good Traffic.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The action of today's stock market was strongly suggestive of the inference that the considerable selling which broke prices on Saturday was from professional bear sources, and that it was not successful in depressing stock for the purpose of covering short contracts.
