

MITCHELL WILL BE SENTENCED

Judge De Haven Will Impose the Penalty for Violation of Federal Law.

SENATOR TO FILE APPEAL

Case Will Be Taken Direct to Supreme Court—Maximum Penalty Is $10,000 Fine and Two Years in Prison.

Senator Mitchell, convicted in the Federal court of having used his high office for his own private gain, will stand before the bar of that tribunal this morning at 10 o'clock and learn from Judge De Haven the weight of his sentence. Upon the judgment of the court being rendered the attorneys for the convicted man will immediately appeal the case directly to the United States Supreme Court, the defendant in the meantime resting under a bond of $2,000.

Constitutional grounds are alleged, or will be, for making the appeal to the Supreme Court. It being contended by Senator Thurston that Senator Mitchell was deprived of his rights by the ruling of Judge Bellinger when that jurist decided that the defendant could not have the benefit of a jury in the trial of the plea in abatement which was afterwards argued before him and upon which an adverse decision was rendered. In addition to this it will be contended, as was done in the case of the defendant, that the rights given to a Senator or Representative in Congress by section 6 and article 2 of the constitution will be violated should the judgment of the court be carried out previous to the decision by the court of last resort. It will be contended in this connection that it is contrary to the provisions of the constitution and a violation of the constitutional rights of the defendant for him to be hindered in any way from the discharge of his public duties on any charge not a felony or treason, or for him to be arrested or hauled before any court during the term of his public office. It is stated that the constitution provides that members of Congress shall be free from arrest or detention during their going to or coming from sessions of Congress, or during the sessions, and it will be held that should the judgment of the court be carried out the state will be deprived of representation in Congress, as to the defendant.

These are the grounds upon which the motion for an appeal will be based in the greater part, though once the appeal is granted and the case considered by the Supreme Court, then the writ of error upon which it will be decided, will contain all of the allegations of error to which the defendants took exception during the course of the trial.

Yesterday morning when court was convened Senator Thurston stated to Judge De Haven that he and District Attorney Heney had agreed upon a bill of exceptions which he submitted to the court. The defense would also prepare a short bill of exceptions relative to the decision of the court in regard to the motion for a new trial, and would be ready in the morning to submit it to the judgment of the court. Mr. Heney stated that he and the attorneys for the defendant had agreed upon the bill as stated by Senator Thurston. Judge De Haven told the attorneys that he would examine the documents in his chambers after the adjournment.

Senator Thurston stated to the court and District Attorney to fix the amount of the supersedeas bond, necessary for the defendant to provide, in view of the fact that it had been determined to take the case directly to the Supreme Court upon constitutional grounds. He suggested a bond of $2,000, and this being agreeable to both Mr. Heney and Judge De Haven, the amount was named. It being the wish of the defendant to have it determined in order that he might be ready with it when court was called this morning.

Senator Mitchell appeared in court yesterday with his attorneys and took deep interest in the proceedings. He will be present this morning to hear sentence passed upon him. This sentence is a maximum of two years' imprisonment and $10,000 fine, or both, at the discretion of the court. It is the common impression that no imprisonment will be imposed and that the sentence will be light.

DEATH OF MISS LARSEN

It Follows an Operation for Cleft Palate.

The death of Miss Elsie Larsen, which occurred at Good Samaritan Hospital Sunday morning, following an operation for cleft palate, performed by Dr. G. V. I. Brown, of Cincinnati, has cast a gloom over Scandinavian circles at the Exposition and brought sorrow to hundreds of friends and acquaintances. The Scandinavian day committee, consisting of Carl J. Renhard, John M. Nergis and Gudmund Grill, has drafted resolutions expressing the death of Miss Larsen, who was to have taken part in the programme of Scandinavian day next Sunday. The sympathy of the committee was also extended to the bereaved parents and relatives.

The operation performed upon Miss Larsen, and which was announced as highly successful, was performed during the recent meeting of the Lewis and Clark Dental Congress, and it aroused great interest among members of the profession, as it was the first operation of the kind to be performed in this part of the country. Dr. Brown asserts the operation was a success and that Miss Larsen expired from heart-failure.

TO PROTECT THE ESTATE

G. H. Carlson Sued by Wife to Prevent Squandering of Property.

To prevent her husband, Gustave H. Carlson, from squandering large sums of money, Charlotte A. Carlson has begun suit against him in the State Circuit Court for $12,000, and to obtain possession of two notes of $500 each. In her complaint Mrs. Carlson sets forth that they owned large tracts of land in Chehalis County, Washington, which they acquired since their marriage as a result of their joint labor and industry.

forth that they owned large tracts of land in Chehalis County, Washington, which they acquired since their marriage as a result of their joint labor and industry. In February, 1902, they sold the lands to Alexander and Robert Poland for $20,000, and Mrs. Carlson says she signed the deeds with the understanding that she was to receive one-half of the money, $10,000. The purchasers gave six notes of $2,500 each in payment, and Mrs. Carlson alleges that her husband has already collected four of these notes.

WILL MAKE CLEAN SWEEP

Proceedings Started to Oust Three Officers of St. Johns.

R. H. Greene, City Attorney for St. Johns, has prepared charges against Councilmen Edwards, Treasurer Fred W. Valentine and Marshal Hanks, and will present them tomorrow evening, when an adjourned meeting of the Council will be held. The charges in the three cases are substantially the same, although not involving any moral turpitude or malfeasance in office. Each of the three is charged with causing to be a freeloader as required by section 19 of the charter.

City Attorney Greene addresses his charges to the Mayor and Council of St. Johns, and after enumerating that these three officers have ceased to be freeloader, asks the Council to set a time for their trial to determine whether or not their offices shall be declared vacant. The Council has the power to fill vacancies caused by resignations and removals, and, according to the statute of the state, the Council has the authority to declare the offices vacant and fill them.

DENOUNCES MONOPOLIES.

Richard Cornelius Speaks Upon Portland Consolidated Railway.

About as many men as make up the Federated Trades Council listened last night to Richard Cornelius, president of the Street Railway Employees' Union, of San Francisco, speak on municipal ownership and unionism. The subject under discussion and treated in natural and logical order. Mrs. Florence Kelley, who took a few of the horrifying facts connected with the coal-labor condition in this country, also made an appeal to the union men to ameliorate the condition with their votes. Moreover, she put in a plaining how the women almost alone were fighting this degrading evil.
