TO STOP POOL SALES

Injunction Suit Filed Against Fair Association.

OPEN GAMBLING CHARGED

Bookmaking and Betting on Horse Races, It Is Alleged, Violate Terms of Lease and Constitute a Nuisance.

To prevent the sale of pools at the Irvington Race Track, Elizabeth Ryan and Irving Real Estate Company, by E. W. Spencer, attorney in fact, yesterday filed an injunction suit in the State Circuit Court against the Muitnomah .Fair Association, A. R. Diamond, Sanford Hirsch, August Erickson, Eugene Biazier and Edward Blazier. Judge Frazer issued an order requiring the defendants to appear before him this morning at 10 o'clock to show cause why a temporary restraining order should not be issued. Only two notices were issued to and served by Sheriff Word. These were to A. R. Dramond and Sanford Hirsch.

complaint recites that Elizabeth Byan and the Irving Real Estate Com-pany, on November 1, 1960, leased the race track to W. S. Dixon for five years, and thereafter the lease, with the consent of the lessors, was transferred to the Multnomeh Fair Association.

In violation of the agreement, it is alleged, the lesses is now using the premises to keep open gambling houses and places where people resort for gambling purposes, and for the purpose of selling pools and making books and betting on horse races.

It is alleged that such conduct of the premises by the defendants constitutes a nuisance and renders the lessors liable for prosecution and fine, and greatly impairs prosecution and fine, and greatly impairs the value of their property. It is further averred that A. B. Diamond is president and manager of the Multnemah Fair As-sociation, and that he and Sanford Hirsch, August Erickson, Eugene Blazier and Ed-ward Blazier are agents of the Multnomah Fair Association in opening, keeping and carrying on the various forms and de-vices of gambling, and have a share in e pecuniary profits thereof. making books, selling pools and enticing or persuading other persons to gamble at the track. Henry E. McGinn and R. W. Montague appear as attorneys for the Whitney L. Boise, representing the defendants, arrested late Tuesday af-ternoon by Sergeant of Police Hoge-boom, on a warrant from the Police Court appeared before Municipal boom, on a warrant from the Points Court appeared before Municipal Judge Cameron early yesterday morn-ing and asked until Saturday morning to plead, which was granted him.

ADOPTED SON GETS ESTATE.

But Suit Is Brought to Prevent Him From Inheriting $4500 Property.

Yesterday a petition was filed in the County Court by H. H. Turner, adminis-trator of the estate of Dora B. Davis, deceased, in which charges are made that Mrs. Lillian C. Parrish, who formerly deceased, in which can be deceased, in which can be deceased, in which conducted a lodginghouse at 250 Harrison street, is endeavoring through deception and fraud to obtain control of the estate of Mrs. Davis, valued at about $4590. Mrs. Davis was the divorced wife of Dr. W. H. Davis, Mayor of Albany, and died in this city two months ago. In December, 1994, els months after the divorce was granted Mrs. Davis came to Portland and made her home at the lodginghouse of Mrs. Parrish. On March 11, 1995, Mrs. Davis adopted Percy H. Kerr, a boy 15 years old, who was a ward of the Boys and Girls' Ald Society. The boy's mother had been committed to the insene er had been committed to the lusane asylum and his father surrendered him to the society. Young Kerr possessed property valued at 1500 and Mrs. Lillian C. Parrish was appointed his guardian by Judge Webster on her petition asking to be vested with such authority. With the death of Mrs. Davis the property she left is inherited by the adopted child, and other relatives with the assistance of H. H. Turner, of Salem, who is the adhad been committed to the fassne H. H. Turner, of Salem, who is the ad-H. H. Turner, of Salem, who is the ad-ministrator of the estate, and J. A. Finch, an attorney also of that city, to prevent Kerr receiving the property, ask the court to set the adoption proceedings aside. The petition filed recites that Mrs. Davis was addicted to the use of morphine, was suffering from an incurable disease, and did not know what she was deing when she adopted Kerr, and did so Geing when she adopted Kerr, and did so at the instigation of Mrs. Parrish. The property of Mrs. Davis consisted of a timber claim in Douglas County valued at $2000, a beneficiary certificate in the Degree of Honor for $1000, a plane and other articles. She is said to have deeded the timber claim a short time prior to her death for a consideration of $25 to a man named Patterson who resided at the house of Mrs. Parrish.
