JUDGE FRAZER'S SHARP REBUKE

Makes Stinging Remarks Concerning the Scalping of Tickets.

OCCUR IN MURRAY CASE

Court Declares That a Man Making a Living by Lying, Deceit and Forgery Is Not Respectable.

"Any man who makes his living by lying and deceit, and forgery, and inducing others to commit forgery is not decent."

These remarks were made by Judge Frazer yesterday at the close of arguments in the habeas corpus case of Charles J. Murray, a ticket scalper, who

Charles J. Murray, a ticket scalper, who is under arrest for violating the act passed by the last Legislature making the ticket-scalping business unlawful.

Arthur C. Spencer, attorney for the O. R. & N. Co. and Dan J. Malarkey, who has been engaged as a special prosecutor in these cases, had just enlightened the court-concerning the practices indulged in by the ticket men who have been holding forth at Sixth and Irving streets. Mr. Scanner and they stole tickets from unforth at Sixth and Irving streets. Mr. Spencer said they stole tickets from unsuspecting travelers by getting them into their places and making false representations, and sold return tickets to persons and had them practice imitating the signature of the original purchaser, so that the ticket would pass. Counsel also told of the attempt to bribe a juror in the Police Court, and said many other things discreditable concerning this class of discreditable concerning this class of scalpers. It was these statements which called forth the rebuke by Judge Frazer after Thomas O'Day, who appeared as counsel for Murray, asked for his release counsel for Murray, asked for his release upon his own recognizance, or upon ball, and proclaimed him a decent man. "If ne has been selling tickets he has had no right to sell, and has practiced lying and deceit of every kind, and committed forgery and encouraged others in the commission of crimes, he is not decent," said the court. "The ordinary business of scalpers is simply lying and deceit, and inducing others to commit fraud. I am not passing on the abstract question if the law is unconstitutional, which is the question involved in this case."

Mr. O'Day objected to the comments by Judge Frazer concerning the defendant,

Judge Frazer concerning the defendant, saying the statement would be published in the newspapers and would do Murray an injustice.

Judge Frazer qualified his statements with the explanation that he did not intend his opinious to apply to the defendant who was merely accused, unless it was proved that he was guilty as had been stated.

Mr. O'Day responded that it was hard to make the public discriminate concerning what was intended.

In arguing the question that the law, was unconstitutional. Attorney O'Day' called attention to the provision making it the duty of railroad-owners or persons operating any railroad to provide every agent who may be authorized to sell any agent who may be authorized to sell any ticket, or evidence of a right to travel, with a certificate setting forth the authority of such agent to make such sale. Further making it uniawful for any person, firm, corporation, etc., not possessed of such certificate, to sell, exchange, transfer or offer for sale the whole or any part of any railroad ticket or pass upon any railroad, whether the same be situated or operated or owned within or without the limits of this state.

Counsel said under this law railroads

Counsel said under this law railroads could authorize certain persons to sell any kind of tickets, transferable or not transferable, and not allow others to sell. any kind of tickets, transferable or not transferable, and not allow others to sell. He contended that anyone had the right to sell so long as he did not defraud anythody. And then the only person he would be amenable to under the law would be the one injured. "Under the law and coursel "you can sell assume the plan of the Co-operative Christian Pederation. Delegates will also be selected at this meeting to represent the law," said counsel, "you can sell any kind of tickets; there is no inhibition, body at the reciprocity convenied for August 16 at Chicago, You can sell them for souvenirs or anything else, but unless you go to a railthing eise, but unless you go to a rail-road company and get a certificate you cannot pursue the business. It is not within the police power of the state to make such a law. A railroad up in Vic-toria can give a man a certificate to sell railroad tickets in Oregon. The business is not declared unlawful in this act, but permissive, allowed by some, and not This right belongs to the people and constitution."

Arthur C. Spencer, in answer to Mr. O'Day, said legislation of this character was within the power of the Legislature and within the police power. He read and within the police power. He from reports of the Interstate Com from reports of the interstate Commerce Commission that the business of ticket-scalping, as conducted, was properly a subject for police regulation, and that ticket scalpers were not a necessity, but were self-constituted middlemen; that the business was hurtful to railroads and the public from a financial standpoint, and in whatever aspect it was viewed was fraudulent alike in its inception and use. Counsel also read extracts showing where the ticket brokers, sold more tickets in Chicago than the railroad companies and were associated together in an organization all over the country.

were associated together in an organiza-tion all over the country.

Mr. O'Day read a decision by Judge Parker, of New York, who held that it did not make any difference who rode on a railroad ticket, the original purchaser or some one else, which three other judges had concurred in, and Mr. Spencer replied that eight judges in New York had up-held a ticket-scalping law. There will be further arguments Monday.

Trall Attractions Attached.

Writs of attachment were served yeterday by Special Constable Waggoner on two places of amusement on the Trail. All the money taken in yesterday by the Klondike & Alaska Mining & Exhibit Company and that of the Roltair Amusement Company was selved to satisfy the claims of J. W. Kenyon against the former company and of Eders. I. Collins against the and of Edgar L. Collins against latter.

The combined claims amounted to little over $100, but not enough mensy was taken by the Constable to satisfy them. Keepers were put over the box offices of both establishments to take care of the funds that were taken in care of the funds that were taken in siter the writ was served. A scramble over the possession of the money in the Alaska Exhibit took place between the Constable and the superintendent of the work. Suits were brought to re-cover amounts alleged to be due for labor performed.

Tries to Pass Opium Into Jail.

Dick Williams a colored man, who tried to pass optum into the County Jail yesterday afternoon, was caught in the act by Jailer Grafton, and was locked up. A complaint will be filed against him in the Justice Court. Williams endeavored to silp Dalay Morrison, who is held for larcety, a package containing a quantity of the drug. The District Attorney immediately filed an information in the State Circuit Court against Williams, and he was arraigned and pleaded not guilty in the face of positive evidence against him. He will probably change his mind upon due reflection; if not, he will have to remain in the County Jail awaiting trial. The lowest fine is $50.

Says He Was Buncoed.

T. R. Stevenson, a prosperous Idahe farmer, who alleges that he was buncoed farmer, who alleges that he was burcoed into paying $17.16 for eyeglasses to an agent of the Walter Reed Optical Company, at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, filed sult yesterday morning in Justice Reids court for $120 damages. According to the complaint, Stevenson alleges that the agent represented that unless new glasses were profured tha sight of one eye would be lost. After investigation, Stevenson says that he found that he had been buncoed, and he now desires to show the company up in its true light before the company up in its true light before Elderly Man Loses Memory.

John M. Milner, SI years old, who has suffered a complete lapse of memory, was committed to the insane asylum yesterday by Judge Webster. Milner was arrested in the Union House, where he had wandered, and when questioned by the officer, could not tell where he came from or anything about himself except that he was a tailor and once lived in Ohio. When examined in the County Court, he said he did not know if he had a wife or children, or any relatives or friends.

Will Announce Trail Decision.

Judge Frazer will announce a decisio this morning in the case of Homer Daven-port and others against the Lewis & Clark Exposition Corporation. This will determine whether or not the Trail can remain open Sundays.

Sells Tobacco to Minors.

John J. Conboy, for selling tobacco to minors, was fined $5 by Judge Frazer yes-terday, which he paid. The authorities are determined to enforce the anti-cigarette law to the letter, and several more

FOR ORIENTAL EXHIBIT.

Board of Trade Desires to Acquire

Philippine Display. It is probable that the Philippine ex-hibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair, housed in the east wing of the Government building, and which is a portion of the War Department exhibit, will be retained in Portland as a permanent exhibit of the resources, products and possessions of the Oriental archipelago over which the sovereignty of the United States extends. Charles L. Hail, United States extends. Charles is rain, in charge of this portion of the War Department display, has written to commercial bodies of the various cities of the Coast, offering the exhibit for $5000, considered about one-fourth of its value, and to repay a part of the cost, expense of transportation and maintenance here. Yesterday afternoon, at a meeting of the executive committee of the Portland Board of Trade, the subject was considered and the matter referred to the committee on Oriental trade. It is probable that on Oriental trade. It is probable that the question will be taken up of com-bined action of the various commercial bodies to retain the exhibit if decided that it is desirable to do so.

There was a full meeting of the executive committee and various questions of importance were considered.

A. H. Devers, chairman of the commerce committee, reported recommending favorable action upon the proposition of the New York Chamber of Commerce for commandal treatment. merce for commercial treaties of re-ciprocity with Germany, France, Swit-nerland, Russia and Austro-Hungary, Wallis Nash, G. W. Allen and J. D. Lee were appointed a committee to frame a resolution on the subject. Wallis Nash. B. Lee Paget, J. B. Laber and Seneca Smith were appointed mem-bers of a new committee created on as-sessment and taxation.

Tuesday next there will be the monthly meeting of the Board of Trade, WAR TO THE KNIFE.

The knife to the hilt. That is the ruth-less command that has gone forth against dress goods prices. Cloaks and suits, slik petticoats, slik walsts, walking skirts and dress skirts and new Pall mannish coats in tan and caster, new box coats and International property of the people and the Legislature cannot give it away to railroad companies. The act is clearly unconstitutional. It is in derogation of the natural rights of an individual, and that is enough to say it should not stand. It is contrary to the constitution of the State of Oregon, and the United States of State of Oregon, and the United States English mohair ulsters, guaranteed rain all standard goods. Reid Is Fruit Inspector.

James H. Beid, a fruitgrower of Mil-waukie, was appointed fruit inspector by the County Court yesterday at the re-quest of the fruitgrowers of Multnomah County. Mr. Reld is fruit inspector of Clackamas County and says he can fill the two offices. The law of 1905 provides for fruit inspectors and forbids the ship-ment of wormy or scaly fruit. The com-pensation is nominal.
