Results Achieved So Far.

As a result of the Jerome crumade to date, George Edward Mills, a lawyer, is in the Reformatory for endeavoring to bribe an assistant district attorney; C. E. Wooten is convicted of fraud in conection with the Rothschild case, and has appealed to a higher court against a nine years' sentence; Armitage Matthews is awaiting trial on a similar charge to that Wooten, and another young lawyer has been sentenced to 18 years for forging a will of an aged woman client.

In the Dodge-Morse tangle three prominent lawyers await trial for conspiracy, Ex-Supreme Court Justice Edgar L. Fursman, Abe Hummel, long the partner of William F. Howe, the greatest criminal lawyer New York City has ever known, Hummel's office.

The latest lawyer to attract Jerome's attention is Joseph M. Deuel, presiding Justice of the Court of Special Sessions, and one of the most applauded of Low's reform appointees. Mr. Deuel has been dragged into the simelight through the ## Restrictions on Judges.

The city charter, by the way, in speaking of the duties of trustees of special sessions, has this to say:

No such justice shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office, nor shall any such justice hold any other public office, or carry on any public business or practice as an atterney or counseller-attaw, in any court in the state, or act as referse or receiver, but such justice shall devote his whole time or capacity, so far as the public interests demand, to the duties of his office. the public of his office

Justice Deuel, when asked to comment upon the charges, said: "I have heard for a week that charges were to be preferred against me. I have nothing to fear, and will meet any accusations at

Dodge-Morse Trio.

The most interesting of the legal prosecutors, however, are those growing out of the Dodge-Morse case. Justice Pursman was regarded as one of the ablest jurists in the state courts, and resigned, simply because the judicial salary of what he could make in private practice. It might be mentioned that every law yer whom Jerome has prosecuted has been promptly convicted by the jury, and this is one reason why the legal lights who are still awaiting trial are in no great hurry for vindication. Nor was it right to treat a neighboring nation, which, notwithstanding all the blows which adverse fortune has given it, is still a proud nation, with so little tenderness and consideration.

Perhaps the most interesting passage in the undelivered speech of M. Jaures on peace and Socialism is as follows:

What deeply wounded French feeling, what revolted all Frenchmen, from the Socialism to the Conservatives, was the pretention asserted by certain newspapers and chrisin professors to make France a kind of hostage if a conflict occurred between Germany and England. What would be intolerable is that our country should be expected to break with England and to denounce the pact of good harmony which it had concluded with her. ## Lively Debate on Choice of Site for Colony.

Issue Drawn Between Tract in East Africa, Offered by England, and Palestine-Delegates Fight in Halls of Congress.

HUNDRED WISH TO SPEAK

ways and stairways. This caused a scene of angry gesticulation. Blows were exchanged, and the police interfered and cleared the stairways.

The congress held a lively session over the special order of the day for the establishment of a Zionist colony in East Africa. Messrs. Warburg and Greenberg reported the details of the result of the expedition for the examination of the land offered for colonization by the British government. Mr. Greenberg proposed a vote of thanks to the British government, Israel Zangwill urged the acceptance of the British proposition, provided the unhealthy tract upon the plateau of Guasso Ngischu, comprising 5000 square miles, he replaced by a more favorable location. Sir Francis Monteflore warmly contended for Palestine as a more proper site for col-Palestine as a more proper site for col-

Owing to the interest aroused in the colonization, over 100 orators have re-quested to be heard. The organization committee sought to restrict the debate to four orators. Dr. Syrkin, of Paris, offered a resolution providing an unlimited de-bate, which was defeated by a large majority. Thereupon a small group began a noisy demonstration, compelling Presi-dent Nordau to close the session amidst a scene of general agitation.

At the afternoon session discussion on the colonization scheme was resumed and a number of conflicting proposi-tions were discussed. Mr. Cowan, of London, and M. Leon, on behalf of the American delegates urged that Great Britain's offer of a tract in Uganda be declined. They expressed their conviction that Great Britain, having recog-nized Zioniam, would give her aid in securing a tract in Palestine or that vi-cinity. Other eneakers argued strongly in favor of the acceptance of the Brit-ish offer after a further survey of the Uganda territory.

The Congress thereupon resolved to designate four speakers each to be al-lowed a half hour for explanation of the divers views held on the question. The vote aroused a rather turbulent demonstration on the part of the minor-ity, which, however, President Nordau eventually pacified by a promise to ex-tend the speakers' jime limit. The dis-cussion will be resumed and, it is be-lieved, concluded with a special sestomorrow morning.

"ORRINE"

ABSOLUTELY SAPE, SURE AND HARMLESS

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued in luigence in whisky, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membrane.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

BERLIN, July M.—The leading Socialist papers publish in extenso the speech which M. Jaures would have delivered had Prince von Buelow not frustrated this intention by his note to the German Ambassador in Paris. Apart from its Socialistic coloring. M. Jaures' speech would have been an eloquent plea for international peace. He claims for his party in all lands that it is mainly gwing to their efforts that the idea of peace is permeating the world, and he looks forward to the time, rapidly approaching, when war will be impossible without the consent of the proletariat. Speaking as a Frenchman, he claims for his party that they have relinquished all idea of a war of revenge against Germany. Until, he says, the possibility of a war between France and Germany has been eliminated from the calculations of European statesmen, there can be no peace in Europe. M. Jaures wittes in severe terms of the diagonal states which the alliance with Russis has brought on France, especially in the Far East, where France did mental service for the Case's government in its greedy and foolish policy.
