With White River Flour is noticeable at once for its whiteness and its fine texture. Try it and you will remark first. It is the eye-foolish appetizing. Then when you taste it you'll notice a delicate flavor and a certain fullness to the digestive processes that is acience delicious and satisfying. It pleases the palate.

And lastly, it is more wholesome and nutritious. More easily digested, the blemis in the process of making White River Flour having been freed from certain oil properties common to other hard wheat flours, by treatment with "lighted salt." rendering it easily accessible to the digestive juices. It pleases the stomach.
