

MAN RUNS AWAY; SHOTS AT BOYS

Empties Revolver Into Crowd,
but Fails to Inflict Injury.

WOMAN PLACED IN DANGER

While Placing Baby in Hammock,
One of the Bullets Narrowly
Misses Her Head—Police
Make Arrest.

While intoxicated Joe Whiting, aged 35 years, who resides in Fulton, emptied the contents of a .38-caliber revolver at a crowd of small boys yesterday afternoon, one of the bullets narrowly missing the head of Mrs. F. C. Resley, who was putting her baby to sleep in a hammock near the scene. Whiting was arrested by Patrolman Keller and incarcerated in the City Jail on charges of drunkenness, disorderly conduct, carrying concealed weapons and discharging a firearm in the city limits. Charges of assault with intent to kill may also be placed against him today.

According to the report of the affair made to the police, Whiting became intoxicated early yesterday and began to act mean. He passed a crowd of small boys and became incensed because they did not get off the sidewalk and let him pass quickly enough to suit him. Without a word of warning he drew the revolver and began to shoot at the boys, who scattered and ran away. He followed them a short distance, shooting until his ammunition was exhausted.

Mrs. Resley was placing her baby in a hammock. She turned to see what was going on as she heard the firing, and as she did so one of the bullets passed within a few inches of her head. She immediately communicated with police headquarters, and Keller was instructed to look for the man. He placed him under arrest a few minutes later, but not without some show of resistance from Whiting. Those who witnessed the shooting declare it was marvelous that some of the boys were not killed or injured seriously.

ORMONDE IS TO LEAVE

Leading Man of Belasco Company
Goes to New York Soon.

Eugene Ormonde, the popular leading man of the Belasco Stock Company, who has attained a very large Portland following during his stay here, will leave soon for New York, where he will, after a brief vacation, commence rehearsing the leading role of Blanche Bates' new play.

Mr. Ormonde came here first last winter as leading man in "The Darling of the Gods," and created such a favorable impression that the Belasco management secured his services at the opening of the stock season. He being under contract with David Belasco to play leads with Miss Bates, his work will take him from Portland shortly to prepare for the long New York engagement of the new Bates vehicle, as yet unnamed. It is understood that the new play gives Mr. Ormonde a fine opportunity, and it seems certain that he will repeat his former successes on Broadway.

The local public will greatly regret his departure, for his work has been so uniformly excellent with the Belasco Company that he has been early missed. Personally he has also made many friends here through his fine social and intellectual qualities.

Manager Sackett, of the Belasco, has as yet secured no successor for Mr. Ormonde, but will probably announce the name of one of the best leading men in the United States within a short time.

PORTLAND TO THE SEA

Grand Ride Down the Columbia on the Lurline.

From Portland to the great Pacific on the Columbia River, a ride never to be forgotten. Once it was made in a frail canoe, now on the swift, comfortable steamer Lurline, which makes daylight runs to Astoria.

Every day, except Sunday, the Lurline leaves the Taylor street dock at 7 A. M. No one has seen the Pacific Coast until he has ridden on the Columbia.

Meteorite to Be Shown at Fair.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 31.—(Special.)—An order was made by Circuit Judge McBride, directing Sheriff Shaver to turn over to the Oregon Iron & Steel Company the celebrated meteorite, the ownership of which, the Supreme Court has just decreed, rests with the corporation on whose land it was originally discovered as against the claimant, Ellis Hughes.

Attorney Linthicum, representing the steel company, states that the molten mass will be conveyed immediately to Portland, where it will be exhibited at the Exposition.

Spangler's Condition Worse.

The condition of Louis Spangler, who was injured at the Fair grounds some time ago while being tossed in a blanket by militiamen, was said to be worse at St. Vincent's Hospital last night. An operation may be decided upon within the next 48 hours.

The Denver & Rio Grande has established through Pullman standard sleeping car service between Portland and Denver, leaving Portland at 8:15 P. M., spending seven hours in Salt Lake City second day and arriving in Denver afternoon of following day. For reservations call at 124 Third street.
