International Exposition Planned for Next Year.

right."

The official notice of the New Zealand International Exhibition, to be held at Hagley Park, Christ Church, New Zealand, has been issued, and contains valuable information to those who may wish to visit the exhibition. The date of the opening will be November 1, 1906, and the exhibition will continue until the fact week in April, 1907. The object of the exhibition is educa tional, and is intended to demonstrate the resources and possibility of the colony as one of the world's food producers, fac tors to show its vast mineral resources and to draw attention to its wonderful scenery and to the opportunities offered to

Perhaps the orincipal object will be to bring before the world the great opening for industrial enterprises in New Zealand and to induce capital to turn that way. Invitations have been, or will be, set to all governments to participate in the exhibition, which is expected to be world-
