

GAMMANS IS IN THE RACE NOW

Friends Urge Appointment as United States District Judge.

JUDGE BEAN, OF SALEM, TOO

Senator Fulton Says Nothing as to Recommendation, and United States Attorney Heney Is Not for Anyone.

Gordon G. Gammann, of the law firm of Gammann & Malarkey, of Portland, may be the next Federal Judge for the District of Oregon, to fill the place left vacant by the death of Judge Beiliger and the resignation of W. W. Cotton, the appointee, provided his friends are able to convince the Department of Justice and the President that he is the man for the place.

Mr. Gammann is a man who has just come into the race, but he is recognized by those who know him to be an eligible man for the position. He is a man of legal mind and judicial temperament, and of experience. Many friends in Portland and throughout the state are interesting themselves in his behalf, and have hopes that he will be prominently in the running when the end of the course is reached.

Judge Bean, of Salem.

Judge Bean, of Salem, is still being placed before the department by his friends throughout the state. Hence the first telegrams were sent out, some days ago, from Portland lawyers, others have been written in different districts, and, after being signed by many of the prominent lawyers and business men of the city, have been sent to the President and the department.

Senator Fulton was in the city yesterday and the day before, and it is thought that he was here to investigate the Judgeship question more than he has done before, but he left the city without making any statement on the subject.

It is commonly supposed that United States District Attorney Heney will have a great deal to do with the appointment of the Judge to sit upon the Federal Bench in Oregon, but Mr. Heney says he wishes to keep his hands off. It is argued that Mr. Heney has a great deal of influence with President Roosevelt, and that his recommendation would make or mar the chances of any candidate.

Heney Takes Different View.

Mr. Heney takes a different view of the question, however. He does not want to take any hand in the appointment one way or the other, so long as a good and capable and reputable man is named for the place. The District Attorney argues that it is an Oregon position, and it is of interest to Oregon and the people of the state. The official, when he is appointed, will be an Oregon man, who will deal with Oregon problems, and for all of these reasons Mr. Heney contends that it is not the place of some one from California, or any other state, to dictate in any degree who shall be the man to fill the office. He will, therefore, keep out of the discussion, and will take no part in any way, unless the man who is ultimately about to be chosen is someone unfit for the place. In that event, Mr. Heney would consider it to be his duty to interfere in the appointment and to advise the President that an unfit man was about to be given the place.

No one in Portland seems to know a thing new about the controversy, and it is not expected that any disclosures will be made until the time comes that the appointment will be made by President Roosevelt and Attorney-General Moody.

USES AIR-SLACKED LIME

Resident Suggests Defense Against Ravages of the Army Worm.

The army worms that are ravaging sections in Eastern Multnomah County, have invaded the gardens of Portland. Francis D. Morrison, of Woodlawn, reports that a swarm of the worms went through his garden one night last week, laying it completely bare. Fuchsias were also attacked. In Brooklyn several gardens have been attacked, but in one place on East Ninth street a lot of unstacked lime saved a garden after one portion had been attacked and destroyed.

A resident of Brooklyn noticed that beans were withering and that the leaves were being riddled, and also that tomato plants were not thriving. He procured a quantity of lime, allowing it to become air-slacked, and he covered the plants and the ground with it, with the result that the untouched portion of the beans were saved and the tomato plants soon revived and are growing finely.

RAZING A PIONEER CHURCH

Jefferson-Street Edifice Withstood Big Fire of 1873.

Workmen are engaged in tearing down the old Congregational Church, at the northwest corner of Second and Jefferson streets, which was erected about 35 years ago. It is a frame structure with a tall steeple, and recently has been used as a meeting place for independent religious denominations. This building is one of the few which withstood the disastrous fire in August, 1873, which devastated Front, First and Second streets, in that neighborhood. The timbers will be used to erect a new structure at the corner of First and Hall streets, the building permit for which was issued yesterday, and which is to be erected at a cost of $150.
