WORMS CAN'T STAND SALTPEPER—J. C. Rasmussen, a farmer and berry raiser living on the Rose Lane Road, says that the army worms are not so thick in that district as in the Columbia Slough country, but there are more than enough.

CHILD TRAVELS ACROSS CONTINENT.—Lucille Wooddy, 10 years old, is on the way to Portland from Memphis, Ark., to make her home with her aunt, Mrs. C. H. McCullough, 354 Williams avenue, and is expected to arrive today. The little girl's father died in June, her mother having died some time ago. It had been arranged that she should make her home with Mrs. McCullough on the death of her father, and she wrote her aunt that she was intending to start. However, Mrs. McCullough did not know where to look for the child to arrive until she read in The Oregonian that Lucille had left Kansas City, and will watch for her little niece.

WHIPPED BY FORMER HUSBAND.—Mrs. Augusta M. Hayes, of 566 Dekum avenue, whose face and body are badly beaten as the result of a whipping administered by her former husband, Joseph Hayes, Thursday night, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital yesterday afternoon from the woman's ward in the City Jail by orders of Assistant City Physician Slocum. On the advice of Chief of Police Gritzmacher, Mrs. Hayes swore to a complaint against her former husband, charging him with assault and battery and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

CALL TO SILVERTON.—Rev. Albyn Esson, pastor of the Rodney-Avenue (Albina) Christian Church, has accepted a call to the Christian Church, of Silvertown. Mr. Esson has been pastor of the Rodney-Avenue Church for the past four years and has been successful in building up the work in that field. He has already begun his work, and is assisting in evangelical work in Silvertown. The pastor has many warm friends. His main work at the Rodney-Avenue Church was in paying off a considerable debt and making needed improvements.

MINISTERIAL CONVENTION OPENS.—At the city of tents, the annual Evangelical Convention camp meeting opened at Jennings' Lodge yesterday with a sunrise prayer-meeting in which all the preachers and grounds took part. Regular services were opened at 9 A. M. in the large tent. "The Bible Meaning of Baptism and Infilling of the Holy Spirit" was the topic by Morris Heavilins. Rev. Theodore Shaur, of the Portland German Church, gave an exposition of John xvi.7. In the afternoon and evening revival services were conducted.

DEMANDS DAMAGES.—W. H. Cruise, a minor, by his father, I. C. Cruise, has commenced suit in the East Side Justice Court to recover $75 damages and costs from George Underhill. It is alleged in the complaint that Underhill owned a pair of unbroken bronches, which he hitched to a wagon and placed in charge of an inexperienced boy, while in charge of the youth the horses ran away and collided with a horse owned by the defendant, damaging the animal to the amount sued for.

NEW BOND ELECTION NOT CONSIDERED.—Mayor W. H. King, of St. Johns, said yesterday evening that there had been no consideration of holding a new bond election in the near future, as has been reported. The Mayor feels that the present municipal bonds will be taken by the Chicago bidders, and is awaiting a reply from them. "I have not said anything about another bond election," said Mayor King, "and have no idea where the report originated."

WAS MEMBER OF MULTNOMAH CAMP.—The body of Conrad Winterstein, who was accidentally killed near Astoria, Polk County, was brought to Portland yesterday, and will be sent to New York for interment. He was a member of Multnomah Camp, No. 7, East Side. His death was caused by being dragged 200 yards by a goat, having a rope fastened around his wrist and being unable to extricate himself.
