SIWASHES AND ANGELS DIVIDE

Los Angeles, Shut Out in First Game.

Wins the Second.

SEATTLE, Aug. 6 -- Seattle and Los Angeles took a game each at Recreation Park this afternoon. The local team won out in the first match. Charlie Shields and Baum broke even on hits in the first and Baum broke even on hits in the met game, each getting touched up for four. In the last game the Scattle team was broken up as Biankenship was taken out and Frary brought in from first to catch.

The attendance increases every day, and so do the amusements and matters of interest. Every time you come to the grounds you will see something to delight you. And the cost is trifling compared to any other amusement resort on earth. If you cannot come during the daytime, try one of our rides at night on the O. W. P. & Ry. Co. It costs 5 cents to the entrance-to cents to get in. The entire Coast is familiar with what there is to enjoy at "The Oaks." Next Monday we will open a "Penny Arcade."
