

HOWLING THUGS
GOV. HURT VOTERS

Chicago Federation of Labor Is Again Unable to Hold an Election.

POLICE GUARD PRESIDENT

Only Seven Votes Were Cast, When the Demonstration Becomes So Violent That Dold Adjourns the Session.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—Although the Chicago Federation of Labor suffered the humiliation of summoning the police to guard its ballot boxes against its own members, the minority, or "machine gang," prevented the election today. This is the second failure to hold an election.

On the former occasion a gang of sluggers invaded the hall, held up the judges at the point of revolvers, destroyed the ballots and left President Donnelly for dead upon the floor of the hall. The same element dominated affairs today.

Notwithstanding the fact that President Charles Dold, representing the decent and law-abiding element of the Federation, the largest labor body in the West, had a majority of the votes with him and the police to protect him, he was shouted down and terrified into non-action by the howls, hisses and threats of the violent minority.

Dold's Life Is in Danger.
Briefly, President Dold has been informed that unless he submits to the demands of the sluggers and suffers them to run the Federation, he will meet Donnelly's fate. "Dold says:
"My life is not worth a copper if I oppose the gang or talk about the Donnelly raid."

Notwithstanding that more than a dozen persons identified the sluggers who destroyed the ballots and assaulted President Donnelly, not one will give any testimony that will lead to the capture of the thugs. All of them admit they would sign their own death warrant by doing so.

A great principle, involving labor interests the entire country over, is involved in the Federation election here.
If the sluggers and grafters are able to secure control here, they can extend their methods to all other cities. The unions are in the deplorable position of having built up and maintained a gang of professional sluggers and thugs, from whom they must now ask police protection, fearing to give the authorities any information that would lead to the disruption of the gang.

Monster Beyond Control.
The unions have on their hands a modern Frankenstein monster, of their own building, which now threatens the life of the Federation and any members who may oppose its dictates. Before another session is called it is proposed that "influence" will be brought to bear upon President Dold and others who stand for law and order, which will induce them to step aside and let the gang run the machine.

Probably four-fifths of the delegates assembled were ready to deliver a rebuke to the murderous band of sluggers which prevented the holding of an election July 16, brutally assaulted Michael Donnelly and destroyed the ballots that had voted today to hold an election immediately, and seven votes had been cast, when President Dold was compelled to adjourn the session because of the threatening attitude taken by a howling crowd gathered before the ballot box.

Fight for Control Unsettled.
The fight for control of the federation remains to be settled, for the events of today only served to intensify the bitterness existing between the factions and temporarily to delay the movement described by the Dold element as a purifying process.

The Dold following found keen satisfaction from the fact that the delay-cation has been confined to the capital U, which is replaced by V. It is true that two or three centuries ago a and v were interchangeable; in fact there was a time when the usage was pretty uniformly the opposite of the present, so that, e. g., "virtue" would have been printed "ulrve." It is needless to inquire how the change came about which has resulted in the modern usage; but if one is crazy to introduce the antique usage he ought to be thorough, and not only put v but u for v. Then we should have, "VESUVIUS," whereas the modern had gives us "VESUVIUS." This craze seems to have been raging badly some 30 years ago, and as a consequence we find in the Boston Public Library, in the names of distinguished men on the walls of the building inside and outside, u uniformly put for u, and the headquarters of the Congregational denomination in Beacon street is not a "HOUSE," but a "HOVSE." There would be just as much sense in putting J everywhere for G and a similar excuse for it, so that
"MILTON" would be printed "MILTUN."

The next hour Chinatown was the scene of the wildest excitement.
When the five policemen managed to force their way into the theater they found five men lying in pools of blood and a score more being under benches.
In a short time the reserves from Elizabeth street and other stations arrived.
Two ambulances were called and the men most dangerously hurt, four of them, were hurried to the hospital. Three of them died soon after reaching the hospital.

A squad of police hastened to the headquarters of the Hip Sing tong, where they arrested three men in the building and found four others hiding on the roof.
A little later Mock Duck, alleged to be the leader of the Hip Sing tong, was arrested. The detective continued to make arrests of Chinamen until more than 30 were in custody. Two of the men arrested in the Hip Sing tong headquarters were taken to the hospital and it is said were identified by the wounded as having done the shooting.

CRUSHED IN A COAL MINE

TWO KILLED AND EIGHT IN-JURED IN WYOMING.

Section Falls From Overhead, Pinning Miners to the Floor of the Stope.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 6.—A special to the Tribune from Cumberland, Wyo., says that two men were killed, two severely and six slightly injured in an accident at Mine No. 1 of the Union Pacific Coal Company.

The dead—Joseph Anderson, James Sellers. The seriously injured—Joseph Corrigan, back broken; Frank Sabella, back broken.
Thomas Evans, John Miller, William Wilcox and three others were slightly hurt. All of the injured were sent by special train to the hospital at Rock Springs.

The mines were not working, but a small force of men was at work clearing up the wreckage. There was a coal pile head that was considered unsafe. The men had just fired a blast, shooting a quantity of it down, and had started to shovel it into pit cars, when another section of coal, 15 feet long, 4 feet wide and 30 inches thick, fell from above, crushing the men to the floor.

Sellers was about 32 years of age, and left a wife and five children. Anderson was 27 years of age, and left a wife and two small children.

SILLY "LETTERING."

Misuse of Letters That "Once Were the Same."

Boston Transcript.
If the English alphabet were a living and reasonable thing it would long ago have cried out against the abuse to which it has been subjected of late years. Every letter has a sort of individuality; it has a form of its own and an expression of its own. The form may vary, but the human form varies; the letter may be slender or squat; it may be thick in its members, or thin; still, just as in the case of the human form, it has indefinite variations, there is a general type which is instantly recognized. This, at least, is the normal state of the case.
Letters exist for the sake of the words that are made out of them; and words exist for the sake of expressing thought, and the sooner one can get from the visible symbols to the thoughts the better.
Familiarity and familiarity in the form of the letters is therefore an urgent desideratum. Any striking change in the form of the letters distracts the mind; any distortion of the letters which disturbs the ready assimilation of them, though designed to be expressed by them is both an injury and an insult to the reader.

Within the last ten or 20 years, however, the English alphabet has become a sort of mania for torturing the alphabet.
This craze for novelty for novelty's sake deals chiefly with the capital letters, but the small letters are spared the others. The distortion is called "aesthetic," and is regarded as an adequate justification of any mangling performance that any fool may choose to perpetrate.

The good, old-fashioned letter, as placed on the forehead, on one arm, or on one leg made twice as long as the other.
Besides senseless alterations of the form of the letters, we find some of them condemned to an inclined position, while the others remain upright; this holds especially of the small a, s and o. What the wit, wisdom or grace of this complexion has been confined to the capital
we find in the Boston Public Library, in
walls of the building inside and outside,
ters of the Congregational denomination
in Beacon street is not a "HOUSE," but
much sense in putting J everywhere for

CHARITY HAS THEME

Roosevelt Delivers Lay Sermon at Oyster Bay.

NO ANNOUNCEMENT MADE

Christian Brotherhood Is Addressed at Methodist Church on Subject of Sound Character Building—Bible Quoted.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 6.—President Roosevelt, late this afternoon, delivered a lay sermon to the Christian Brotherhood of Oyster Bay. He emphasized especially the necessity of sound character-building, holding that high moral character was the real essence of Christian life.
The organization before which the President spoke is a unitarian body composed principally of the male members of the several local churches. The meeting was held in the Sunday-school room of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Several weeks ago, an invitation was extended to the President to address the Christian Brotherhood, and he promised to accept the invitation at some later time.
He notified the committee last night that he would make a promised address today, stipulating that no previous announcement should be made of his intention to speak.

About 250 persons attended the meeting this afternoon, and practically all of them were surprised when President Roosevelt appeared on the floor. The President carried his Bible, and in beginning his address read selections from the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John, the Corinthians and the Epistle to James.
No verbatim report of the address was made, but the President tonight dictated the following as the substance of his remarks:

"Brother Bowman has spoken of the fact that I have had a large experience.
I think that each one of us who has a large experience grows to realize more and more the essentials of experience are alike for all of us. The things that move us most, the things of the home, of the church, the intimate relations that knit a man to his family, to his close friends, to his neighbors, by his God, are in his essentials just the same for one man as for another, provided the man is in good faith trying to do his duty.

"I feel that the progress of our country really depends upon the sum of the efforts of the individuals acting by themselves, but especially upon the sum of the efforts of the individuals acting in associations.
I like this sort of association for the betterment of the communities in which they dwell. There is never any difficulty about the forces of evil being organized. Every time that we get an organization, we are met by forces which are striving for good, an organization like this, we are doing our part to offset and a little more than offset the forces of evil.

"I want to read several different texts which it seems to me have special bearing upon the work of brotherhood like this, upon the spirit in which not only all of us must try to do our duty, but that all of us who strive to be decent Christians are to apply our Christianity on week days as well as on Sundays.
The first text is from the first chapter of the eighth, 11th and 13th verses:
"First—Judge not, that ye be not judged. Ye shall not give them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 11th, 'Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. 13th, 'A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.'

"Judge not, that ye be not judged—that means that ye shall not give them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 11th, 'Even so every good tree bringeth forth good
tree bring forth good fruit.'

"Let us ever remember that not only we have divine authority for the statement that by our fruits we shall be known, but that also it is true that mankind will tend to judge us by our fruits. It is an especially lamentable thing to see ill done by any man who from his associations with the church, from the fact that he has had the privileges of the teachings of the Christian religion, should be expected to take a position of leadership in the work for good.
The next quotation I wish to read to you is found in the 25th chapter of Matthew, 27th to 29th verses, inclusive: 'Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee, or thirsty, and gave thee drink?
When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in, or naked and clothed thee?
When saw we thee an stranger, or naked, and clothed thee? When saw we thee in prison, and came unto thee, and King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.'

many fine pianos that have served but little use. Every one of these instruments is now offered at prices which we are sure will dispose of them within the next few days. We are anxious to cash up any instrument will be sold on easiest of quainted with the actual conditions of our people than any other living man, who,

that the future welfare of this country, and indeed, of others which might be depends upon whether or no it is possible to retain or to settle upon the soil a fair proportion of its, or their, inhabitants.

One of the chief aims of the government of the highly civilized white na-the land, to multiply the numbers of those modest rural homes where father and mother desire offering for their own sakes and to share their labors and their pleanty.

RURAL HOMES FOR MASSES

Rider Haggard Presents His Cure

"grafting" spirit, the public service will have its share. An occasional bank de-falcation does not tempt bank directors from the application of careful tests of fitness to applicants for employment, or to the abandonment of their methods of promotion. No process of selecting employes can infallibly detect dishonesty or furnish safeguards against yielding to temptation.
Surround the civil servant with checks from brokers for crop estimates and the result will depend on his character, not on his method of appointment.
