* After calling a special session of the City Board of Health yesterday afternoon, Mayor Lane requested its members to tender their resignations, and upon their refusal to do so, peremptorily dismissed them from office. Those directly affected by his action are Drs. Mae H. Cardwell, William Jones and James F. Bell, while it is probable that the dissolution of the present body will be followed by the discharge of Dr. J. C. Zan, City Physician; Dr. H. R. Biersdorff, Health Officer; and those under them, including W. Bentelstacher, Assistant Health Officer; Dr. Sam Slocum, Assistant City Physician; R. Robinson, Superintendent of the City Garbage Crematory, and Jacob Neumelster, foreman. In sport, it is believed that the Mayor Intends to make clean sween, not only of the Board of Health, but of the Water and Park Boards, also, and that this will be done with as little delay as possible. The Mayor gave negative assent to this of the situation in an interview with the Oregonian fast night.

Gives No Reasons.

The Mayor gave no grounds for dismissing the board other than that Williams administration, and he wished to surround himself with his own associates. Under the charter, he will ing, in addition to filing them with the Auditor. It is significant that immediately preceding the dismissal of the Board of Health, the Mayor held a long consultation with Secretary Stone, of the Y. M. C. A., and several others prominent in Municipal Association circles, although both His Honor and Mr. Stone deny that the visit had anything to do with the case.

While the Mayor's action was unexpected, in a way, it created no real sur-prise, as the members of the board have been expecting to be removed from the moment the new administration assumed the reins of municipal government. Health Officer Biersdorff stated last night, in answer to the information that the board had been ousted from office, that he anticipated losing his job in short order now, although not yet having received any intimation that such would be the It is probable that Dr. Zan has also been marked for dismissal by the Mayor, and that he will put in one of his when it is considered that the seat of government in the City Hall is being almost dally besteged by a hungry lot of office-seekers who are constantly urging the Mayor to do something for them.

When asked whom he intended to ap-point as successors to the Health Board, Mayor Lane last night declared that everything was up in the air at present in relation to the matter, although he would probably be in a position to take the public into his confidence before long, and intimated that he might name them to day some time. He confessed that while several had been alreay selected, that no definite conclusion had as

The chief regret upon the part of the fact of their having to abandon important work in which they had individually become deeply interested. For instance, Dr. Mae Cardwell has devoted a great deal of attention to the question of sanitary conditions as applied to market inspection and the local food supply generally, while Dr. Bell had an especial hobby in bringing the garbage crematory up to a high stand-Dr. Jones has been an efficient membe of the board in many ways. All seem to feel that while there is a certain element of sorrow in being compelled to abandon these important duties, the whole tion is based upon the causes and effects of politics, and all appear to take a philo sophical view in accordance with this idea.

PAVING MATTER IS DISCUSSED

Executive Board Hears Argument as

Scott Brooke was on hand to urge the award to the Warren Construction Com-pany with as little delay as possible, claiming that any further delay in the claiming that any further delay in the proceedings to improve Second street would inflict a corresponding hardship upon property-owners, whom he indicated as being almost a unit in favor of the Warren product. Mr. Brooke is erectiffing a large block at Second and Alder streets. Attorney Dan J. Malarkey, in reply, claimed that the kind of payements to be claimed that the kind of pavements to be put down is decided by the specifications and not by the name of any particular brand. Many of the property-owners, said he, had petitioned the Executive Board for the Barber material on account of the great saving, but had got in too late with their petitions. He gave the names of several Second street owners in support of this idea, and said that his company would use absolutely the same kind of material as that proposed to be put down by the Warren people, and in reply to an inquiry from Mr. Sabin, declared that there were no ingredients in the latter that could not be dupli-

Mr. Pleischner stated that a man nam ed Morrow, who owned fifty feet on ond street, and who had signed the War-ren petition came to him yesterday morning with the request that if they could get the same kind of pavement at a cheaper figure, it was the desire of the property-owners to have it, and it was suggested that a conference of the prop--owners should be called to consider

Malarkey appeared to be considerably wrought up on account of the alleged Barber people were bluffing when they made their hids, and said that they had shown their good faith by depositing upward of $7000 as a forfelt that they would carry out the provisions of any contract awarded them. The attorney did not look upon that as an evidence of

All New Hampshire Pours Into City to Welcome Peace Conference.

DELAYS ARRIVAL

Witte Spends Day in Boston and Travels by Rail, Dodging Curious Crowds-Dolphin With Japanese Due Today.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 7 .- There was great disappointment in this city today over the delay in the arrival of the Russian and Japanese peace envoys. Although notice was promptly given yesterday by Rear-Admiral Meade, of the Portsmouth Navy-Yard, upon learning that the United States warships bearing the representatives of Japan and Russia had been delayed by fog at Newport, the news of the postponement of the functions had not reached many of the citisend of Portsmouth and its environs. Consequently this section of New Hampshire was astir early, and by $ o'clock every electric line from the country was ringing many sightmers.

When the fact of the postponement became generally known, there were many expressions of disappointment, but upon the circulation of the rumors of the posaible arrival of the ships most of the crowd decided to have a holiday, anyway. The postponement of the functions necessitated hurry orders to the state troops, which were to arrive here from all parts of the state.

McLane Busy at Daylight.

Governor McLane was up at daylight dictating telegraphic orders to the troops to remain away until tomorrow, Informa tion was also dispatched to the Congressional delegation of the state, the members of which had been invited to particl.

During the forenoon, Governor McLane, received a telegram from Third Assistant Secretary Pierce at Newport, stating that the Mayflower and Dolphin and the Galvesten, their convoy, would not arrive until Tuesday morning, and the proposed operators in the wireless station had a that the Russian di Dolphin, which has the Japanese envoys on board. Tonight, in answer to the numerous calls, it was said at dark that the Dolphin was off Cape Cod, 75 miles away. She was steaming slowly and those on board thought she would reach the harbor about 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Witte Dodges the Crowds

Mr. Witte arrived in this city tonight from Boston at 11:15 o'clock, coming in a special car attached to the Bar Harbor crowd of several hundred persons assembled at the railroad station, through the train stopping at a crossing about a quarter of a mile from the depot. Mr. Witte was met by Herbert D. Peirce, son of the third Assistant Secretary of State. who, in Russian, informally welcomed the distinguished visitor. Governor McLane's secretary, Mr. Moss, was also present. Three automobiles were in waiting and the party was at once taken to the Hotel

Wentworth, about four miles distant. There was considerable disappointment among those assembled at the station when the distinguished foreigner failed to appear after the arrival of the train. It was soon learned that the Russians had left the train at the crossing and there was a rush toward the street leading to All bridgebuilders in the United States will the Wentworth, but the foreigners were well on their way before the crowd reached this point.

Witte Nails Exaggeration On the way from Boston Mr. Witte ictated the following statement concerning dispatches from Tokio:

I have read the telegram from Tokio that the Japaness captured 30,000 Russian soldiers at the Island of Sakhalin during the recent operations there. Now, so far as I know, the whole garrison in Sakhalin Is-land consisted of no more than 4000. It is a known fact that the Russian soldiers do not surrender, and, if we take into considnot surreneer, and, if we take into consideration that some of the soldlers of the island garrison were killed, then the number of captured could not even reach 4000.

I do not wish at all to minimize the successes or bravery of the Japanese, but at the same time all the people of Russia and the same time all the people of Russia and myself cannot help being surprised at the cables which have reached us during the war from Toklo. According to them, if all the Russian soldiers who have from time the Russian soldiers who have from the to time been reported from Tokio as captured, killed or wounded had in fact been cap-tured, killed or wounded by the Japanese. Russia would not at this time possess any army at all, and then my journey to the United States would be quite superfuous.

KANERO MEETS ROOSEVELT

Reading these cables, a well-known Russian proverb comes to my memory. I might translate it thus: "One can exaggerate, but there is a limit to exaggeration.

Japanese Financier Says Japan Is

The precise nature of his mission is not disclosed, neither he nor the Prestdent caring to discuss it except in general and negative terms. The noble work President Roosevelt has done for peace will be remembered always. It is the prayer of all of us that his efforts may be crowned with success."

"What do you think of the possible result of the peace negotiations?" Baron Kaneko was asked.

"Doubt is expressed whether the envoys can reach an agreement," he replied cautiously. 'The more I read and hear of what Witte and Sato say, the more puzzled I become. I do not think anybody

"What is the feeling in Japan as to a continuance of the war?"

"Oh. I think there is little general sentiment about it. Our people are not seriously concerned, being certain of the ultimate result. Of course, we should like to have peace, but in Japan ther, are no people who desire peace at any price. They are willing that the war should go on, if necessary, and are prepared to fight it out. The Russians, we are told, are too poor or proud to pay the indemnity Japan will sak." "As much as a billion?"

"No, too poor to pay the indemnity Japan will ask," insisted Baron Kaneko. "But who can tell the imdemnity Japan will demand?"

"As I said, nobody but the envoys know what that will be." WITTE'S DAY IN CULCHAW CITY

He Sees Historic Buildings in Automobile Ride.

BOSTON, Aug. 7 .- M. Witte, the senior Russian plenipotentiary to the peace conference at Fortamouth, who landed from the cruiser Mayflower at Newport yesterday, left his apartments at the Hotel Touraine in this city at 9 o'clock today. After breakfast Mr. Wilkenin stated that as the delay to the squadron bearing the other plenipotentiaries would defer their trip to Portsmouth probably until Tuesday morning, M. Witte had decided to seize the opportunity offered by a day's postponement of the conference to see more of the city of Boston and Cambridge. He was particularly anxious, Mr. Wilkenen said, to visit Harvard University

A tentative plan was made, therefore, providing for an automible tour of Boston in the forencon and for a trip to Magnolia after luncheon, returning to Boston in time to take an evening train for Portamouth, which is but two hours' ride by express from this city.

Wireless Message Says They Are

Having Good Passage NEWPORT, R. I. Aug. 7.—The yachts Dolphin and Mayflower, with their con-voys, bearing the Russian and Japanese designers to Portsmouth, sailed from this harbor at 8 A. M. With the exception of M. Witte, who left for Boston by special train last night, the members the Russian and Japanese parties were on board their respective vessels. The fog which hung heavily over Rhode Is-land Sound yesterday and which made necessary the stop at this port, was dispersed by the sun this morning, and the conditions were ideal for con tinuing the voyage to Portsmouth.

Assurance of Reforms Causes Zemstvoists to Change Attitude.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 7 .- The eve of the opening of the all-important negotia-tions at Portsmouth sees a belief in the possibility of peace. Even the hope that the negotiators will reach a peaceful un-derstanding is more prevalent than it was a week ago, and the country and the government are waiting anxiously for a mes-sage from the United States. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 7.-Two large foci of infection were discovered today outside of the city by officers of the Marine Hospital Service. Dr. Corput. went to the Diamond Plantation in St.

The other point of infection is the town of Patterson in St. Mary's Parish, where Dr. Guiteras found 19 cases of secondary infection. Most of these are also Italians. The local health boards have taken charge in both instances and are following out the directions of the Marine Hospital Service.

NEW LIFE IN WAR ON FEVER

Government Takes Control and New

Orleans Raises Funds. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 7.-With the Marine Hospital Service under the authority of President Roosevelt, the Sght to eradicate yellow from New Orleans before frost, took on fresh life today, and with ample funds, the best available talent and an army of willing workers at his back, Dr. J. H. White, surgeonand communicated the news of the President's decision to them. Both pledge all the assistance of themselves forces under them to Dr. White in his undertaking. Dr. White said the transfer of details would be gradual, so that there might be no interruption of the work now in progress. The shifting of authority is expected to be complete to-

Will Publish Daily Reports.

It was announced that the Marine Hospital Service would take up, as soon as the settlement of the details would permit, the receiving and compiling of the daily reports. An impression has prevalled in some quarters outside of New Orleans that all the cases occurring were been entirely unjust, but in order that there may be perfect confidence throughout the country an accurate istical statement is being made daily. Dr. White desires that hereafter these announcements shall be made under Federal authority. In this connection a statement appeared sometime ago in many newspapers throughout the country that, although the New Orleans a total of 50 deaths, the Marine Hospital report had put the figure at more than 200. Dr. White in reply states that no such statement was ever given out by his department; that no such number of deaths had occurred and that the figures carried daily by the Associated Press were correct.

Raising Fund to Fight Fever.

There was a prompt response today to the appeal of Chairman Janvier, of the citizens' committee, for additional sub-scriptions to the citizens' fund to the end of raising the $250,000 desired by the Government. Checks poured steadily into the office of the committee. In addition to this appeal, Mr. Janvier took steps for state ald. When Governor Blanchard came here for conference with Dr. White and the public officials a few weeks ago, he said that, should the situation war-rant it, the state could be depended on to do its share toward furnishing the funds necessary to bring the fight successful finish. Today, Mr. Ja Janvier wired the Governor saying that the emer-gency was hepe and that the state's aid had been pledged to the Government to assist in raising the money desired. As the whole state is interested in the pres-ent campaign, it is assumed that in 24 to 48 hours the Governor will have all the backing he desires and that Louis-iana's contribution of at least $50,000 will be made. Unsolicited checks have been sent here from other parts of the country to the fund, which will be fully sub scribed, it is believed, before it is wanted.

An evidence of the panicky feeling in the country parishes is in the expe-rience of the Cumberland Telephone Company. At Arcadia, La., the man in charge of the office fled when the fever began to spread. Local headquar-ters tried at once to fill the position. but Arcadia refused to permit a man to come to work. It declines to take a man from Meridian. The consequence has been that business has been sus-pended.

A similar state of affairs prevailed at Baton Rouge, where a manager has at Baton Rouge, where a manager has gone and where a rigid quarantine prevails. The Baton Rouge exchange served much of the surrounding country and that section will be without presented Mr. Sullvan with his presented Mr. Sullvan with his presented Mr.

Five Italians fled from New Orleans to this plantation and one after another has taken the fever and succumbed. The vicinity has en thoroughly isolated and disinfected and every precaution will be taken to prevent subsequent infection by means of the mosquito.

Dr. Guiteras, of the Marine Hospital Service, spent the day in Southwest Louisiana investigating reports of sus-

Effect of Federal Control.

Every authority wanted by the Federal Bureau is assured. Adequate police power will be given the Marine Hospital sur-geons to aid them in their scientific work. Dr. White says the municipal laws are sufficient for his purpose. Chairman Jan-viere, of the citizen's committee, will put his forces at the disposal of Dr. White Engines of the fire department are to be made available in flushing and other cleaning work. Local politics are to cut no figure whatever in the situation, and the Government is to have full authority. On the other hand, 10 addition to the work that will be done here, it is expected that all the resources of the Federal Government will be used in securing modifica-tions of the extreme quarantine regula-tions that are now in effect, so that New Orieans will be able to resume commer-cial relations with the surrounding states. The benefit of the Federal control is already evidenced in the favorable condition of the situation shown by interviews will the health authorities in nearby states, and it is thought little difficulty will be encountered in securing a modification of the restrictions against freight. Louisiana parishes are already becoming more reasonable, and most of them are announcing their willingness to receive goods from this city. With revival of business New Orleans can more readily furnish the money needed by the Govern declares that mosquitos are among the greatest curses of mankind. "We are yet in the infancy," he said, "of the discoveries of the transmission of such diseases by insects, but in the matter of yellow fever infection, all credit should be given to the Yankees, who went ahead of our eminent men and demonstrated that the stegomyla was the vehicle that caused all the trouble.

"If there is not, there should be a lay in every state making it a criminal of fense to a high degree to fail to report immediately the prevalence of a case of yellow fever. The slightest attempt at concealment by a physician should be followed by summary puntshment."

Kaiser Will Warn Edward to Calm British Frenzy Against Germany.

WILL MEET AT FRANKFORT

Serious Consequences Feared From Growing Animosity, Lead by King Edward-German Attitude to America.

BERLIN, Aug. 7.-(Special.)-If the Kaiser meets King Edward next week at Frankfort, he will, according to authority here, tell his uncle that, while Germany does not want war with England, nevertheless the present atmosphere of mutual hatred, jealousy and suspicion must be destroyed or Europe will remain in danger of an explosion. King Edward will be given to understand that Germany holds England responsible for the creation of this situation. The correspondent of The Oregonian is informed that the consequences to which the present situation may lead are now causing Germany's responsible Statesmen the deepest anxiety. These possible consequences filled a large place in the Kaiser's recent interviews with King Oscar of Sweden, with King Christian of Denmark, and with the Czar.

Hatred Grows More Virulent. There have been official attempts to render less apparent and to obscure the eriousness of the situation, but William and his advisers are profoundly concerned over England's constantly increasing hatred of Germany. It is thought that this hatred is now more virulent than ever before Germany accuses the Cape Colony government of lending clandestine support to the rebels in Germany's West African territory, and of hampering in every possible way the suppression of the rebelton, which has already cost Germany 00,000,000 marks ($96,000,000). The august members of the leading English reviews are adduced as additional evidence of the extent of the anti-German frenzy. Edward Greatest German-Hater.

In the light of these facts, the prospective meeting of William and Edward arouses only perfunctory enthusiasm. The Germans know that the British prejudice by the federal authorities, will cope with against them is too deeply rooted to be the fever. In the meantime, business in that section of the state is still at a two monarchs. Apart from the fact that "Germanophobe" in England, it is well understood here that the British monarch has so high a regard for public sentiment that he would not lift a finger in the effort to cause a reapproachment which would be bound to be unpopular with many of his subjects.

Desire America's Good Opinion. It may be said that thoughtful Germans generally are anxious that Americans should guard against judging German policy from the "self-righteous British standpoint." They declare that the British charges to the effect that the Germans have shown meddlesomeness and aggressive intentions are nothing but assertions best contradicted by the unbroken peace which William has enforced for
