Wreckers Again Prevent Federation Election.

LEADERS DROP DISGUISE

Conservative Unions of Chicago Threaten to Withdraw in Disgust -Armed Force May Be Used to Protect Election.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7 .- (Special.)-Disinte gration threatens the Chicago Federation of Labor as a result of the unsuccessful attempt to conduct an election yesterflay—an attempt which ended in a scene of wild disorder. L. B. (Skinny) Madden openly showed himself the leader of the gang accused of holding up the previous election at the muzzle of revolvers and slugging Michael Donnelly. Today trades unionists of the conservative stamp are talking of withdrawing their organiza-tions from the central labor body. Agitation to this end was begun by delegates from the carpenters' which.

Minority Bulldozes Majority.

The meeting of the Federation demonstrated how a minority, aided by wreck-ing crew methods, may rule over the majority. The presence of policemen falled to quell the disturbance and President Dold was forced to declare the meeting ned before the election was fairly under way. This was what Madden and his followers had been working for, Madsupporters were in the minority he wanted to accomplish adjourn-in order to await reinforcements. which will arrive when the delegates from the teamsters' union return from their convention in Philadelphia.

Another effort is to be made August 20 to hold the twice-wrecked election. From what Dold said today, it will be case of organized physical force against Organize Against Sluggers.

"It is my plan," said he, "to appoint 100 special sergeants-at-arms to cope with the 'strong arm men' who doubtless will again attempt to override the chair and run the meeting. We propose to go on with the election. It was demonstrated pesterday that Madden's following constituted an insignificant minority in the Federation, but it was demonstrated, too, that extraordinary measures must be tak-en to preserve the peace. The first step in this direction will be to provide for an executive session and exclude from the hall every man or woman who cannot show a delegate's card. The men who created a disturbance were not delegates and had no business on the floor. They were levee characters allied with L. B. Madden, and hangers-on at 102 Fifth ave

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 7.-The Plaindealer tomorrow will say:
"Orders were issued Monday afternoon from headquarters of the International Association of Bridge & Structural Iron Workers by Secretary J. J. McNamara for a general strike against the American Bridge Company from Maine to Califor-nia. It is estimated that between 15,000 and 20,000 bridge and structural iron. workers will quit work. Bridge work will be tied up in many parts of the country and a number of big building projects will be delayed. The strike will affect thousands in the building industry.

"The general strike, according to Section Wolvers to the output of the country o retary McNamara, is the outcome of trouble between the union and the American Bridge Company over the sub-letting

From Famous Guide.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, D. C., Aug. 7.—Two re-mote descendants of Sacajawes, the mote descendants of Sacajawes, the Indian woman in whose memory a bronze statue was recently erected at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, have been discovered at the Wind River Indian School in Wyoming. Rev. John Roberts, Episcopal missionary at the school, after careful research, has established the identity of two little Indian girl pupils who clearly trace their ancestry back to the woman who acted as guide for Lewis and Clark on their memorable trip of exploration into the Oregon country. Come! Let Us Get Together

Lieutenant-Governor Guild, of Massachusetts, addressed an audience at the south end of Brockton one night, a few years ago, and was followed by the late Congressman Elijah A. Morse, also of the old "Bay State."

A large portion of the audience sat near the door of the hall. Mr. Morse began his speech by urging all to get nearer the platform, and his line of argument, to accomplish this purpose, must have jarred Mr. Guild and admirers of his eloquence.

"Come up and be sociable," urged Mr. Morse. "You see if I speak softly those of you who are in the rear cannot hear me, while if I speak loudly I shall certainly wake up those who are in the front rows."

We've so much to tell you this morning of the host of exceptional bargains awaiting you at the store, that we must beg of you to come down and be "sociable." We cannot control our enthusiasm over the really wonderful values we have to offer this week, so pardon us if we do not speak "softly"-we want to be heard-even by our good competing merchants who are in the back seats and have succumbed to the lassitude of "dog-days." But we cannot tell it all here-better come to the store and be social, if you enjoy bargains in August.

BLACK AND SUMMER SILKS

Better Than Good Values These Splendid Staple Dress Goods Underpriced

THE "FABRIC SALESROOMS"-FIFTH ANNEX, 1ST FLOOR. There's more or less missing from the usual prices of these black silks as well as from the more "seisonable" stuffs. This is very out-of-the-ordinary news, whenever we can tell it, for black silks are staple fabrics, good the year round; and prices seldom vary. One buys a dress pattern (when there's less than usual to pay) to lay aside if not needed at present, for a BLACK SILK IS A SAFE INVEST-MENT—a good one, that is. These today are the standard qualities and makes that we sell year in and year out. There's enough of each for today's selling, we're not so sure about tomorrow.
