MANILA, Aug. 7.—The members of Secretary Taft's party are declining many festivities and are getting down to work. An effort is being made, in the discussion of the needs of the sugar interests, to develop the fact that there are political as well as economic reasons for the stagnation of agricultural interests in the islands.

BLAZING BOATS GO ADRIFT

FIRE SWEEPS ALONG WATERFRONT OF HOBOKEN.

Lackawanna Docks Burned With Two Ferryboats, Hotel and New Immigration Depot.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Inside three-quarters of an hour last night fire swept away the Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company's terminal in Hoboken, seized two ferryboats and practically ruined them and for half an hour threatened the destruction of the entire waterfront in the vicinity.

For over an hour huge tongues of flame leaped from the wooden structure on the Lackawanna docks, lighting the New Jersey and New York waterfronts. For a time it threatened a loss larger than that of the big dock fire of several years ago, when the North German Lloyd piers were destroyed with a great loss of life.

Blazing ferryboats, cut from their docks, floated in the river, wandering firebrands which for a time endangered shipping in the river. The fire started on an old wooden ferryboat and spread in the main building of the Lackawanna at then to the Duke House. The hotel was a frame structure and was a ready prey for the flames.

At 1 o'clock this morning the fire was under control, the big steamship piers had been saved and a rough estimate placed the damage at between $400,000 and $500,000. The flames started from an unknown cause on the old wooden ferryboat Hopalong, which had been tied up in the open slip between the Hamburg-American and the Christopher-street ferry-slips.

The new immigration station, which was built of brick and stone, and occupied only two weeks, cost $700,000 to build and was supposed to be fireproof. It was soon a mass of fire, the interior burning rapidly. Only a few persons were in the building at the time of the outbreak and they were hurried out.

SEVENTEEN ARE DROWNED

SAD RECORD OF CASUALTIES FOR THE SUMMER.

List of Those Who Have Perished in the Willamette River and Nearby Streams.

Seventeen deaths from drowning have occurred since May 24, including the four tragedies of last Sunday, and the summer season has been marred to a great extent by these casualties. Perhaps the most pathetic of all the drownings were those of Madeline and Fred Steffensen, occurring Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock off the Ash Street dock.

The body of the young woman was recovered at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The body of Fred Steffensen was found at 7 o'clock last night further out than the body of Madeline. The bodies of the other Finley and Hugh H. E. Collins and Charles Wade caught it with grappling irons at the edge of the channel, in 20 feet of water. Both bodies were taken to the Finley establishment.

All Praise Roosevelt's (E. P. M.). The newspapers today comment approvingly of President Roosevelt's courtesy and tact during his delicate negotiations with the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries at Oyster Bay Saturday.
