Bitter, Black, Bile and How Right Food Corrects It.

Billousness, from incorrect food, opens the way for an outfit of derangements of not only the body but the mind as well.

The world is a dark or gloomy place to the victim, whether millionaire or The wife of the head_of a great insur-ance office in an Eastern city, was cured.

anne office in an Eastern city, was cured, completely, of this wretched affliction by the use of Grape-Nuts. She says:
"For years I was a constant sufferer from billiousness and extreme constipation and I suffered from the most dread-ful headaches once a week, which some-times lasted I or i days at a time. Grape. Nuts food came to my notice about 5 years ago. I liked it from the first and began to use it because I liked it, without any thought that it might help my health. To my surprise I noted that after a short time all my altments began to decrease, and they gradually but surely disappeared. I am now, and have been for years, completely free from them and enjoy perfect health.

"Everyone in my house now eats Grane."

"Everyone in my house now eats Grape-Nuts regularly, even my little two-year-old girl likes it with her Postum Coffee (another thing we are never with-out) and prefers it to any other cereal. It pulled her through a difficult period of teething during the hot weather—she never refused Grape-Nuts when other food could not tempt her to eat. It is the first food I intend to give to my haby boy when I wean him.

"My husband eats more Grape-Nuts food at every meal than of the county of the food at every meal than of any other one dish. He says it never palls on him, and he finds that it regulates his bowels perfectly." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Boston was Mr. Prescott's birthplace During the 66 years of his life he had Scott & Gulf Railway, comptroller, and later manager of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, vice-president of the Northern Pacific, receiver of the western division of the Northern Pacific, and receiver of the East Side Railway Company. Before coming West he was for a term manager of Armour's Bank in Kansas City, and afterwards Mayor of that city.

His life in Portland had been a public one and he had been identified with almost every movement which made for the betterment of the city. In connection with Henry Villard he conceived the plant erecting the present Portland Hotel, and bought the site which that by now occupies. The property passed into the hands of a stock company before its completion, but it was to Mr. Prescott's progressive spirit that such an undertaking was started and eventually finished. He was an active member of the Commercial Club and Chamber of Commerce as well as other commercial bodies, and was prominently identified with all the clubs of Portland, being one of the founders and charter members of the Ariington Club, its second presi-dent, and again its executive officer last year. Always of a musical nature, Mr. Prescott founded the Orchestra Union in the early 80's, and later the Handel and the Hayden vocal societies. He was a life member of the Multnomah Clib, vice-president of the Irvington Tennis Club, and prominently identified with the membership of other organizations. A wife and daughter, the latter Mrs. E. C. Mears, survive Mr. Prescott. The funeral services will be held at the First Unitarian Church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, at which Dr. T. L. Ellot will officiate. There will be private services at the cemetery later.

By A. A. G. Again the question arises: "Are there two Pineros? Is the one who wrote "Iris" and "The Notorious Mrs. Ebbsmith" the same as gave us "Sweet Lavender" and "Lady Bountiful?" seems that the same Englishman that name is responsible for the four of them and many others, but so greatly do they vary that it is almost inconceivable that the cynic, the skeptic, the author of countless epigrams touching the joke of living could pos-sibly have given us "Lady Bountiful" for instance. This Pinerdo must be a "Lady Bountifut," a few years ago, would have been designated a "do-mestic drama." It is of the "Dora Thorne' school, and is almost as weepy as "East Lynne," without thread of "problem" that made Mrs. Wood's piece the forerunner of the modern "problem

Louis Frohoff as "Heron" had the best assignment, and had he been more fa-millar with his lines would have come very near "hogging the show." His conception of the part is good and he His was always equal to the demands but After him, Virginia Brissac deserves the palm. Her Margaret was beautiful and demonstrated the young lady's emotional abilities as nothing else in which she has appeared here. The large audience last night paid her the tribute of tears for her work in the third act.

"Lady Bountiful" is not a good vehicle for the leading man or woman. Neither Dennis nor Camilla are big parts. Neither makes great demands and neither dominate the play. Mr. Ormonde and Mrs. Moore did all that was necessary in the premises, but it wasn't very much, Marion Barhyte sustained an important role so well that her friends were greatly pleased. Her part of Miss Brent is the longest and most difficult she has yet essayed and she deserves a considerable share of credit.

Clarence Montaine was excellent as Veale, Christle MacLean's slavey was splendidly done. Laura Adams was as always excellent in a sympathetic part, while Harry Bradly made his cockney stableman a real "live one." Earle Wil-liams was altogether admirable in the dignified, rather cold-blooded role of English nobleman, while Morgan Wal-lace, Reginald Mason, Eleanor Haber, Marie Gordon and Ralph Bell each were quite satisfactory. The ladies, particularly Miss Moore, wore some stunning costumes and the scenic embellishments were first rate in every respect. "Lady Bountiful" will run all week, with usual matinees.
