On Third Floor.
Come and sup with us on the toothsome delicacies our demonstrator serves FREE on Third Floor, near the big elevators—you'll sure fall in love with the delicious "ROSETTE WAFERS" she—this modern Eve—is cooking with the aid of the new "Rosette Waffle Irons." "HE WANTED TO BE THAR"

One day last Spring a textile worker in the Biddeford (Me.) cloth mills called at the office of the Overseer and asked permission to remain out a few days. Being short of help, the overseer asked him if he wanted to stay out for anything particular. The French-speaking operative replied: "Yassir, I'm going to get married, un I'd lik to be thar—that's all." It's almost as important that you be here today, reader. These events happen seldom in a lifetime. Let nothing hinder you sharing in these values; arrange your duties so as to spend at least part of the day at this store. If anyone would tempt you to neglect this duty you owe to yourself, just impress it upon them that you want to be here—that's all, except what you'll read in other parts of this announcement.

"Bijou Salons—Second Floor."

There's a never-ending round of "Busyness" in the year-round millinery salons. No sooner do we finish with one season's business than we have another started. We don't allow goods to gather here long enough to go out of style; there's always "something new under the sun." Already we're ready for those folk who want the new advance styles in Autumn Hats—and, better still, we've arranged to own the new creations so we may sell them at underprices from the very start. Today we shall place on sale a new lot of hand-some silk Turbans and the latest novelty for Fall—the "dove" model—aptly named, as it is made up in shirred silk, trimmed at side with wings—"a bird," indeed. $3.00 Special today at
