FERRY FOR ST. JOHNS.-Mr. Brink, of FERRIT FOR ST. JOHNE.—Mr. Brink, of Tacoma, is seeking a franchise for a ferry at St. Johns. and the matter has gone to the committee on landings and wharves of the St. Johns Council. This committee is to consider where the St. Johns landings should be located, and investigate all matters pertaining to the proposition before making report. Attorney osition before making report. Attorney McFadden said that there would be no trouble about innding on the west side of the river. He said that the rates would five cents for pedestrians, 25 cents single rigs and 25 cents for double, committee will carefully consider the schedule part of the franchise. The proposition is to put the ferry in opera-tion inside of 60 days after the franchise has been secured, and the boat to have capacity for general traffic. A 10-year franchise is asked. It is thought that there would be good business for a ferry boat that will lessen the distance to Portland very materially. A ferry at St. Johns also would form the connecting link in a fine driveway from Portland way of the Linnton road and the iliamette boulevard, or the Columbia ulevard. The committee may be able to submit a report at the meeting of the St. Johns Council next Monday night. GOPHER EXTERMINATOR.-Eward Renfer, on Grand avenue, has invented a gopher exterminator, which he warrants will do up any sized gopher. There is no patent on this invention, as Mr. Renfer degites that the whole world shall have the benefit. It is a simple contrivance and in-expensive, consisting of a short piece of inch pipe. One end is securely closed by means of a solid cap screwed on. In the end of this cap is a hole large enough for a shingle nail. The exterminator resembles a toy cannon. This cannon is fastened to a board, loaded with a shotgun shell, lightly charged. A shingle nall is inserted in the hole in the cap. By means of springs and gear the can-non is discharged when placed where the muzzle points in the track of the gopher, and the animal comes along and humps his head against the spring. Mr. Renfer says it never falls to kill the pher. Lawns are frequently ruined gophers, but this invention will stop such depredations.

LATING TRACKS ON ALBINA AVENUE. The Portland Consolidated Railway Company is laying a double track on Albina avenue between Mississippi avenue and Skidmore street and Killingsworth avenue The distance is nearly one mile, and when completed, will give the company another branch connecting with the St. Johns line. Peminsula cars instead of run-ning on Williams avenue in Upper Albina may be operated on the Lower Albina branch, if it be found that the big cars can climb the steep hill on Mississippl avenue, between Central Albina and Multnomah Addition.

CIVIL SERVICE

Auditor Devlin's Letter on Removal of Weidler the Cause.

PAY HIS

Until Some Competent Tribunal Has Decided That Weldler Has No Right to Office, Commission

Will Be Ignored.

At the meeting of the Municipal Civil Service Commission yesterday morning. the members were considerably disturbed by the receipt of a communication from City Auditor Devlin relative to the posttion of the Commission in suspending Colonel Milton W. Weidler as Secretary of the Fire Department, the Auditor's upon a demand of the Commission that Colonel Weidler's salary warrant should hereafter be withheld.

Mayor Lane and the other members of the Commission refused to make this letter public, or give the press access to it in any way, upon the alleged ground that it had not been officially considered by them. The text of the letter follows: To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the Civil Service Commission of the City of Portland, Or.—Gentlemen: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 12th inst. in which you advised me that Dep-uty Auditor Milton W. Weidler is not entitled to his salary from and after the date of such communication. I respectfully ask you to reconsider your decision as to this matter for the following reasons:

On the 16th day of June, 1908, Mr. Weldler was duly certified to me as eligible to the office of Deputy Auditor, and thereafter was appointed by me to that office, since which time he has discharged his duties in an emitime he has discharged his duties in an emi nently satisfactory manner. While he is hold-ing his office under a regular appointment and discharging his duties, I do not see how I can legally refuse to recognize his right to pay for his services. It seems to me that after a person is certified to be eligible by the Civil Service Commission, is duly appointed. and in pursuance of such appointment enters into the possession of the office to which he has been appointed, that thereafter the juris-diction of the Commission over such appointes is at an end. He is then under the jurisdiction of the appointing power. There is no power given by the charter to any authority to remove an officer after be has been duly appointed except upon charges as appointed in section 317 of the charter, and it would seem to follow that if there is no power of re-moval except as above specified, there is no moval except as above specified, there is no power to stop the pay of the incumbent so long as he honestly and efficiently performs the duties of his office.

I do not know whether or not any mistake was made by the Commission in passing upon the qualifications of Mr. Weidler for the office he now holds, but, having been duly appointed, it seems to me that he has a right to hold the office and receive the emoluto hold the office and receive the emolu ments until he has had a hearing before somompetent tribunal, and that tribunal has ided that he has no right to the office. is made my duty by the charter to allow disallow claims against the city, and sect 277 of the charter specifies particularly we claims of officers I shall disallow, and claim of Mr. Weidler for his aslary is within the restrictions of this section. I cause I do not wish to act contrary their views if I can possibly avoid it consistently with my duty as the auditing o cumstances. I feel bound to approve and such the claim of Mr. Weidler for his salary while be remains in office and in the faithful performance of the duties thereof and under tion 280 of the charter I believe it to be the duty of the Mayor and Auditor to sig-warrants for such salary after it is audite and allowed by me. I have the honor to be, yours very respectfully THOS. C. DEVLIN. Auditor of the City of Portland. August 16, 1905.

Street Railway Will Pay.

When the question of the improvement of Williams avenue, from McMillen to Morris streets, came up in the meeting of the City Council yesterday, City Attorney McNary explained to the members that the Consolidated Rallroad Company had agreed to pay for its share of the improvements, in exact accord with the specifica-tions of the City Engineer. He stated further that one of the principal stockholders of the corporation was now here from New York, and in a recent conference upon the subject had given assur-ances of a disposition to meet the de-

The result of the negotiations between the City Attorney and the leading officials of the street railway company was viewed with eminent satisfaction by the Councilmen, some of whom seemed to regard it in the light of a concillatory spirit by the men, some of whom seemed to regard it in the light of a conciliatory spirit by the new owners of the corporation.

City Council Notes

The City Council yesterday repealed ordinance No. 14.633, prohibiting the saw-ing of wood upon certain streets. As the matter now stands, the wood-sawing machines are privileged to run anywhere in the city limits. Councilman Wills also introduced an ordinance compelling streetcar companies to maintain closed gates upon the sides of the care next to the tracks as a guard against accidents.

Another new measure that came before the Council was an ordinance prohibiting farmers from selling their produce on the atreets without first obtaining a license, or a permit from the Market Inspector ofter it was shown that they had regis-tered at the public market. It was refer-red to the license committee.

The application of Paul Reicker for a rebate on his liquor license was granted.

The garbage ordinance went over until the next meeting of the Council, and the Committee on Health and Police, to whom it was referred, not being quite ready to

The matter of granting a franchise to a company giving it the right to erect and maintain automatic and auxiliary firealarm boxes, was laid on the table until the next meeting.

Says Amendment Is "Doctored."

In the matter of the ordinance proposed Councilman Rushlight relative to the otection of life on noats plying the watera of the Willamette River, a question arose in the Council yesterday concerning the amendments adopted by the committee on health and police, with the result that both the original measure as well as the substitute were referred to the judiciary committee for further consideration.

Councilman Rushlight claimed that the amended ordinance, as it was presented to the Council, was not the same measure as the one that had been agreed upon by

This department has temporary headquarters at the Lewis and Clark Fair, but there had been no intimation that it would remain here permanently, until this information was received at the Chamber of Commerce

In order to avoid any future compilications, however, Mr. McNary suggested that he be empowered to institute a friendly suit against the Portland Consolidated Railroad Company, upon behalf of the city, to determine the various points at issue, and this was unanimously agreed to by the body.
