R. D. Hume Sued for Hundred and Twenty-Five Thousand.

KING OF CURRY COUNTY

E. B. Burns and Wife Bring Actions for Alleged Malicious Prosecution and Other Causes They Enumerate.

R. D. Hume, the millionaire Rogue River canneryman, ex-member of the Oregon Legislature, and frequently spoken of as the King of Curry County, is the defendant in damage suits just filed in the State Circuit Court at Gold Beach by E. B. Burns and wife. The amount sought to be recovered is $12,500. Mr. Burns is a merchant at Gold Beach and is also engaged in the business of salmon packing and ship-ping and owns extensive mining in-terests. He alleges that for more than two years past Hume has been trying to run him out of business, and has committed many malicious and outrageous acts against him and wife. Hume has been located in Curry County, at a place called Wedderburn, adning Gold Beach, for 20 years, and Burns first appeared upon the scene nine years ago. Hume had been running a large store, and Burus also opened a store and also became an opponent in the salmon canning busi-ness. Three complaints have been filed by Burns and his wife through Veazle & Freeman and Robert Burns as attor-

Caused Burns' Arrest.

In one suit against Hume, Burns sets forth as a cause of action that in October, 1903, Hume falsely and ma-liciously caused his arrest in the Jus-tice Court at Gold Beach on a charge of anchoring the stern-wheel steamer Rogue River in the river bearing the same name and placing obstructions in the river fronting the tide banks owned by Hume. This case was sub-sequently dismissed by the court as alicious, and Burns wants Hume to my him $25,000 in settlement. Mrs. Nellie F. Burns, wife of E. B. Burns has sued Hume for $50,000, because he caused her to be forcibly ejected from a building at Gold Beach used as a hotel and store building, in September, 1902. She avers that she was violently and brutally treated. Mr. Burns owned one-half of the building at this time, under a deed from Mrs. Fannie M. Kennedy, and had an ption to purchase the other half from the owner, Mrs. J. D. Cooley.

Ejected Burns and Wife.

Hume bought from Mrs. Cooley, and also obtained a deed from Mrs. Ken-nedy and then proceeded to put Burns, and also his stock of goods, out on the t, and compelled Mrs. Burns to Burns sued in the State Circuit Court, contending that some one had stolen the deed he obtained from Mrs. Kennedy, and that Mrs. Cooley could not refuse to carry out her option. He won both cases before Judge Hamilton, who held that Burns was entitled to all of the property when he had pur-chased Mrs. Cooley's half, which he had authority to do. Burns avers that he afterwards bought a piece of ground from Mrs. Blake and erected a building. Hume set claim to this land and erected a barbed wire fence ground the building. Burns again aptroubles and loss to which he was put, he asks $50,000 recompense. This, added to the other two claims, makes nn aggregate of $125,000.

W. H. Grindstaff and George D. Schalk, real estate agents, yesterday filed suit in the State Circuit Court against Merchants' Investment & Trust Company for $1550 commission for finding a purchaser for lot block 175, at the southeast corner of Sixth and Stark streets. The property was sold to Irene G. Gordon, August 1. for $89,000. The plaintiffs aver that they were employed on July 6 last to find a buyer for the property, and did so in the person of Irene G. Gordon, who was represented by her husband, Phil K. Gordon, as agent. Grindstaff & Schalk further allege that they were the primary, efficlent and procuring cause of the sale of with his clenched fists, blackening her eyes, and otherwise inflicted serious injuries upon her. He followed her on the street when she had started to go to her daily work, and vilified and attacked her, and she was compelled to have him arrested.
